Maxwell.

From Our Own Carrespondent.

The warm weather of the past few weeks was replaced last Friday by something of a cooler nature.

Showers have delayed harvesting somewhat, but notwithstanding this many farmers have succeeded in placing the last sheaf under cover. The warm weather of two weeks ago made a decided improvement on the prospects of the pea crop. Threshing will now soon be the general order of the day.

Last Thursday evening a social was held at Mr. Ferguson's, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor society. The gathering was well attended, and all report having had a good time, although the threatened rain did deter some from being present.

Maxwell is now thoroughly temperate in practice at least, if not in principle. Host Cameron has gone back to farming, and no other occupant of the premises having turned up, it gives our corner a rather deserted appearance, and many of our evening visitors and citizens seem at a loss where to take up their quarters.

Not many of our people attended the fair at Flesherton Harvesting, we suppose, detained some, and no doubt others are holding off for the event of the season, Osprey fair, at Feversham.

For the past few days fear, consternation and indignation have been reigning supreme in our poultry yards, owing to the rumor that we are to have a fowl supper early in October. More anon.

Rev. A. Hudson attended a meeting of Orangeville Presbytery in Orangeville on Friday of last week. We understand that it was decided the rev. gentleman would give up his present charge and retire from active work of the ministry about the end of October.

Rev. J. C. Ferrier visited friends in the village last week.

Mrs. Wm. Guy and Miss Julia Guy returned last week from an extended visit with friends in Collingwood township.

Miss Lizzie Sterling is in Toronto.

Miss Mabel Strachan is in Alliston, where she went about a week ago to attend the funeral of her uncle, Mr. Mitchell

Mrs. Robert Heron and her daughter, Annie, returned last week from visiting friends near Toronto.

Swinton Park

From our own correspondent

Harvesting has again been delayed by the showery weather, but we hope to see the grain all stored away in safety in a few days.

A harvest-home service will be held in the Methodist church next Sabbath evening at 7 o'clock. The church will be suitably decorated for the purpose.

Last Sabbath morning communion service was held in the Presbyterian church. The service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Harrison of Dundalk.

The Rev. Mr. Thom, of Flesherton, took charge of the services at Esplin and Cedarville Sunday last while Mr. Barber took his work in Flesherton.

We understand that the Presbyterian churches here and in Priceville are being united, and that the service here will be changed from morning until afternoon.

Mrs James McMurdo, who has been on the sick list for some time, is slowly recovering. Miss Scarlett is also recovering from an attack of malarial fever.

Mr. Wm. Richardson lost one of his best cows lately by getting her head fast in some bushes and throwing herself on her back. She was dead when found.

Born—On September 2nd, to Mr. and Mrs. John McMillan, a daughter.
