Around Grey County

Five Dundalk boys returned from overseas last week—Delbert G. Russell, Reg. Burgess, Henry G. Hall, Ivan Bowler, and Harry Curtis.

Dundalk has appointed a reception committee. When the committee knows of the coming of a soldier the town bell will be rung an hour before the coming of a train.

Shelburne had $605.27 of a surplus over expenditure at the end of the financial hydro year.

Rev. Conn, Presbyterian minister at Markdale, has rejected a call to a Boston church and will remain in Markdale.

A large number of Owen Sound boys returned from overseas last week.

Some thieves entered the store of Harry Warren, Owen Sound, and stole $78 in cash and other articles. Entrance was effected through a window in the rear.

A fool stunt was pulled off in Owen Sound when some miscreant burned out a large thermometer in front of Cooper and Griffin's store on Sunday night of last week by holding a burning match under the bulb.

The Owen Sound Sun-Times says a juvenile court is needed in that town.

Owen Sound town clerk is now paid $2000 a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pratt of Owen Sound have received word to the effect that their son, Major A. Pratt, has been awarded the D. S. O.

One of Mr. Fred Heimbecker's grey foxes slipped out of the pen last Saturday and caused some excitement in "Slabtown" for an hour or two until captured. For the benefit of those living at a distance we might mention that Mr. Heimbecker is a breeder of foxes.—Hanover Post.

An Afflicted Family

Mr. John S. Becker, formerly a resident of Brant near Malcolm, but now living some distance north of Elmwood, is at the head of a family which seems to be experiencing one continual round of trouble and grief. In the early fall in these columns we announced the killing in action of his son, Herman, a member of the 160th Bruce Batt., who was well known here. Two weeks ago the four-year-old son of the dead soldier was burned to death by his clothes taking fire while standing by a coal stove. Last week the influenza entered the family and on Friday, Mano, a young man of 23 years of age, succumbed to the malady, and at the time of writing a younger son is lying at death's door with a frail chance of recovery from the same epidemic. The wife and mother, through the affliction and passing of her boys, is said to have become mentally deranged, thus increasing the sorrow of the home and completing one of the saddest chapters of affliction that this section has ever known.—O. S. Sun-Times.

[In a later issue of The Sun-Times it states that Mrs. Becker is not mentally deranged as stated and the lady is of sound mind.]

Has Had 55 Wardens

Since the organization of the County of Grey there have been fifty-five different wardens, says the Owen Sound Sun-Times. The late Wm. K. Flesher, of Artemesia, for seven years held this exalted position, while George Jackson was warden on five occasions and the late Judge Lane was warden for three years. All other wardens held the position for one year only. The list grows larger from year to year and is interesting history for the county. Just who the next one will be is not known yet, but it will either be Mr. John McQuaker, Mr. McKenzie, Artemesia or Mr. William Sing, of Meaford. Mr. Charles Gordon was the last representative of Owen Sound to have the honor, and that was in 1899.

Meaford Express Hit

For the past couple of weeks the Express editor and staff have been working under extreme difficulties. After four or five weeks of solid Christmas business, ye editor was taken down with influenza and before long the entire staff were out of commission and it was impossible to publish a paper last week. Even this week's paper is suffering from the aftermath but we are doing our best to serve our readers and cause them no more than ordinary inconvenience. The "flu" is master of the situation but ere long we'll be on top of the heap again and will be doing business as usual.—Meaford Express.

In the Kent county district the exceedingly mild fall caused the wheat to grow so fast that some farmers turned their stock in to keep it down. Some even put the mower on the fields to cut off the top of the wheat.

A VARIED LIST.

Some of the British Subjects Recently Given Titles.

