Orangeville Presbytery

At the meeting of the Orangeville Presbytery on Tuesday the matter of the union of Priceville and Swinton Park congregations, the appeals for proper certificates from Dundalk, Rev. Mr. Morrison's resignation and a disputed account of Rev. Mr. Wells, late pastor of Flesherton congregation were the only cases on the docket of any interest to our readers. Swinton Park congregation were represented by that stalwart veteran, Mr. D. McMillan, and by Mr. H. McMillan. The former, ably assisted by Mr. H., made a vigorous appeal for the union. Priceville was not represented. Proton Station, with which charge Priceville is connected at present, was represented by Mr. Neilson. Dr. McRobbie spoke strongly on behalf of leaving the charges as they were at present. It was finally decided after a careful discussion that the union of Swinton Park and Proton Station be not interferred with for the present. In the matter of the appeals from Dundalk the Moderator of the Dundalk session had forgotten the session records which contained the minutes regarding the considering of the certificates and had also neglected to cite the session in order to appoint some one of their members to represent them. After considerable discussion it was finally moved that the irregularity of the Session be condoned and the case be proceeded with if Mr. Harrison would answer for the session being agreeable with what was done. Mr. Harrison wasn't willing to do this. Mr. McKenzie, of Orangeville, couldn't see that the Presbytery had anything to work on as the Session might be willing to grant proper certificates. Mr. Harrison couldn't say whether they would or not. He said the reason the Session had not been able to have a meeting from April 8th to the present time was on account of the absence of one member from home and the sickness of another. A motion was finally carried "that the matter be referred back to the Session with the hope that proper certificates would be granted." Rev. Mr. Morrison's resignation to take effect on the 16th inst. was accepted. Mr. McKenzie paid a high tribute to Mr. Morrison's moral and intellectual abilities. Mr. Stewart represented the Corbetton congregation. M. Wells' account with Flesherton congregation was $162.68. The congregation acknowledge $117.68. It was referred back to committee.—Herald.

Kimberley

From our own correspondent.

The weather in this vicinity has been very favorable for the past week and the farmers are making good progress with their seeding, many of them being nearly through with it.

Last Saturday afternoon your cor took his fishing pole to go down the river to fish. He was walking down main street in a rather preoccupied state of mind, but was aroused from his reverie by the merry chirping of birds in the direction of the school yard. He looked around to locate the songster, but in a moment birds and songs were forgotton, for such a strange sight met his gaze. The school yard seemed as if it had really been transformed. The woodpiles, which for years had decorated the front portion of the grounds, were removed from their usual prominent position to the north side of the yard. The grounds were thoroughly cleaned and flower beds were arranged in front of the school. Several trees had been planted and altogether the place presented a neat and tasty appearance. Your cor. found himself humming a line of his favorite hymn, "Lo, what a change in one short hour!" He stood for some time feasting his eyes upon the scene till the six o'clock whistle reminded him that he must hasten on his way, but he left the school ground with the resolve that whenever he grew weary looking at the delapidated sidewalks of our village he would come and rest his eye by viewing the orderly play ground.

Messrs. W. Thurston, W. Barnhouse and G. Wickens wheeled down from Flesherton on Sunday. They found the road rather rough.

Rev. Mr. Foster of Texas preached in the union hall both Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs. Baker of Bay View is the guest of Mrs. A. Bell.

Miss B. Hammond, has a fine new bicycle and we believe others of the young ladies are also thinking of getting wheels.

Why certain parties in Kimberley smile:

Mr. T. B. Carruthers, because the new addition which he has built to his house makes such a decided improvement to it.

Mr. Armstrong, because Arbor day was such a success at the school.

Mr. Thurston and Mr. Knott, because they had a share in helping fix up the grounds.

Rev. Mr. Balfour, because navigation is open.

A bill was passed at the recent session of the Legislature with regard to bicyclists and bicycle riding which is of considerable importance. Hereafter a wagon on the highway must give a cyclist room to pass on the right. A cyclist overtaking a person driving and being desirous of passing, must give audible warning, and pass on the left side. Drivers of vehicles on the highway must allow sufficient room of the travelled highway for cyclists to pass on the side the law allows as above defined.
