Plan to Help Fall Shows Spoiled by the Weather.

A plan for insuring agricultural societies against loss in gate receipts occasioned at exhibitions by rains or storms has been devised by J. Lockie Wilson, secretary of the Ontario Association of Fall Fairs. His idea will be submitted to the Association at its annual meeting, which opens on Jan. [illegible] The proposal is that in case of loss the department of agriculture may, on satisfactory proof, pay the society so affected an additional grant equal to [illegible] of the loss [illegible] payable out of the annual grant to agricultural societies and such [illegible] not exceed [illegible] in any one year. The loss shall be [illegible] gate receipts for the three previous years [illegible] a society [illegible] sum of [illegible] until the point [illegible] secretary and treasurer [illegible] ceived by [illegible] ing that [illegible] have [illegible] and [illegible] proof [illegible] to fair [illegible] Or [illegible] of [illegible] proposed [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible] weather [illegible] should [illegible] Association [illegible] will be [illegible] Legislature [illegible]

DADDY'S CALLING

WRITES OF HABITANTS

What a Correspondent Says of French Canadians

R. E. Vernede, writing to The Daily Chronicle from Montreal, says in part: "The "Habitants" probably are the most prolific people in the world. Years ago the Government had to drop the free grants to families consisting of twelve or more children, for the simple, but amazing, reason that the grants were taken up by thousands and thousands. The withdrawal of the bounty has not, it seems, affected the increase of population and the natural increase is likely to keep the race constant. No other people can come [illegible] with them [illegible] by immigration, and a search amongst [illegible] by the [illegible] at Quebec [illegible] from outside of land that [illegible] themselves could in due course [illegible] from within.

OPERATION HER ONLY CHANCE

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lindsay, Ont.—"I think it is no more than right for me to thank Mrs. Pinkham for what her kind advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. When I wrote to her some time ago I was a very sick woman, suffering from female troubles. I had inflammation of the female organs, and could not stand or walk any distance. At last I was confined to my bed and the doctor said I would have to have an operation performed but this I refused to do. A friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now after using three bottles of it, I feel like a new woman. I most heartily recommend this medicine to all women who suffer with female troubles. I have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills and think they are fine."—Mrs. Frank Bartels, Lindsay, Ontario.

We cannot understand why women will take a chance with operations or drag out a miserable existence, when a trial will prove to all the joy of living which follows taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has a host of admirers of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, bearing-down feelings, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

DR. LEACOCK, HUMORIST.

WRITER OF "KELLY"

The Author, a Glasgow Man, Died in Tragic Circumstances

The author and composer of "Kelly" has just died in tragic circumstances. His name was Will Letters, and he was known throughout the music-hall profession as a man of many admirable traits. He started his career on the stage at the modest end of the business, and attained some eminence as a comedian.

For several years he has appeared with the Pierrots at various summer resorts, and he was thus engaged when attacked with a fatal hemorrhage of the lungs. It occurred last week when he was at work in his white suit and painted face. He lurched forward, and was carried out to await the arrival of the doctor. He became delirious at a later stage, and rambled furiously about songs he was to write.

Letters was one of a school of comedians who had their first successes in the singing rooms—"sing-songs" they were called—of the North of England. Possessed of a good, strong voice, says the Daily Sketch, he first of all made descriptive songs his specialty, but in later years he developed low comedy.

He was engaged successfully in various pantomime productions in England, Ireland, and Scotland, and for a time played the part of Sergeant Lightning in Fred Karno's "Dandy Thieves." He also appeared in succession to Fred Kitchen, as John Willie Jaggs in "Saturday to Monday."

With a certain gift of melody he put together a number of music-hall song successes and provided Wilkie Bard with one of his greatest pantomime efforts, "Put me on an Island where the girls are few," which was wedded to a garbled version of Mendelssohn's "Spring Song."

Later he wrote "Has anybody here seen Kelly?" a song which became so popular as to be a nuisance. The song was taken to Canada and the United States and was the rage of the last song season. His latest success was "Flanagan," which Miss Florrie Forde sang at the Isle of Man. He was engaged on other numbers at the time of his sudden and fatal indisposition.

He was a Glasgow man, and something of a favorite in that city. Following upon several years' approved appearances in pantomime, he had been re-engaged as chief comedian at one of the Birmingham theatres next season.

ACHES, PAINS AND RHEUMATISM?

Zam-Buk will give You Ease.

Have you a bad attack of "general aching"? You know the feeling. Limbs ache, muscles seem to have become tired out, your back aches, now and again a twinge of rheumatism strikes you here and there. Your chest feels tight, there is a pain between your shoulders, and altogether you need toning up.

Cold is responsible for this condition, and a vigorous application of Zam-Buk will put you right. Take a hot bath, if possible, and then rub your feet and the aching limbs well with Zam-Buk.

Mrs. H. Gorle, 76 Berkeley St., Toronto, writes: "I cannot speak too highly of Zam-Buk. A few weeks ago I was suffering from a bad cold which had settled in my throat, chest and limbs. I tried all kinds of remedies, new and old, and found very little relief until I used Zam-Buk. On applying this to throat and chest I found such ease and relief from the tightness and soreness that I determined to use it for the night. I also rubbed it on my limbs where I felt the rheumatic pains. In two days from the time I first began using Zam-Buk I was free from the cold in the chest and feet, and also the rheumatism in my limbs."

Zam-Buk will also be found a sure cure for cold sores, chapped hands, foot ulcers, blood-poison, varicose ulcers, piles, abscesses, ringworm, eczema, rashes, babies' eruptions and chapped places, cuts, burns, bruises and skin injuries generally. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, on receipt of price. Avoid harmful imitations and substitutes.

"High Thinking and Low Living."

Do you know World Wide? The cleverest writers of Britain and America contribute to the success of World Wide, a weekly magazine of the best, and only the best, articles and cartoons of each week on the live subjects of the day, selected with great ability and fairness from the leading British and American journals and reviews.

The English and Canadian editors of World Wide assure its covering the British and Canadian point of view. This cannot be said of any other magazine published in the United States, or even in Britain itself. World Wide is the only publication of its kind in Canada. As someone has said, "World Wide is a feast of reason—an intellectual treat." Regular readers of World Wide are kept in touch with the world's thinking. A complete index at the end of each volume greatly enhances its value for reference.

If you do not know this splendid publication, send one dollar for a year's trial—the rate to new subscribers (regular rate $1.50) and, if in a month's time you notify the publishers that you do not like your bargain, they have promised to promptly refund your full money. That's fair, is it not? Address your subscription to World Wide, Witness Block, Montreal.

THIN HAIR

A LIBERAL OFFER.

When the hair thins out on the top of the head and the bald spot is getting ready to appear in public, don't get discouraged or irritable. Just go to your Druggist and ask for Parisian Sage Hair Tonic. He will charge you 50c. for a large bottle but if it does not cause hair to grow where the hair is thinning out nothing on this earth will.

And we want to say to everybody, man, woman and child, that you can have your money back if Parisian Sage isn't the best hair grower, hair saver, hair beautifier and dandruff cure on the market to-day.

It stops itching scalp and falling hair and makes hair grow thick and abundantly. All druggists everywhere sell Parisian Sage or postpaid from The Giroux Mfg. Co., Fort Erie, Ont. See that the girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle. Sold and guaranteed by Higginbotham Drug Co.
