Rules of Rhe Road

Are you an owner of a motor vehicle?

Are you thoroughly conversant with the rules of the road ?

Many people who drive cars have not taken the trouble to learn even the ordinary rules of the road, and when the police take them to task feel deeply grieved. For the benefit of such we publish a few of the Motor Vehicle Act.

No motor vehicle shall be driven upon any highway within a city, town or village, at a greater rate of speed than 20 miles an hour.

No person under the age of 16 years shall drive a motor vehicle and no person over the age of 16 and under the age of 18 years shall drive a motor vehicle on the highway unless and until such person has passed an examination and obtained a license provided for a person who drives a motor vehicle for pay, hire or gain.

Every motor vehicle must have markers attached in a position to be easily distinguished, and "the number shall be kept free from dirt and obstruction."

When a person travelling on a highway in charge of a vehicle meets another vehicle he shall turn out to the right from the centre of the road allowing the the vehicle to get one half of the road.

When a person travelling or being upon a highway in charge of a vehicle meets or on horseback meets another vehicle or person on horseback at a crossroads or intersection, the vehicle or horseman to the right hand of the other vehicle or horseman shall have the right of way.

Where a person travelling or being upon a highway in charge of a vehicle or on horseback travelling at a greater speed, the person so overtaken shall quietly turn out to the right and allow such vehicle to pass.

Where one vehicle is met and overtaken by another, if by reason of the weight of the load on either of the vehicles so meeting or of the vehicles overtaken, the driver finds it impracticable to turn out, he shall immediately stop, and, if necessary for the safety of the other vehicle, and if required to do so, he shall assist the person in charge thereof to pass without damage.

The penalties vary from $1 and costs to $20 and costs for a first offence, but no penalty or imprisonment shall be a bar to the recovery of damages by an injured person.
