Ran 10 Miles

With No Clothing On Except a Shirt.

From the Chesley Free Press

On Monday of last week, Henry Miller of Guelph came to work at Thos. Bearman's saw mill on 8th con, Eldersle. The other hired hands at Bearman's thought that Miller was soft and set to work to frighten him. They told miller that one of the hired men who made a pratice of getting up in his sleep often took a razor and attempted to cut some of the hired men's throats. Before going to bed Hotham, one of the hired hands, proceeded to act the part of the crazy man, and taking out a butcher knife began to sharpen it. Another of the gang drew a pipe and pretending it was a revolver pointed it at Miller and threatened to shoot him. Miller who was very badly scared rushed into Mr Bearman's room and asked his protection, but Bearman only laughed at his employee, who returned to where his tormentors were. A second time Miller was frightened and again sought Bearmen's protection, but with the same result. After Miller had gone to bed Hotham again appeared on the scene, this time with a lantern and knife. The object of Hotham, Alexander and the rest of the gang was to drive Miller into Bearman's room when the former was in an almost nude condition. This time Miller who was scared almost out of his wits, yelled at the top of his voice, and with no clothing on but his shirt left the house and ran down the concession as fast as he could to Wm. Orr's, about two miles distant. He awoke Mr. Orr and asked to be let in. Mr. Orr, seeing that the man had only his shirt on and that he appeared to be crazy, refused the stranger admittance until his step-son, Mr. Jas. Spencer, came down stairs. While Mr. Spencer was coming down stairs, the dogs began barking furiously, and this scared Miller, who started off at a rapid pace towards the county line of Bruce and Grey. Mr. Spencer called after the young man, but to no effect. Miller's next run was about four miles across to 12th con. of Sullivan to August Gobert's. He awakened Gobert and asked him for a pair of pants. Gobert thought the man was crazy and threatened to shoot him unless he left the premises. This was about 3 o'clock a. m. Miller next struck out for 10th con. Sullivan and landed at the home of Chas. Such, jr. Charlie was awakened and allowed the almost frozen man to come into his house, where he was provided with clothing. Mr. Such sent for County Councillor Anderson, who ordered a constable to have Miller arrested as a vagrant and the Magistrate committed him to Owen Sound gaol for two months and the same day Miller was taken to the gaol. When Mr. Anderson learned the true state of affairs, how the young man had been abused and scared, he made application to the county judge to have his convictions quashed and the prisoner was released. On Tuesday constable Gray was informed of the circumstances, and proceeding to Bearman's mill arrested Wesley Hotham and his pal Jas. Alexander. The former appears to be the dare-devil of the gang and does not seem to take the matter seriously, but Alexander appears to be extremely penitent for the part he took in a foul plot to frighten a young man and send him on a cold night a distance of 10 miles in such a pitiable condition. He also lays the burden of the blame on Bearman for allowing such conduct in his house, because he was aware of what went on, and this was only the climax of other acts somewhat similar in nature. The feeling of the people is strongly against Bearman for allowing a sort of terrorism to be carried on in his house, and Hotham and Alexander will no doubt find that the law deals severely with cases of this kind in which they were the principal actors and what they considered as a huge joke on an innocent chap will not likely be considered in the same light by the justices before whom the case is tried. On Tuesday Hotham and Alexander appeared before Magistrates Halliday and Elliot and were released on furnishing $500 bail each. Constable Gray who is acting in the public interests as prosecutor will see that the rascality of this kind will not be allowed to go unchecked at Bearman's mill or anywhere else. To-day (Thursday) Hotham and Alexander will receive their preliminary trial before Magistrates Halliday and Elliot.

..Spring Poetry..

If used in connection with proper subjects and handled in the right way should be just as interesting as summer or fall poetry. Ordinary poetry

IS NOT THE SUBJECT

Of this sketch. It is something more valuable. Something the people cannot do without at this season of the year.

It is Harness and Farm Supplies

I claim to keep in stock the best goods to be got in the line of horse goods, such as harness, buggy dusters, axle grease, sweat pads, hoof ointment, whips, rubber lap rugs, lined and unlined; dash aprons, and pneumatic horse collars. Always up-to-date in everything

The POETRY of the THING

Comes in the immense satisfaction you get in using our goods and the reasonable prices you have to pay for them.
