The difference between the apple crop this year and last is very marked. Last year apples went a begging, now buyers are glad to get at any price. Throughout the country buyers are numerous and offering $2 a barrel on the trees, and very few takers.

There are others. If you lose the job your're after—there are others; if you're duped by liars rare, don't succumb to fell despair, nor your undergarments tear—there are others. If your friend deserts and mocks you—there are others. If your best girl flirts and shocks you—there are others; you are not the only jay who'se been treated in this way and you can always gaily say—there are others.

On Thursday afternoon last fire was discovered in the outbuilding of Mr. W Hammill, near Singhampton. Before the flames could be extinguished the buildings were destroyed, together with considerable quantity of hay and last season's grain. Fortunately none of this season's grain had been put in. The origin of the fire is unknown; loss, about $2000; insurance, $400. — Creemore Star.

Shrigley is coming to the front in good shape. Mr. Hope, one of the residents of that place, is quite an inventor. He invented a saw set some months ago that is now being manufactured at the Welland Vale works and for which he receives a royalty. He is now engaged on a horseless crrriage to be run by compressed air, which he expects to have in operation in a few months. Shelburne Free Press.

A very remarkable occurence took place on the farm of Mr. Goodfellow, Sarawak, recently. When the household went out in the morning, they found that for about forty rods the ground had sprung up, leaving a wide gap, and raising a ridge of earth on either side, in some places as high as three feet. The gap ran through under a stable with a stone fonndation, and the building was practically broken in two. It stands now with a hump on the roof ridge that was never intended in the original design. All are at a loss to account for the disturbance or what force caused it.

Orangeville is this year trying the experiment of collecting the town taxes without a tax collector. Notices have been issued by the Town Clerk to all tax payers, in which is set forth the amount of taxes due, the rates imposed and the assessment on which paid. Taxes are payable at the Bank of Commerce to the credit of the town Treasurer. On all taxes paid on or before Sept. 1st, a discount of 3 per cent. will be allowed; on all before November 1st, a discount of 2 per cent.; and on all taxes not paid on or before Dec. 1st an additional percentage of 3 per cent will be imposed. Over $5,000 was paid in by Sept. 1st.

Robt. James Moody, the 8 year old son of John Moody, of the 7th line, Amaranth, met with a painful accident on Tuesday. Alex. Gray was cutting grain for Mr. Moody with a self binder. The little fellow had a whip and he thought it would be good sport to secrete himself in the tall grain and strike the horses with his whip when they came opposite him. He did so, not thinking that he was in the greatest danger, and before the horses could be stopped his left thigh was half cut off, the sickle knives cutting about one quarter of the way through the bone. His left hand was also badly lacerated and his little finger had to be taken off Dr Norton was sent for and dressed the wounds and has good hopes of the child's recovery.—Shelburne Free Press.

Some miserable good-for-nothing wretch, with a heart as hard as a rock, to say nothing of his other qualities, administered poison on Monday evening to four milch cows belonging to Rober Miller, a farmer living on the town line of Bentinck. Three of the cows are dead and it is doubtful if the veterinary is able to pull the other one through. Last fall Mr. Miller had four steers killed, which, at first were supposed to have been killed by the train, but further investigation revealed the fact that they had been poisoned. Later on, nine ewe lambs were found in one of the fields, dead. A few weeks ago a steer died suddenly, and all from the same cause. Mr. Miller feels somewhat uneasy and no wonder. Who the guilty party is, is not known, but suspicion points very strongly in a certain direction. One thing sure if the guilty wretch is caught, punishment swift and sure awaits.—Chesley Free Press.

..Spring Poetry..

If used in connection with proper subjects and handled in the right way should be just as interesting as summer or fall poetry. Ordinary poetry

IS NOT THE SUBJECT

Of this sketch. It is something more valuable. Something the people cannot do without at this season of the year.

It is Harness and Farm Supplies

I claim to keep in stock the best goods to be got in the line of horse goods, such as harness, buggy dusters, axle grease, sweat pads, hoof ointment, whips, rubber lap rugs, lined and unlined; dash aprons, and pneumatic horse collars. Always up-to-date in everything

The POETRY of the THING

Comes in the immense satisfaction you get in using our goods and the reasonable prices you have to pay for them.
