Around Grey Covnty

Newton Davis and a younger brother, of Hanover, were both arrested as defaulters and taken to London.

Jake Lembke of Sullivan put his horse and buggy in a church shed at Sharon. When he came to get it there was nothing left of the buggy but the frame, which he towed home. A spark from Lembke's pipe had started a fire in the vehicle after he left it. Even four feet of the lines were burned. The horse was not touched and apparently unconcerned.

H. F. Loney of Oxenden met with a severe accident recently. He was holding a stake which was being driven by another man, when the head of the mawl flew off and hit him on the head. He was unconscious for more than 15 hours, but is recovering.

Lieut Arnold Jucksch, of Hanover, has added a bar to his Military Cross. He enlisted as a private with the 147th Batt. receiving his promotion on the field. The official announcement states that "Lieut. Arnold Jucksch, of Hanover, placed explosives within 15 feet of an enemy post, blowing up the wire, and then rushed the post killing six."

The upper story of the Central drug store in Durham is being fitted up for tenement houses.

Francis Frank, a young machinist employed at the Knechtel factory at Walkerton, has invented a clever device which will enable the owners of bikes to keep right on riding them when summer turns to winter and the snow appears. The invention is called the "bicycle sled" and is adapted from the ordinary wheel by removing the front wheel and replacing it by a small runner and interchanging the rear wheel with a runner attachment and a small wheel] with cogs around its outer surfaca. The invention has been patented in the United States and patent in Canada has been applied for. Mr. Frank has already received one good offer for the sale of the patent and it looks as if his invention may bring him good returns.

Saved Shipmate's Life.

Few reports of heroism made to the navy department are more remarkable than that concerning James Marico, ship cook, first class, who will probably receive a gold life-saving medal, in addition to the letter of commendation sent him by the secretary of the navy. In the midst of a terrific gale Chief Quartermaster Eddker H. Robertson, U. S. N., was washed overboard from the U. S. S. Smith, while attempting to clear a jam in the steering gear. Exhausted by the cold and rough sea, Robertson could no longer help himself, when Marcio, tying a line to his waist, jumped into the water. Catching the quartermaster, he clung to the half drowned man until the two were hauled aboard. Not only was the act of Marcio's one of great heroism, but the test of his courage was shown in the chance he took with such a rough sea. The gale at the time was one of the worst in years and the ship was rolling at fifty-five degrees. This young hero enlisted in the navy in April, 1914, at Philadelphia.

Funston Has a Coward Test.

Nowadays they pick out the cowards before instead of after the battle, says a member of the medical staff at Funston. A trained staff at the medical camp spends its time in diagnosing the drafted man for symptoms of cowardice. When the symptoms are present the man is disqualified for service in the battle line. In some instances he is retained in the army and serves his country at menial tasks.

The officer ot the medical staff who gives this information, says he has became an expert in this particular line of research, and has learned to spot the physical coward with accuracy, but that of the 45,000 men who have been trained at Funston only thirty have borne the bacilli of the hesitant font.

A Carrick woman tripped at the head of the cellar stairs while carrying a can of cream and fell to the bottom, alighting on the cement floor. She broke both bones in her left arm and dislocated her wrist. She was also badly bruised and her shoulder painfully injured.

Canadian Masons In England

H. S. CARMICHAEL, W. M.

H. S. Carmichael, Passenger and Freight Manager of the Canadian Pacific Ocean Services, was installed W. M. of the Canada Lodge at the installation banquet held recently in London, England, attended by the Rt. Hon. Sir Edward Clarke, Sir Gilbert Parker, General J. G. Ross and many other Canadians and English representative men interested in Canada.

The Canada Lodge No. 3527 on the Register of the United Grand Lodge of England was founded in 1911, in order to provide a Masonic centre for Canadians resident in Great Britain and Brethren from the Dominion visiting the Old Country. The object of the founders was also to form a bond of union between the Brethren of the Dominion and the Brethren of the United Kingdom in the strong hope and confidence that Freemasonry might so even still further assist in the great work of forming these bonds of "indissoluble attachment" which shall forever unite the component parts of the British Empire. The Lodge has now 282 members, many of whom are Dominion members resident in all parts of Canada. No fewer than 150 are initiates of the Lodge. 205 members of the Lodge are on active service in H. M. Forces.

Mr. Hugh Strain Carmichael, the newly-elected W. M. of Canada Lodge, is a native of Glasgow. He has been connected with the Transatlanite steamship trade since 1888, when he joined the staff of the State Line, which in 1891 was taken over by the Allan Line. In 1895 he commenced his long connection with the Canadian Pacific Company at Glasgow, transferring to its Liverpool office in 1903, when the company established its transatlantic passenger service. In 1908 he was promoted to be general passenger agent for Great Britain and Europe. Since the establishment, in 1915-16, of the Canadian Pacific Ocean Services, Ltd., which manages the entire fleet of the C. P. R. and Allan Lines, Mr. Carmichael has occupied the position of passenger and freight manager, and has his headquarters at Waterloo Place, London, England.
