Flesherton Meat Emporium

Maxwell.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Farmers in this vicinity are taking advantage of the fine weather to take up and store away for winter the potato crop. Most of them report a very fair yield and the danger of rot making its appearance is not so great as reported from some quarters.

Our thresher boys are now undergoing the ordeal of being urged and persuaded, and coaxed, to be several places and do several jobs at the one time. Each of those who have stacks out seem to think their case the most urgent. But have patience, farmers; each of you will be attended to in good time.

The broad-leafed maples have at last given up their bright green and put on their varied hues of almost every shade, ranging from deepest crimson to the most delicate shades of yellow and green. Dull indeed would the person be who would not be stirred to admiration by the beauty of our Canadian woods at this particular season of the year.

We wish to correct an error in our correspondence of two weeks ago. Rev. A. Hudson does not intend leaving Maxwell until the end of November, not October, as was previously stated.

Mr. Pritchard, teacher; Mr. Thomas Scott, township clerk; Mrs Scott and Mr. Scott, sr., all of McIntyre, were in the village on Saturday.

Mr. A. Nelson, formerly our east-end blacksmith, visited us again on Monday.

All are looking forward with bright anticipations to the fowl supper on Wednesday evening of next week. May there be good weather, the fowls fat and the feathers far away.

BIRTHS—On Oct. 1. to Mr. and Mrs. W. Clinton, 4th line, a son. On Oct. 2, to Mr. and Mrs. E Bennington, 6th line, a daughter.

8th Line, Osprey

From Our Own Corresponaent.

Harvesting is is now a thing of the past and threshing is now in full swing. Grain, with the exception of peas, is turning out well.

The latest sensation on the eighth line is a rooster of doubtful breeding who has developed a wounderful talent for thrashing. His owner claims that he can down some of the crack feeders if placed on the machine in proper position, tail toward the cylinder.

Mr, Doc. Fairy, who had the misfortune to cut his leg two weeks ago, is now fully recovered.

D. W. Clinton is still suffering with a felon on his thumb, which he is likely to loose at the first joint.

Mr. Thos. Madden was under the weather a few days last week, but is about well again.

Mr. Ed. Stiver of Avening has taken partial possession of Mr. Hugh Spofford's farm and commenced fall plowing.

Mrs. Jas. Parks of Scarboro visited her Brother, W. G. Moffat, and friends a few days last week.

John C. Madden went west on Sunday.

Mr. Jas. C. Madden and wife were up at Owen Sound last week.

Mr. Geo. Burk will soon have the wood work of his house finished. Some are anticipating a house warming and, and—well, more about Geo. later.

Swinton Park

From Our Own Correspondent.

Threshing and potato digging are the order of the day, and though the potato crop is not as good this year, yet the grain yield is satisfactory.

Many hands make light work. A goodly number of young people gathered to assist in the decorating of the Methodist church for the Harvest Home a week ago Saturday, and in a very short ime the work was done, and on the Sabbath the largest crowd ever present attended the service. A very large number could not get inside the church. A very apropriate and beneficial sermon was given by the pastor, Rev. J. 3. Humphreys. Everybody felt pleased with what they saw and heard,

A week ago last Monday night the barn and contents of Mr. Dougald McKennel was destroyed by fire. How the fire took place is a mystery, as Mr. and Mrs. McKennel were both away that day until evening, and retired to bed at an early hour, but about eleven o'clock woke up and found the building on fire. All the hay and grain and other articles were burned. Mr. McKennel had a narrow escape himself while getting out his horses. The insurance, it is estimated, will not cover the loss.

Mrs. Jas. Patterson and Mis Vina Richardson are visiting friends in Goderich at present.

Mr. and Mrs. John Risk of Euphrasia are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Bell.

Miss E. Kennoll of Dundalk spent Sunday with friends here.

A few of our citizens took in the Bethel teameeting Monday night of last week and report a pleasant time.

Misses Gertie and Minnie Wilson, Miss Eva McMurdo and Master C. Wilson are attending the Latter Day Saint conference in Toronto this week.

Flesherton Station

From our own Correspondent.

Mr, Jimmie Ashdown is spending a vacation with his parents here.

Miss Baxter of Hamilton is visiting friends here.

Mrs. Baxter of Manitoulin is the guest of Mr. P. Muir.

Mr. W. Burnett was made happy over the arrival of a young son last week.

Miss Mary Glencross returned to the city after a two months' vacation with friends.
