It is for every one of us to say how much patriotic endeavor, how much loyal sacrifice we will make by saving our money, by "doing without," so that each day will see a surplus to add to our own and the nation's strength.

Every time you buy a thing you do not need you interfere with Canada's war work. Every dollar you spend on things not strictly necessary is a dollar not merely wasted but used to employ labor on things that have nothing to do with our efforts to win the war for freedom.

Magistrate McMullen imposed the lightest fine possible—one dollar and costs.

At the meeting of Prince Arthur Lodge Friday evening a resolution was adopted conveying condolence to Mr David Rutherford of Owen Sound, who lost a son recently at the front. Mr. Rutherford has taken deep interest in this lodge for many years. Word was received here last week that Pte. B. Walters, of Kimberley, had been wounded. He was working near Calgary when he enlisted with a Western Batt. over a year ago. Two other brothers enlisted with the 147th, Arthur and Stanley. The former was accidentally killed while in England and the latter was killed in action. The memorial service for the late Pte. Reuben Cargo was held in the Methodist church Sunday evening last, when a large congregation was present. Rev. Belfrey preached from John 12 and 24 : "Verily I say unto you, except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone ; but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit." The text was very appropriate and handled in a comforting way. The church was handsomely decorated with flags, bunting and flowers. This is the seventh memorial service held in this church since the war began.

Reuben Cargo Killed In Action

Reuben Cargo, second son of Mrs. James Cargo of Flesherton, has been killed in action, the fatality occurring on Sept. 2. Notice to this effect was received here last week Reuben was only 17 years of age when he enlisted in the C. M. R. in the summer of 1916. When he got to England he was not allowed to go to the front owing to his youth, but later got over to the trenches in some manner. An older brother, Walter, enlisted with the old 147th and has been in the trenches for over a year. Both boys are sons of a widowed mother here, who has the deep sympathy of the entire village. This young man was determined to get into the fight, notwithstanding his youth, and succeeded in doing something for his country, which must be a solace of no small measure to the sorrowing mother. And what of the bravery of the mother herself who would put no stone in the way of such ambition! What a contrast to the orgy of perjury and forgery in some quarters, referred to elsewhere in this issue. This is the ninth Flesherton boy to pay the supreme price for his country's liberty.

DeCudemore--Armstrong

A very pretty wedding took place on September 18 at 1 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Armstrong, Flesherton, when their eldest daughter, Miss Lillian Elizabeth, was married to Mr. Sylvester Ernest deCudmore, Montreal, son of Mr. George deCudmore, Salisbury, Eng., the Rev. C. A. Belfry of the Methodist church, officiating.

The bride, who was unattended, was given in marriage by her father, and looked lovely in her travelling suit of brown gabardine cloth, with bodice of embroidered georgette crepe, with hat to match, and corsage bouquet of orchids. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Max Bannon. Four cousins of the bride held the ribbons which formed an aisle for the bride. The ceremony was performed in the drawing room under a canopy of smilax and sweet peas. Pink and white asters were banked in the library room, and roses and pink tulle decorated the dining room. The poung couple left on the afternoon train for their home in Montreal. The guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Hyland of New York, Mrs. E. F. Armstrong, Cobalt ; Mrs. Wright, Collingwood ; Miss Isabella Forbes, Orangeville ; Mr. and Mrs. Bannon, Owen Sound ; Lieut. George Berry. Misses Vera Glenny and Lalla Armstrong, Corp. Harold Matheson, Mrs. G. A. Keith and Miss Ruby Aikenhead, Toronto. Among the bride's many gifts was a tray made by her cousin, Harold Matheson, who was wounded and is now in a convalescent hospital at Toronto after serving three years in France.

Forgery And Perjury

Shelburne had some interesting police court cases recently, when Joseph Ritchie and his wife were charged with forging the name of Dr. Smith to a medical certificate in order that their son might be exempt from service. Ritchie pleaded guilty and was committed for trial. The Free Press says : The case against Mrs. Ritchie stands adjourned. Bail was granted for Mr. Ritchie. The parties in this case belong to a very respectable family and it cannot be imagined why they tried to evade the duties of all loyal subjects.

Ernest Walker of Amaranth was charged with perjury, having sworn that his brother was married and he was the only one left to assist his father with their farm work. Such was not the case. He pleaded not guilty. A number of those who were present at the trial were under the impression that the young man was deficient in many respects and did not realize his position. He also was committed for trial. We are informed that there are other similar cases to be investigated in this locality where gross exaggerations have been made in order to save their sons from military duty. The charges will no doubt be perjury.

