"Dr. T. S. Robertson, of Montreal, wrote as follows, in 1859:—"But the disease above all in which the action of the water is most decided is Rheumatism. . . . I have known a few individuals who suffered much from improper use of mercury who were restored to health by the use of the waters.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.

AUTUMN TURF MEETING.

First Day's Races.

The autumn meeting of the Turf Club was inaugurated yesterday under the most favourable auspices. The weather was delightful, and the attendance was large, which, after all, is the chief mainstay on such occasions. Adams' Independent Cornet Band played some fine selections from the grand stand throughout the afternoon. A large number of ladies were present, which added to the gaiety of the meeting. The management yesterday was excellent, and there was an absence of the usual delay between the races. Messrs. Barber, Sherwood and McNaughton were alive to the importance of making the day a success, both as to the races and pleasing the vast gathering of people who had assembled to witness them. All who were present were highly pleased with what they had seen. There was but one thing that marred somewhat the day's sport, that is the number of serious accidents that befel two or three jockeys.

FIRST RACE.

The first race was for the Foster Plate of $200. Presented by Hon. A. B. Foster. Open to all horses owned and bred in the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec. T.C.W. Mile heats. Maidens allowed 7 lbs. $175 to 1st; $25 to 2d.

1. Mr. J. Scott's ch. g. Jim Christie, 5 years, by Harper, dam by Lapidist. Green and Red.
2. Mr. A. Fisher's b. m. Cecilia, aged, by Cantwell out of Lucy Wade. Red and Black Stripe.
3. Mr. A. Fisher's ch. g. Pilot, 4 years, by Jack the Barber, out of Hippias. Red and Black Stripe.
4. Mr. J. P. Dawes', Jr., b. m. Minnie, 6 years, by Donnybrook, out of Fakeu. Scarlet and Black.
5. Mr. J. Fitzsimmons' b. m. Bella, 5 years, by Sunshine, dam by The Chief. Cherry and Black.
6. Mr. J. Boyle's b. m. Mignonette, 5 years, by Kennett, out of Lily.
7. Mr. J. Boyle's b. m. Emily, 6 years, by Yorkshire, out of Augusta.
8. Mr. H. Stanley's br. m. Blue Bonnet, 5 years, by Harper, dam by Lapidist. Yellow, Crimson Sash.

Two of the horses, Cecilia and Emily failed to come to the scratch when the race was called. The other six however came up to the mark for the first trial heat, and at the first effort got away beautifully together. Minnie took the lead, but on nearing the half-mile post Jim Christie took her in, and taking it kept the lead throughout the race. The home stretch was very exciting, as a neck and neck race was being run between Pilot, who was running a steady race, and Jim Christie. The latter, however, held the prestige gained and came in winner by half a length. Mignonette was a good third, but the remaining horses were distanced. Blue Bonnet threw young Lascelle her jockey, and he was carried off the course insensible. Three horses only started for the second heat. Mignonette immediately shot ahead, but ere she reached the first quarter was overtaken by Jim Christie, who again took the lead. Ere the half-mile was reached Pilot was again up and for a time got the better of Jim Christie, running neck and neck until the out was reached, where he again fell behind. This he regained on the home stretch, and one of the most exciting races ever witnessed took place. Jim Christie, however, held his own, and won by a neck amid loud cheering. The result of the race was as follows:

Jim Christie	1 1
Pilot	2 2
Mignonette	3 3

Time—1 minute 48 seconds in the first heat, and 1 minute 48½ seconds for the second.

SECOND RACE.

The following horses entered for the second race:—
City Plate of $250. Open to all horses. One mile and a half. T.C.W. $200 to 1st; $50 to 2nd.

1. Mr. John Forbes' ch. h. Vicksburg, 4 years, by Vandal, out of Blondin, by Commodore.
2. Mr. Paul Woods ch. h. Prince Edward, 6 years, by Jack Lane, out of Mountain Hare. Green and Black.
3. Mr. A. Fisher's b. m. Cecilia, aged, by Cantwell, out of Lucy Wade. Red and Black Stripe.
4. Mr. A. Fisher's ch. g. Pilot, 4 years, by Jack the Barber, out of Hippias. Red and Black stripe.
5. Mr. A. G. F. Coleman's ch. g. ——, 3 years, by Requirer, out of Leisure, by Red Eye. Cherry and Black Cap.
6. Mr. A. Smith's br. m. Inspiration, 4 years, by Warminster, out of Sophia. Black and Blue.
7. Gen. Blanchard's b. h. Washington, 3 years, by Asteroid, out of Sue Washington. Red and White.
8. Mr. C. Boyle's b. m. Emily, 6 years, by Terror out of Augusta.

