Kells—McMillan—That the roll now revised by this court be the assessment roll of the Township of Artemesia for all purposes for the year 1897. The court closed. W. J. BELLAMY, clerk.

County Court and General Session

The June Sittings of these courts commenced Tuesday last at the Court House before Judge Creasor. The non-jury sittings of the High Court of Justice are scheduled for Tursday and owing to this several of the cases were adjourned. The following were up for trial:—

Page vs. O'Neil—This is an action for infringment of a patent under what is known as "Crabbs Patent Fence," the defendant being a Bentinck farmer. We understand that this case has been selected out of several others as a test case and it will therefore be watched with considerable concern by many farmers who are in the same position as the defendant with reference to using this fence. The case which will be tried without a jury was adjourned until 14th July next. MacKay & Hatton for plaintiff; Elliott (Durham) for defendant.

Smith vs. Willoughby—This was an appeal from Magistrate conviction and will be heard on Monday next. MacKay & Hatton for Appellant; Douglas & Whiteside represented by Mr. Wright, for Respondent.

Fletcher vs. Kelly—In this case Mrs. Fletcher sued James Kelly a hotelkeeper of Markdale, for damages for having supplied liquor to her husband after notice under The Liquor License Act that Fletcher be refused drinks. The case took up almost a day in the hearing and there was a considerable conflict of testimony. A verdict was returned for plaintiff for $25, which, however, only carried Division Court costs. Lucas & Wright for plaintiff; A. G. MacKay and P. McCullough for defendant.

Queen vs. MacKay—The defendant, a young man of 19 years of age, was charged with theft from his employer, a butcher in Shallow Lake. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty. A. G. MacKay for Crown; Bishop & Middlebro for deft.—Advertiser.

Six dealers have taken out licenses in Mount Forest in accordance with the by-law recently passed by the town council, and paid five dollars each for the privilege of disposing of cigars. The cigarette license, which was fixed at $25, seems too high to continue business and all vendors of cigarettes have either disposed of their stocks or shipped them back to the firms.

A 12-year old Grand Valley boy will serve a term in the mimico Industrial school. He entered Dr. Skippen's stable, took out a horse and struck off, but was overtaken, brought back, and arraigned before a bench of magistrates, with the result above stated. Previous bad conduct had quite a bit to do with his sentence.
