NO. 80.

Come all our friends and neighbors,
Please look into our door,
And see the grand assortment
That we have in our Store.

Come see our Splendid Clothing
Just suited for the Fall,
Come try our Teas and Sugars,
Look at our Groceries all.

I know that you wise Farmers
Complain of your poor crops,
Then that's the very reason
You should patronize Cheap Shops.

Just such as No. 80
Keeps in our County Town,
The burdensome high prices
Mr. Hollinrake puts down.

We keep here first-class Tailors,
And good Dress-Makers too,
The Milliners of Halton
All working hard for you.

Our Clothing for the Winter,
Is well made and so warm,
Suited for every person
And proof against the storm.

In short for every purpose
Our Clothing is prepared,
At the Cheap Store No 80,
Of which you've so much heard.

Of Boots and Shoes we've plenty,
For Gents and Ladies too,
Gaiters of all descriptions
All ready here for you.

Then come all friends and neighbors,
Come to the Mammoth Store,
Where all the Goods are cheaply bought,
For Bills, Commercial, Gore, &c.
