Death of W. Smith O'Brien.

The Arabia brings intelligence of the death of one of the first and best of Irishmen WILLIAM SMITH O'BRIEN, at the age of 63. Like many more of his countrymen, he was carried away by the ardor of youth, and fed into the commission of errors, for which he has had to bear his share of suffering and obloquy. He was born in the County of Clare; received a good education at Harrow and Cambridge; and at the early age of 24 was elected to represent the borough Ennis, in the British Parliament. Tracing his ancestry back to the chief of Irish kings, his lineage gave him a position amoung his countrymen which his talents alone would not have acquired for him in his younger days. In 1832 he was returned for Limerick, a constituency which he continued to represent for many years. In 1842 was inaugurated the "repeal" movement, which carried him along with it; and the arrest of O'CONNELL and other repeal leaders in November of the following year, on a charge of conspiracy and unlawful assembling drove him still further on in a course which can now be characterized as little short of reckless. From this time forward, both in Parliament and out of it, he became a violent debater on questions affecting Ireland, and closely associated himself with the "Young Ireland," or physical force party. In 1848 he made a violent speech in the House of commons threatening the establishment of an independent republic in Ireland. For endeavoring to organize a national convention of the Irish people he was arrested in May, 1848 and brought to trial on a charge of sedition, in company with THOS FRANCIS MEAGHER, now a General in the army of the Federal States. On this charge he escaped conviction; but his hot-headedness urged him still forward in his reckless course, and having attempted a rising among the peasantry of Ballingarry, he had to fly into Tipperary, where he was arrested and conveyed to Dublin. He was brought to trial at Clonmel in October on a charge of high treason, and sentenced to death; but the sentence was commuted to transportation for life. In July, 1849, he embarked for VanDieman's Land, where he remained until 1856, when the pardon accorded to the Irish agitators of 1859 he visited this country, and many of our citizens will remember the enthusiasm with which he was received and the speech he delivered from the balcony of the Rossin House.

Of late years Mr. O'BRIEN declined to enter Parliament. But he was not a silent observer of political events. His pen and his tongue were always ready in every good work affecting the interests of his countrymen. In the present unnatural struggle in America he has frequently taken occasion to warn Irishmen of the dangers which awaited them on their arrival in the Federal States. His loss will be the occasion of wide-spread regret in his own country, and thousands out side of it will feel a pang that WILLIAM SMITH O'BRIEN is no more.—Leader.

KENNEDY'S

LINIMENT!

Is so admirably calculated to preserve health and remove disease, that no family should be without it. Rheumatism, Erysipelas, Poisonous Bites, Bad Legs, Old Sores, and in fact every sore on man or beast, that has pertinaciously refused to yield to any other treatment, has invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful remedy.

KENNEDY'S PAIN KILLER!

Is put up in 4 oz. bottles, just double the size of any other before the public, and one hundred per cent. better. Experience has fully demonstrated that no remedy has proved so universally prompt and efficient in relieving Coughs as the Pain Killer. It is besides a safe remedy. Full directions with each bottle.

KENNEDY'S HAIR RESTORATIVE!

Will return any head of hair after becoming grey, to its natural color, and make it more beautiful than at the age of eighteen. No Lady or Gentleman will ever become bald or grey, who uses Kennedy's Hair Restorative according to directions with each bottle.

General Depot, Hamilton, C. W.

TO THE READER.

These Medicines are prepared with great care, and expressly for family use, and are so admirably adapted to preserve health and remove disease, that no family should be without them. If you doubt this, read the following Certificates:—

A PERMANENT CURE.

Mr. James Kennedy—Dear Sir—I feel that it is a duty I owe to suffering humanity, to give a revelation of the great benefits I have derived from the use of your Liniment and Pain Killer. After suffering about seven years with an Erysipelas sore on one of my legs, and being obliged to leave off work on several occasions, at one time being confined to my bed for 21 weeks, and trying every means that medical skill could devise—being aided by the notorious Dr. Tumblety—but all to no purpose; I was induced to try your Liniment and Pain Killer. On a Friday in December, 1862, I was obliged to leave off work, and I commenced to use your remedies in the evening of the same day, and on the following Monday morning I resumed work, and am pleased to say that I have never lost a day since from the effects above stated. I must say in all my experience I never saw an article possessing the same healing properties as Kennedy's Liniment.

Signed, JOSEPH DODSON.
