Markdale - - Ontario

Vandeleur

From our own Correspondent

Last Saturday was court day at Vandeleur.

The Misses Porter of Mulmur are visiting their cousin, Mr. Geo. Shannon.

The Methodist Sabbath school held their annual picnic in Mr. J. I. Graham's bush on Tuesday of last week.

The 12th of Ireland was a quiet day here, nearly everybody having gone to Markdale to celebrate.

While Charley Boland was driving from church on Sunday evening he collided with another buggy and the horse ran away. Both rigs were somewhat damaged but the occupants escaped with a few bruises and a bad scare.

Rev. J. Mahan preached an interesting sermon to the Orangemen on Sunday last.

8th Line, Osprey

From our own Correspondnt.

The recent rains and warm weather have greatly improved the appearance of the crops, and so with a bright eye and elastic step the farmer gathers in the sweet scented hay.

Robt. Burk, Esq., has returned to the parental roof after a visit to his many friends in Buffalo.

Many people of this vicinity celebrated the 12th of July at Feversham.

Miss Elsie Inkster, Miss Kate Somers, Misses Jennie and Lizzie Hale are enjoying their summer vacation at their respective homes.

A number of the youth and beauty of of this vicinity attended a party at Mr. Thompson's of third line, and report a very enjoyable time.

Mr. J. Clinton is to the front with a fine frame barn. What we wonder: Why Will Robertson so often visits the Queen City? How P. Somers enjoyed the raising down east? What brings Jack Coutts home? Why Geo. Burk is so fond of cycling on the hills? When Ed. Madden intends taking that trip to Meaford?

Eugenia.

From our own Correspondent

Early Monday morning the Eugenia L. O. L. turned out in full force to celebrate the day in Markdale. Their appearance, as they and their friends left the hall with about twenty five teams, all gaily decorated, with the ladies in gala costume, was quite imposing. I understand there is soon to be organized a Ladies' True Blue lodge here, under the name of the Victoria Lady True Blues of Eugenia.

Mr. Marcon, of the hoop and veneer factory, was up from Toronto the past week to meet Mr. Pattersen, of Blantyre, who is thinking of buying the factory. As Mr. Patterson was unable to come on account of his mother's death they are to meet this week to arrange the sale.

Master George Paul is visiting his sister, Mrs. R. Bentham, Jr., Flesherton.

Mr. T. E. Fennwick has gone to visit his sister, Mrs. Legard, of Victor, N. Y.

Mr. Hislop, of Stratford, paid a visit to his sister, Mrs. Hislop, of the Valley, the past week.

Miss Minnie Robinson, of Maxwell, is the guest of her brother, Mr. John Robertson, at present.

Born—On July 12, to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lawlor, a daughter. An orange lily, you know.

Haying is now in full blast around this part of the country.

Mr. William Hawkins, of Simcoe county, is visiting his brother, Mr. Robert Hawkins, at present. His daughter, Mrs. Johnston, is with him. Being a former resident of this part of the country, he has a great many friends who are pleased to welcome him back.

Miss Bowerman, of Maple Valley, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. McMullen, of Eugenia.

The Misses Munshaw, Sullivan and Kerr were the guests of Miss Reenie Munshaw at the Eugenia House the past week.

Maxwell.

From Our Own Correspondent

Word has reached the ears of our football boys that Corbetton team called at a certain town on their way home from the match, Dominion Day, and reported they came out victorious, claiming 2 goals to 0, also that they played one hour and a half. Now, boys, own up to the truth, 2 to 2 was the referee's decision which everyone thought was fair, time one hour. Our boys think if it had of been one hour and a half as Corbetton reported the result would of been more favorable to the Maxwell team.

Business is booming at the Osprey cheese factory.

Our young people were busily engaged Friday evening attending parties, one being at Mr. Joseph Clinton's, 4th line, the other at Mr. Albert Thompson's, Artemesia. A good time was reported at each.

Mrs. Maunders, of Toronto, is visit- relatives in this vicinity.

The Rev. Mr. Legate preached a special sermon to the Orangemen last Sunday morning The Orangemen marched in a body to the grove where the service took place.

Some of our young people attended the Endeavor convention in Dromore.

Mr. George Pr e t n, of Winchester, is visiting his home here.