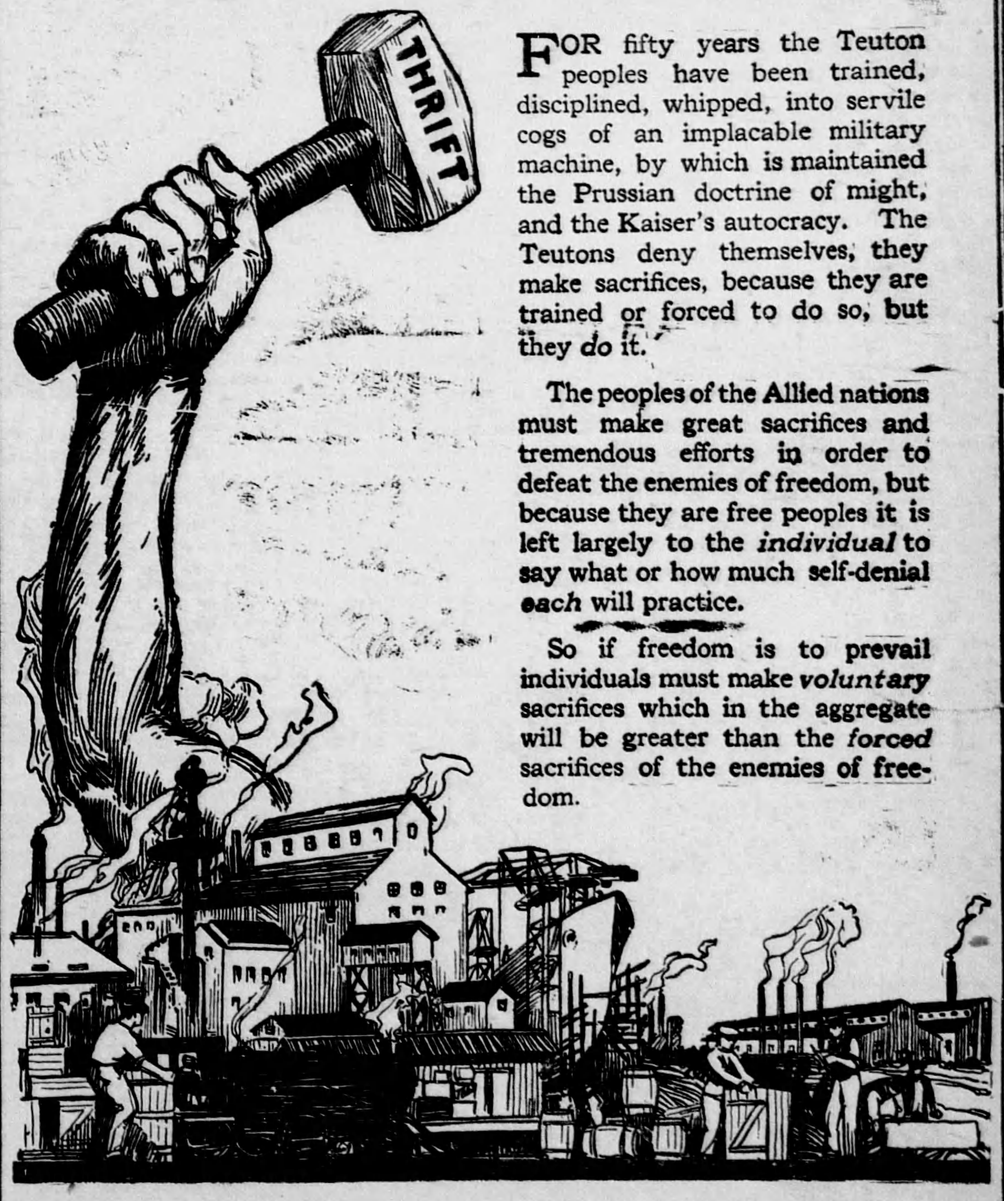
Build up the Mighty National Force



FOR fifty years the Teuton peoples have been trained, disciplined, whipped, into servile cogs of an implacable military machine, by which is maintained the Prussian doctrine of might, and the Kaiser's autocracy. The Teutons deny themselves, they make sacrifices, because they are trained or forced to do so, but they do it.

The peoples of the Allied nations must make great sacrifices and tremendous efforts in order to defeat the enemies of freedom, but because they are free peoples it is left largely to the individual to say what or how much self-denial each will practice.

So if freedom is to prevail individuals must make voluntary sacrifices which in the aggregate will be greater than the forced sacrifices of the enemies of freedom.

THE measure of your love of freedom is your willingness to deny yourself so that the strength of the nation for war effort will be increased.

This self-denial must take the form of money-saving—thrift. Each person knows in what way he or she may save.

The national need says you must save, but free Canada leaves it to you to say by what means and to what extent you will save.

NOW, it is for you, each of us, everyone of us to say how much patriotic endeavor, how much loyal sacrifice we will make by saving our money, by "doing without" so that each day will see a surplus to add to our own and the nation's strength. No matter how small the surplus it is important because each saving is an effort made, and many small individual efforts make the mighty national force.
