County and District

Albert Lake, aged 28 years, of Keppel township, was feeding a threshing machine on the farm of W. Lee, township of Sarawak, when one of his arms got caught in the cylinder and he was pulled into the machine head first. His head was crushed beyond recognition and his arm was torn completely from its socket. Deceased leaves a wife and six children.

An accident which will probably prove fatal happened on Tuesday at the home of Mr. W. Vail, on the townline of St. Vincent. The season's crop was being threshed and a young man named Scarrow, from Sydenham, was engaged in feeding the machine, when his arm was caught by the cylinder. Before the machine could be stopped the unfortunate man was pulled in, his arm literally torn off. His head was also badly crushed. From latest reports he is still alive, but no hopes are entertained of his recovery. The accident has cast a gloom over the whole community, where Mr. Scarrow was well known.—O. S. Times.

Mr. Robert Brown, Sr., of Feversham, died on the 29th of August and was buried in Bethel cemetery the following Tuesday. The deceased, who was 84 years of age, was born in Hull, England, and came to Canada in 1852. With the exception of a short time in York, he has been a resident of this place ever since. He followed farming and blacksmithing, but as business grew, gave over the former and devoted his whole time to the latter until nine years previous to his death. Of his family of seven, five survive him. His children, grand-children, and great grand-children number ninety-four.

A peculiar accident happened the other morning to the engine on passenger train No. 1 at McArthur Junction. As the train was speeding along through the darkness the engineer and fireman were startled by a crash in front, and then the headlight went out. They thought at first that a stone had been thrown into it, but an investigation showed that a big crow had flown straight into the light, shattering the glass. The light threatened to explode but finally burned out. The crow, which had broken its neck, was fished out in a badly singed condition, and was hanging up in the roundhouse the other morning.—Chesley Free Press.

The pathetic story of Abelard and Heloise has been re-enacted at Ottawa, Ont. The modern story relates to the pitiful love of an Ottawa Catholic priest, the Abbe Richer, and Miss Cote, a beautiful girl of seventeen. The abbe braved his church until the last moment, his affection for his lovely bride overcoming all his scruples and fears. The affair abruptly terminated one day last week, as a result of a visit of the Rev. Father Manigan to Abbe Richer. Father Manigan was closeted with Abbe Richer for more than three hours. What happened is known only to themselves, but the end of it is that the lovers have been separated. The girl is on her way to a convent, where she will spend the rest of her life. As to the priest, he has submitted, and is now awaiting the sentence that will be passed upon him by his grace the Archbishop of Ottawa. He probably will be sent to a monastery to do penance for two or three years. When the girl was taken away from her lover she cried bitterly, and wished to die rather than be buried in a convent. Extraordinary pressure has evidently been brought to bear upon the Abbe Richer, for until Saturday he was firm in his determination to give up the priesthood and live with Miss Cote.

Kimberley

The Canadian Order of Foresters here have just had the benefit of a visit from Mr. W. J. Cameron, the Past High Chief Ranger of the order. The immediate result of his visit has has been the addition to their Court of an increased membership and greater enthusiasm for the advancement of the order, especially in this section. This order is highly thought of among our people, and several demonstrations of its strength and beneficial resbl s have been experienced amongst us. The late Robert Walton, after a few days' sickness passed away, leaving his insurance of $1000 in this order to his father. Mr. Brown, who broke his leg in a fall, received a sick allowance during the time he was laid up. And again we notice that Mr. Geo. H. Walter, also a member of this order, having crushed his fingers at Horning's Mills, is now receiving a benefit of $5 per week. The Court has a large number of candidates for initiation at its next meeting, and many others talk of taking advantage of the special offer made by the P. H. C. R., Mr. Cameron. The officers of the Court are J. A. Laidlaw, Hugh Knott, W. T. Ellis and Andrew Brown.
