To keep your feet dry and warm, try Clayton's Boots. You cannot get suited better and the prices are all right.

Dr. May, inspector of public Libraries, was in town last week. The library will get a government grant of $118 this year.

Spotted coach dog lost at Maxwell on Friday last. Information as to her whereabouts will be thankfully received by M. Richardson, Flesherton.

Mr. Geo. Hill wishes to say that those having accounts due firm of T. Hill & Co. can call and see him at the shop this week, and next week at R. J. Sproule's office

The trustees of Eugenia public school have decided to add an annex to the school building and advertise in this issue for tenders for the same.

Mr. Al. Chislett, now of Cleveland, was held up by footpads one night last week. He made a break for liberty and got away, but not until a couple of pistol balls had come uncomfortably near.

As the cold wet weather will soon be here, and as most people are born without shoes, Clayton's have got a good supply of boots and shoes suitable for the season. Call and try them.

The new Dominion dollar bill, now in circulation, is printed on rotten paper. It is on a par with the manner in which the government let the contract for printing the bills and postage stamps.

Mr. W. W Trimble wishes us to intimate to the young man who took a pair of lines and a whip from his driving shed on Monday night that if he will return them there will be no further trouble.

Another entertaining letter from the vivid pen of Inspector Campbell is on our fyle, but must be held over until next week, owing to the crowd of matter. It will lose none of its interest by so doing.

All poultry for market should be dry plucked and undrawn, with all the crop removed. People having fowl for sale will make money by remembering these instructions.

M. Richardson & Co. are contemplating a change in business methods to take effect Nov 1st. Cash or produce will probably be the order of the day. Their ad. next week will give further particulars. Don't fail to read it.

There will be a sale of public library periodicals at 8 p.m. on Wednesday night of next week, 27th inst. Bids may be sent by post. A few of the things to be sold are Harper's Monthly and Weekly, Century, St. Nicholas, Leslies, London News, Cosmopolitan, Puck, Munsey's, Scientific American, etc.

Miss Annie Richardson of this place has won for herself an enviable reputation abroad as an elocutionist. She gave a dramatic recital recently at Penrith, Co. Cumberland, Eng., and the two papers of that town, just to hand, speak in glowing terms of her histrionic talent. One of the papers gives a minute description of her different numbers and bestows high praise on all. The young lady has no doubt improved very much in her art during her sojourn abroad, under a London master, and we hope to have the privilege of hearing her in public recital at home before long. She is now in Canada and will be home in a week or two.

Mr. Al. Chislett, son of T. Chislett, Flesherton Station, and who is now in Cleveland, was held up by foot pads one night recently. He made a break for liberty and got away, but not until a couple of pistol balls whistled uncomfortably near

In our hurry last week to get off the Vandeleur, Kimberley and Feversham parcels a couple of errors crept into the date of the Liberal Conservative convention at Rocklyn. This was rectified in the balance of the edition and will be found correct in the advertisement this week, viz., Tuesday, Nov. 2.

The Shelburne Free Press strongly protests against the notoriety the town has gained through the Melancthon fire bugs, and points out that Shelbourne is nine miles from the bug ground. It dramatically holds up its hands and asserts that "There are no honester people on God's footstool than those of Shelburne and its neighborhood,"

McFarland & Son, those enterprising, pushing, progressive modern merchants, are this season placing before their patrons goods in the various departments of their large establishment, which, for price and quality, will meet the requirements of the most exacting purchaser. All their goods are marked at close cash prices. Mantles, dress goods, clothing, boots, rubbers and groceries at special prices. McFarland & Son, Markdale.

Mr. Joseph Ferris of Kimberley believes he can beat Mr. Arthur Johnston's record for raising pigs. He informs The Advance that he has a chester white sow which had during the past year, within the limit of twelve months, 58 young pigs. A number of them were frozen in infancy, and we have not got the actual number raised, but believe it did not come quite up to the number raised by Mr. Johnston.

PERSONALS

Miss Gertie Keefer left last week to visit friends at Bloomfield, N. J.

Mrs. (Dr.) Reid of Shelburne was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. Trimble.

Mr. Geo. Harris of Parkdale, was in town last week. He reports game fair. He was the guest of Mosier Bros. Geo. is a dead sport and intends returning this fall for a little more sport.

Mr. C. W. Rutledge of the Markdale Standard gave The Advance a fraternal call on Thursday last.

Rev. Mr. Hope, Congregational minister of Erin, is having a rather rough experience of courtship. Miss Florence McNevin of Owen Sound sued him last spring and he settled the case to the young lady's satisfaction. She, however, appears to have decided to take another round out of him, and at the Guelph assizes on Monday the rev. gentleman was assessed $800 in Florence's favor for breach of promise of marriage. The gentleman in the case might now be correctly termed a a forlorn Hope.

