The Owen Sound fair people are running their advertising this year on the begging principal. We have been invited to assist their benevolent enterprise of making money, by printing gratuitously a half column of reading notices, but extremely regret that we are unable to comply. We hope the fair will survive the folly of its management.

We didn't write the following, but it fits our case: Persons knowing themselves indebted to this office are requested to call and settle. All those indebted to this office and not knowing it, are requested to call and find out. All those knowing themselves indebted and not wishing to call, are requested to stay in one place long enough for us to catch them. All those who are not indebted are requested to call and get indebted.

We made a slight mistake last week in announcing prizes for the fall fair races, or rather the wording was ambiguous. There are two purses, the first of $75 for a 2.35 trot, to be divided into $50 and $25 for first and second prizes; the second of $50 for a running race, to be divided into $30 and $20 for first and second. A ladies' bicycle race is also announced, for which prizes of $3, $2 and $1 are offered. Bills will be issued this week making general announcements.

Magistrate courts have been quite frequent of late. Mrs. Purdy of the Station has been twice fined for using language unbecoming a lady. W. Trimble's 'bus. O'Melia was fined one dollar and costs on each charge, the whole amounting to between nine and ten dollars. And it is rumored that more cases are to follow this week.
