An Old Lady's Evening Wish.

My wishes scar not very high,
Nor do they widely roam.
These moderate wishes are confin'd
To comforts found at home.

Give me what [illegible]
A snug domestic scene;
And take my word, I fell myself
As happy as a Queen,

I'll tell you what I wish for now—
'Tis not a large desire;
I wish to sit at perfect ease,
Beside my evening fire.

I wish a friend or two would call,
To ask me how I do;
Then truly happy I should be,
And they'd be happy, too.

I'd set the tea things on the tray,
And [illegible]
While taking ever-welcome cups
Of JOHN HILL'S wholesome tea.

The tea would gladen ev'ry heart,
And brighten every face;
And nothing more could we desire
In such a happy case.

With JOHN HILL'S Tea I always crown
The comforts of my home;
And when I can partake of this
My wishes seldom roam.

All goods delivered free (within the limits of the city) by our own [illegible] attention will be paid to proper packing and delivery.

Yesterday's Despatches.

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—A statement appeared a few days ago in the Boston Journal, to the effect that dressed beef from the West was from diseased animals, but is not true. At no time within the past five years have Western cattle been in better condition.

PORTLAND, Jan. 19.—The steamer Nestorian from Liverpool has arrived.

WASHINGTON Jan. 19.—It is believed that in the negotiations for a settlement of the fisheries question, Gen. Schenck will be instructed to make a proposition that the fishermen of the United States will be put on an equal footing in all respects with those of the British Provinces; that they shall have the same right to fish in Canadian waters; to land and cure the fish and to refit in Canadian ports; and that the difficulty shall be settled at once and forever by the abrogation of all former treaty stipulations and the repeal of all former laws reserving any fishing ground for the exclusive use of Canadian fishermen. In return for such a concession on the part of Canada some important consideration would of course be expected from this Government, and it is thought that the United States could afford to pay whatever reasonable sum may be demanded for the full settlement of this vexatious question.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—The Cuba has arrived, but the Fenian exiles have not yet landed.

The American steamers Erie and Ontario will probably be placed on a line between New York and London. The former is now being loaded in London by Howland and Aspinwall for this port.

In reply to an official invitation extended to the Fenian exiles on behalf of the city authorities, by the Hon. According to the Salut Public, the Germans have established a line of telegraph between Dijon and Gray and have threatened to punish with death any one who shall cut the line. On November 24th the wire was cut within the district of Magny St. Medard. The Maire of the commune and four of the principal inhabitants were immediately arrested and conveyed as prisoners to Dijon, while the commune itself was mulcted in a fine of 1,500f. The wire was again cut at Arc sur-Tille; the Maire of the commune and six councillors were arrested and carried off to Dijon, while the commune had to pay 4,000f. and to furnish 50 heads of cattle, which were selected by the Prussians themselves.

WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW? As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who, for upwards of thirty years, has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a Female Physician and nurse principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge obtained in a lifetime spent as nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It operates like Magic—giving rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article, Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly rise up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are daily sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No mother has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Syrup. Try it, mothers—TRY IT NOW.—Ladies' Visitor, New York City. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle. Be sure and call for "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP," Having the fac-simile of CURTIS & PERKINS" on the outside wrapper. All others are base imitations.