A letter received on Monday from Mr. N. W. Campbell, written on board s. s. Vancouver, Oct. 14, says: "We have had a rough voyage up to last night, It is now very cold and I like to stay indoors. Miss Richardson is with us and we were glad of her bright presence and pleasant company. She was one of the few ladies who got quickly over their mal de-mer. She is to remain, I believe, for a short time in Montreal before going home. I hope to get home about Monday or Tuesday next."

The anniversary services in the Methodist church on Sunday last were largely attended. Rev. W. G. Howson of Meaford preached two of the most eloquent sermons heard here for some time. Mr. Howson is a powerful speaker, uses ornate language, is somewhat dramatic, and possesses much personal magnetism—in a word is an orator. His sermons on Sunday were very much enjoyed by the large audiences. The Presbyterian evening service was, following the usual custom, withdrawn.

The first Thanksgiving dinner was celebrated in this country two hundred and seventy six years ago, at Plymouth, Massachusetts. The whole American army was present—it numbered twenty men. Miles Standish, the backward lover of Priscilla, sat at the feast, while Priscilla served at the tables The story will appear in the November issue of The Ladies' Home Journal. Here Indians and whites sat down together by the tables set in the woods, and enjoyed the roast turkey, beechnuts, clam chowder, fish, salad, cakes, fruit and other delicacies provided. It was at this historic dinner that the first oysters were served. The illustrations of the articles show portraits of the Pilgrim fathers.

Tea Meeting

The tea meeting in connection with the anniversary services of the Methodist church, held on Monday evening, was scarcely up to the record in point of numbers, and consequently finances. After the usual tea, served in the basement, the pastor, Rev. J. Mahan, who occupied the chair, delivered a short address. The other speakers were: Rev. Mr. Plunkett, Eugenia. addressed the audience on "Prejudice and partiality." He was followed by Rev. W. G. Howson, Meaford, who delivered an eloquent address on the "Power of hope." Mr. Howson's address was the feature of the evening and lasted forty minutes. All present not only thoroughly enjoyed it, but there were none who would not profit thereby. The speaker has made a warm place for himself in the hearts of Flesherton people by his eloquence and general merit. He was followed by Rev. Mr. Simpson of Markdale, who took for his topic, "Other men labor." This address was also full of much food for thought. All of the addresses were of a semi-humorous character and kept the audience in a pleasant mood. They were interspersed with music by the choir. A statement of the church's finances was read, showing that the debt still remaining on the church for improvements amounted to $250.10.

Flesherton Furniture Warerooms

Our Jubilee sales have stimulated us to keep up the rush through the usually quiet month of August, and if prices will make anything go, certainly our August sales of Furniture must be the largest of the year, for we shall cut everything down to the very lowest notch. In order to introduce our new Iron Bedsteads we have decided to sell the whole of first consignment consisting of three different grades and designs at just net cost. These special inducements are for August.

LIGHTNING PAIN HUNTER

H. HEITMAN, ESQ.

Gibraltar, June 1897.

DEAR SIR,—I would be doing an injustice to you and the public not to make known the benefits I received from your remedy known as "Lightning Pain Hunter." I sprained my ankle very badly, a short time after it got very bad again. I was unable to get around for about three months. First I tried one doctor then another, and other remedies to no end. I was nearly giving up in despair when you gave me the first bottle of "Lightning Pain Hunter" to try it on its merits; to my surprise I got immediate relief and in about three weeks I began moving around, and shortly after went to work. I thank the day I began using your Lightning Pain Hunter that set me on my feet again. We have used it for burns, scalds, bruises, coughs, sore throat, sore shoulders on the horses and cuts in winter, yet I have failed to be disappointed when applied. In fact it is our household remedy and I would not be without it. Anyone wishing to write me direct I will gladly answer them. Wishing you every success I remain, Yours truly, A. J. COOK.

Shipped to any address on receipt of price.

Monuments, Urns and Vases

The undersigned has secured the agency for the new Metallic Plate Glass Monument, manufactured in Toronto, one of the finest monuments ever presented to the public. It is pronounced by experts to be the best monument in the market. The inscription, which is patented, will last for ages, and will be as perfect in a hundred years as the first year. An inscription in granite or marble, when put on in gold, silver or painted, will last only a short time and then have to be done over again. The old need not put on their spectacles to read our inscription. These monuments are of beautiful designs, graniteized in red or grey, and are within the reach of the poorest.
