Mr. McCusten of the Priceville Methodist church, who also conducted the service at the grave in Priceville public cemetery. The pallbearers were five nephews—A. J. McDonald, A. D. McKinnon, J. Calder, C. McDonald, W. Leith—and a cousin, D. Cameron.

The fact that the restrictions on the use of bacon and other pork products have been removed for the time being does not mean that food economics are no longer necessary. The facts are that there is not an ounce of food too much in the world and that every man, woman and child is under the sternest necessity of saving whatever he or she can of those foods most needed oversea. Any temporary relaxation of the restrictions, such as in the case of pork, must not be construed as notice to the public that extravagance in any food is again endurable.

Phil Murphy of the 6th Con. of Proton met with a nasty accident in the harvest field on Wednesday of last week when his team, hitched to a binder, ran away. The machine went over Mr. Murphy and he was badly cut up and bruised. A portion of flesh was torn from his leg, exposing the cords and requiring 19 stitches. At last report the patient was getting along as well as could be expected considering the severe mishap—Herald.

SINGHAMPTON

A gloom was cast over Singhampton when the sad news came telling of the death of one of our brave boys, Pte. Wm H. Riddell, who made the supreme sacrifice on July 21. Pte. Riddell was born in Glen Huron in 1886 and spent his boyhood and his early manhood in Singhampton, where he was highly respected for his manly character. Being of a sunny disposition and genuinely kind, he made many friends who sincerely mourn his death, but who honor him for his loyalty to king and country. In May, 1917, Pte. Riddell enlisted in a machine gun battery, going to France in June, 1917, where he gave his life for his country. Pte. Riddell was a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Riddell who reside at Singhampton.—Creemore Star.

Hard Luck Fines

Recently a number of Americans who have been coming to the east shore of the Georgian Bay for some years were rounded up by the fishing inspector for fishing without a license. It is a case of hard luck. These gentlemen have been getting their licenses from Mr. Dusang of Fesserton, for some years, but this year he did not adpear and the Americans thought it would be alright to fish until he came along. Complaints were sent to the Department and Mr. Carson of Midland was sent up to look into the matter. Their boats were seized and the men were brought to town and taken before a magistrate. They admitted fishing before they had their licenses, but stated they were waiting for Dusang to come along with them as in the past. The magistrate had no alternative but let them down as lightly as he could.

Recently a casket case adorned with beautiful wreaths and sprays, arrived in Oshawa from Montreal. The License Inspector became suspicious and decided to view the remains, when a liberal supply of Scotch whiskey and rye was found reposing in the case. No mourners accompanied the remains, but there was much mourning when it was learned that the Inspector had made the discovery.