The New Year's honors list, which was published last New Year's Day, largely reflected the war activities of the British Empire. It contained one new viscourt, Lord Furness, chairman of Furness, Withy & Co., a shipping firm which has rendered valuable services to the country during the war; four new peers, Sir Frederick Cawley, Bart, M.P., Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster; Sir John Lonsdale, Bart, M.P., chairman and leader of the Irish Unionist party; Almeric H. Paget, and Sir James Woodhouse, chairman of the Defence of the Realm Losses Commission, and a director of the London City and Midland Bank. Six members of the House of Commons became Privy Councillors, Lord Hugh Cecil, one of the most brilliant debaters in the House, third son of the third Marquess of Salisbury; Sir Henry Craik, K.C.B., for 19 years secretary of the Scottish Education Department; Sir Gordon Hewart, K.C., Solicitor-General; Major Sir Henry Norman, a former Postmaster-General; Mr. Tom Richards, general secretary of the Miners' Federation; and Lord Edmund Talbot, chief Unionist whip, and Deputy Earl Marshal.

Twenty new baronets have been created, among whom may be mentioned Lieut.-Colonel James Craig, Treasurer of the Household, who will be best remembered for the prominent part he played in the Ulster opposition to Home Rule; Sir Ellis Griffith, K.C.; and Sir Joseph Lawrence.

Among the 52 new knights are several names famous in art and literature, such as John Lavery, A.R.A., a portrait painter with a European reputation, and one of the most distinguished of the Glasgow school; David Murray, the landscape painter, president of the Royal Institute of Painters in Water Colors; Edwin L. Lutyens, the architect and artist, who was appointed a member of the committee to advise the Government of India as to the site of the capital at Delhi; Anthony Hope Hawkins, the well-known novelist; John Scott Keltie, the veteran former secretary of the Royal Geographical Society, and many others renowned in the educational, industrial and medical world.

The Hon. Sir Francis Villiers, British Minister at The Hague, has been appointed a knight of the Grand Cross of St. Michael and St. George. The list of K.C.M.G.'s include Sir Frank Barnard, Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia; Sir John Davies, president of the Legislative Council, Victoria, New South Wales; while Adly Yeghan Pasha, Minister of Education in the Egyptian Government, becomes an honorary K.C.M.G.

Among the Indian honors the special title of "Faithful Ally of the British Government" and the style of "His Exalted Highness" as a hereditary distinction, has been bestowed upon the Nizam of Hyderabad, and the Order of the Bath upon Lieutenant-General His Highness Maharaja Bahadur Sir Pertab Singh. Her Highness Nawab, Sultan Jahan Begum of Bhopal, has been invested with the Grand Cross of the British Empire, and Her Highness Mahi Sahiba Girraj Kuar, of Bharatpur, with the Crown of India.

Model "Organola"

Hear Them

There's a new list of selections each month. They are played with a sapphire point. No needles to change. Beautiful, clear, "Phonola" records that are practically indestructible.

The Only One With Organ Pipes

In all the wide world, there is only one make of phonograph that has taken advantage of the principle of the pipe organ and installed inside of its case a set of tone control pipes which include every note in the scale. That phonograph is the

"Phonola" REGISTERED

And the tone control pipes are used in our magnificent "Organola" model—the utmost that has so far been achieved in phonograph construction.

Records played on this "Organola" Model are given a really wonderful reproduction. Play a "sextette" record on the "Organola" Model, and you will have a real idea of the value of the tone control pipes. There is none of that confused blurring as when played on ordinary makes of phonograph, the tone control pipes of the "Organola" Model separating the different voices and notes, giving a pure, clear, lifelike rendition.

Try a record of a violin, a piano, a soprano, or anything else you know the ordinary phonograph does not quite reproduce faithfully, and you will find that the "Organola" Model renders the selection perfectly and with a surprising volume.

If you are going to invest upwards of $250 in a phonograph, you will, of course, want to procure the finest that is built. So, if you cannot see and hear the "Organola" Mode of the "Phonola" at a dealer's in your locality, write direct to us.

Other "Phonolas" from $25 up. All makes of disc records can be played.

DEALERS: The "Phonola" line comprises 10 models—a "Phonola" for every requirement. The "Phonola" agency is the most valuable asset you can add to your business today. Write for particulars.
