Written For The Advance.

Be True

Proverbs 12: 17-22.

When you speak with one another,
When in distant lands you roam,
When you walk with friend or brother,
When you talk with those at home—
Along fair honour's path proceed
And in each thought and word and deed
Be True

Some one is on you depending;
Confidence in you they place;
Be their guard for them contending;
Never show a double face:
If you to such a friend would prove
And know the joys of grateful love
Be True

Bravely scorn each sinful offer;
Neither give nor take a bribe;
Put to sh me the heartless scoffer
And his vile unthinking tribe:
To gain the good-will of the just
And have them place in you their trust,
Be True.

If the Father's constant blessing
You desire while here below,
If instead of idle guessing
You His precious truths would know,
If you would win the victor's crown
When all your burdens are laid down,
Be True.

Colborne, April, 1896. —T. WATSON.

Line Town and A E

From our own Correspondent

Mr. Fred Cullis had a very successful wood-bee last week.

Mr. J. M. Davis is home again, after a month's visit with friends in Brockville and vicinity. During his absence Mr. Davis has filled himself chuck full of poor house facts.

Mr. H. Wyvill's sugar camp was raided a short time ago by a number of young men and a quantity of the sweet made away with. The same parties visited Mr. W. Richardson's sugar camp but were discovered and told to make themselves scarce.

. Mr. W. Heath lost a valuable cow last week.

Some have commenced to plow.

Swinton Park

From our own Correspondent.

Muddy roads are the order of the day.

A number of our citizens are busily engaged making maple syrup. We wonder who the young men were who went and made taffy with the sap that a lady had spent an afternoon's hard labor gathering. If you have no respect for yourself, young men, you ought to respect a lady and at least leave the pans where you get them, as we understand there are a couple missing. However, we are glad to learn it is not blamed on the boys of the Park.

We are glad to learn that those who have been ill are recovering.

There will be no service in the Presbyterian church for a few Sabbaths until further arrangements are made, as the Rev. Mr. McFdayen is going away.

The Endeaver meeting will be held at eleven o'clock next Sabbath morning instead of Thursday night.

The Rev. Mr. Savage will deliver a lecture in the Methodist church Wednesday evening on the "Slums of old London."

We expect seeding will be on hand soon. Some of our citizens have commenced to plough, although the snow of last Friday delayed them a little.

Eugenia.

From our own Correspondent.

News this week is rather scarce. Our girls are in the sugar bush, and many of the young men have gone to other parts. This leaves our town pretty quiet, but with the advent of spring we hope things will improve.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Jas. Carson of Salem is dangerously ill with hemmorhage of the lungs and paralysis.

Ex-Councillor Pedlar and Mr. Walker Sloan have gone to Owen Sound to serve on the jury this week.

Mr. Thurston of Kimberley filled the pulpit of the Methodist church on Sunday evening, Mr. Balfour being rather poorly and not able to attend to his duties.

Rev. Mr. McNab of Kilsyth preached in the Hall on Sunday afternoon, but owing to the state of the roads the attendance was not as large as usual.

There are good reports from all our boys who went to Manitoba. They all got work at good wages.

We are sorry to learn that George Cairns, eldest son of Mr. Frank Cairns, is very low with inflammation.

Miss Jessie McKenzie and nephew are spending a few days at her parental home, M. D. McKenzie's.

Mr. W. Harrison and family took their departure on Monday evening for York state, where he will take charge of a farm. We wish them every success in their new home.

Markdale

From Our Own Correspondent

After a brief illness Mrs. Albert Jackson, of Pleasant Valley, passed away on Saturday, 10th inst. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. Wm. Flesher of the suburbs, and was married to Mr. Albert Jackson about two years ago. The funeral took place on Sunday and proceeded to the Methodist church, Rev. Mr. Simpson preaching an appropriate sermon, after which the remains were intered in Markdale public cemetery. Mr. Jackson has the sympathy of the whole community.

Priceville

From our own Correspondent.

Items of interest are so few and far between that we are tempted to say that we saw a couple of fellows looking at some axes lately in one of our mercantile estabilshments. One didn't buy because he had four or five such articles at home, and the other gent hadn't the boodle with him. D. had his trouble for nothing, but such is life.

The Crown hotel changed hands again last Monday. The new proprietor is Mr. Patrick Bolger, brother of Mr. M. Bolger of Dundalk.

Our burg is beginning to assume a somewhat deserted appearance. Many of our young men have gone to other parts for the summer, and there are more to follow.

Instead of the usual E. L. meeting on Friday night of this week at the Methodist church, the Rev. J. Mahan of Flesherton will deliver a lecture on "Jesuitism in Canada: its dangers and its remedy." Silver collection. This is a live question of the day and is worthy of a full house.

For something extra neat and artistic in the line of posters see those announcing the service of song to be held in the Methodist church on the evening of the 23rd inst. They were printed at The Advance office.

The time for spring poetry has arrived and one of our boys has already blossomed out in that line. His effusion was well received.

By the time this appears in print spring work will be general in this neighborhood. Everything betokens a successful season, and we truly and sincerely hope a bountiful harvest will be the result. Did we hear ye editor say Amen?