Pilot, Inquirer, Washington and Emily scratched leaving only four horses to come to time when the race was called. The contest was a very exciting one. Inspiration took the lead closely followed by Vicksburg. A close race was run all the way around. At the end of the mile Vicksburg passed and took the lead, but lost it again at the next quarter. Inspiration won by half a length.

THIRD RACE.

The following entries were made for this race:
Hurdle race, $250. Open to all horses. Two miles over 8 hurdles, 3 ft. 6 in., stiff timber. Welter weights. Province bred horses allowed 10 lbs. Horses that have been starters in and not winners of an open hurdle race, value $200, this year, allowed 5 lbs. $200 to 1st, $50 to 2nd.

1. Dr. Smith's b. h. Judge Pryor, by Lightning, out of ——.
2. Dr. H. Hinston's ch. g. Bibakiba, —yrs., by Coles us, out of Velula. Green and White.
3. Mr. John Forbes' ch. g. Frank Ross, aged, by Daniel Boone, out of Sirma.
4. Mr. A. Fisher's ch. m. Kate P., 5 yrs., by Vandal, dam by Colonna. Red and Black Stripe.
5. Mr. James Connolly's ch. h. King Tom, 4 yrs., by Sunshine, out of ——. All blue.
6. Mr. R. Jackson's ch. m. Clip, aged, by Bay Boston. Black Jacket, rose color sash and cap.
7. Mr. A. H. Haney's b. h. Jack in the Green, aged, by Jack the Barber. Scarlet and Lavender.
8. Gen. Blanchard's gr. m. Lily, 5 yrs., by Jack the Barber. White and Red.

Clip and Judge Pryor were drawn, leaving the race to the remaining five horses. The horses got all on in a bunch, with Bibakiba slightly ahead. On nearing the first hurdle the leading horse touched the hurdle and stumbled, throwing Jim Lee, the Jockey, very heavily to the ground, breaking his arm in three places, and causing other internal injuries of a serious character. Dr. Bentley, who happened to be present, took the injured lad in charge, and had him removed to the city. It was rumoured at a late hour last night that he had died, but this seems to be incorrect as there are hopes of his recovery. King Tom, at the next hurdle, threw his Jockey, and he, too, became an invalid. Katie P. took the lead, and was pressed very closely by Frank Ross, running a splendid race and Lily third. On the home stretch Lily fell on the last hurdle, throwing her rider badly, thus giving Jack on the Green third place. The race resulted in the following order.—

Katie P.	1
Frank Ross	2
Jack on the Green	3

LAST RACE.

The fourth race was a flat one of a mile and as a few noted horses were entered, a good deal of interest was manifested. The following were entered:—
Flash stakes, $150. Open to all horses, to carry 100 lb each. Three year old (bar Vicksburgh) and Dominion bred 90 lbs. One mile.

1. Mr. J. R. Edmonds' ch. m. Sarah G., 4 years, by War Dance, out of Wild Rose.
2. Mr. W. Salmon's ch. h. Rejoinder, aged, by Kettledrum out of Repartee. Claret and Gold.
3. Mr. E. Wells' ch. h. Vespucius, aged, by Planet, out of Columbia. Green and Red.
4. Mr John Forbes's br. h. Mohawk, aged, by Norton, out of Rebecca, T. Price.
5. Mr. A. G. F. Coleman's ch. c. ——, 3 years by Enquirer out of Leisure, by Red Eye. Cherry, black cap.
6. Gent. Blanchard's b. c. Washington, 3 years, by Asteroid, out of Sue Washington. Red and White.
7. Mr. A. H. Stuart's b. h. Judge Pryor, 3 years, by Lightning, dam by Imp. Australian. Crimson and Blue.

Mr. Salmon's chestnut horse Rejoinder was the only one that failed to come to the scratch. Vespucius took a good start, and was closely followed by Sarah G. and Mohawk. To the astonishment of all present, Mr. Coleman's colt Enquirer took one horse after another in, finally winning the race in the best time yet recorded on the Ottawa turf. He was so closely followed by Mohawk, that it was difficult to say which was first, in fact, the whole came in almost in a bunch. The following was the result at the close:—

Enquirer	1