Our L. O. L. celebrated in Feversham. Some of our citizens attended the county celebration in Markdale.

Maple Grove

Mr. Jos. McDonald of Priceville visited friends in the Grove recently, prior to his departure for Manitoba. He mixed business with pleasure and bought a pig from the Stuart Bros.

The Mink is getting very generous, having presented the Goat with a fat sheep on July 12. No doubt the Goat will remember the Mink when the 17th of March rolls around again.

Mr. Arch. McLean, South Line, and Miss Mary Ann Muir, Priceville, visited the Grove on Saturday evening last. The object was to gather orange lilies for the 12th, but it seems that lilies are scarce in these parts.

Our old friend, Bicyclist McArthur, while visiting some of his friends in the Grove recently, left his wheel outside, and on his reappearing to start for home he found that Danny's plymouth rock rooster had eaten two holes in the tire, and a shortage of wind was the inevitable result.

Mr. Duncan Baxter has lost a fine brood mare, which will be a severe blow to him now, as haying is coming on.

Miss Sarah Morrow of Proton Station visited the old homestead on Sunday.

The welcome rain of Sunday morning has cooled the atmosphere and settled the dust. The root crop is also improved thereby.

The Henry Bros. can boast of the best field of roots ever seen in the Grove.

Misses Mary and Bella Campbell of Rochester, N.Y., are at present enlivening the old home with their pleasant countenances and bright and happy smiles.

On Wednesday of last week a number of the young people of the Grove could be seen wending their way to the Presbyterian picnic with ladened baskets. All came away thinking they had a very pleasant afternoon's enjoyment.

This month has been very hot, so far, the thermometer hovering between 80 and 100 degrees in the shade during the days and nights also.

Early one morning, before taking his departure for Manitoba, Mr. D. L. Sinclair shipped in cold storage into the Grove a Whale, which will be a novelty and looked upon and admired by many in our minst.

Query Box—Where did Helen find the calves? When is Roddie from the hills coming down again? Why did the pathmaster of Maple Grove put the load of fine gravel near John's gate? How does Bella like the Cleveland perambulator?

Feversham.

Well, Mr. Editor, the 12th passed off quietly in Feversham. 11 o'clock the Maxwell and Rob lodges arrived to celebrate the glo battle of the Boyne. They marche the hall, where the colors were depo and returned to do justice to an eleg dinner provided by Mr. F. C. Bruce and Bro. H. Heitman, some 450 persons, we understand, taking dinner between these two places. About 2 p.m. the procession marched to Mr. Hudson's bush, where the speaking was held. Excellent addresses were delivered by Revs. Hudson and Legate and our loyal Dr. Scott. So we may well say, Bravo Feversham! Though laboring under considerable difficulties, caused by a few new members of the Singhampton lodge, who declared they would not come to Feversham on account of there being insufficient hotel accommodation, but that did not "cut any figure." We must give Dr. Ball considerable praise for the way in which he canvassed the lodges against the vote of the district. Of course, as far as we can learn up to the time of writing, their hopes were blighted, as their crowd in Singhampton consisted only of Badgeros and themselves. Sorry, indeed, for the Dr. and little Joe, not forgetting Mr. or "Curly" Brown, whose labors were in vain. Maxwell and Rob Roy turned out to a man, and we are proud to report that these two lodges acted strictly on principle. However, we would say that the two lodges who did not answer to the call of the district must bear in mind that there is a possibility of another 12th of July coming, and should they ever attempt any such game as that canvassing game, we would certainly advise them to go and bury themselves in an ash heap on the 11th of July and not come out until the 13th. In conclusion we would say that we had a grand day in Feversham, and further, that it was a credit to the Orangemen, as every person returned home both satisfied and sober.

TIMOTHY.

W. J. Convey a tramp carpenter struck town a few days ago looking for work. On Saturday evening he stole two planes from G. A. Reddick's tool chest at Gillespie's Hotel and sold them to Wm. McCutcheon. Mr. Reddick had a warrant taken out for Convey's arrest and Constable Brundage arrested him. He spent the night in the lock up and was brought before Squire Hamilton on Tuesday and although the prisoner pleaded guilty he was let off on a suspended sentence. The constable is now anxious to know who will pay the costs of the case.—Shelburne Free Press.
