Characteristics of the Past Week Carefully Culled for the ous

Business notices among locals will be charged at the rate of ten cents per line for each insertion. A reduction will be made on contracts for 100 lines or over.

Thursday next will be Thanksgiving Day.

We understand the rink this year will be under the care of Mr. John Bellamy.

R. Pedlar has placed in stock a complete line of boots and shoes of the very latest styles.

Messrs. Lloyd and Scully shipped a car load of eggs from this station on Tuesday for Birmingham, England.

Dundalk and Shelburne have formed hockey clubs. The trouble with Flesherton is that our rink is not long enough.

For an account of the Eugenia church opening see Eugenia correspondence. The Maxwell items are also unusually interesting this week.

If you want your laundry done up in first class style try the Rolstin Laundry Co. Work called for and delivered by G. N. LeGard, agent.

The case of Watson v. Hill, tried in Owen Sound last week, resulted in a verdict for plaintiff for $1700 and costs. Mr. Hill has appealed the case.

Don't forget the Mission Band entertainment in the Methodist church on the evening of Thanksgiving Day. Collection in aid of the Mission Band funds.

We notice that our new township road machine is not placed under cover for the winter. Is it weather proof? Or do our fathers purpose keeping it out to turnpike the snowdrifts?

The weather and roads during the past few days have been something of a destroyer on business. Six inches of snow and six inches of mud is a bad mixture for trade.

Mr. R. McMullen of Eugenia purposes leaving in two or three weeks for British Columbia, where he will spend the winter and purposes pushing on to the Yukon gold fields in the spring.

I wish to inform the people of Flesherton and the surrounding country that I have placed in stock a full line of boots and shoes of the finest quality. My stock is entirely new and prices low. Call and see for yourself. R. Pedlar.

An extensive auction sale of household furniture, stoves, cutters, wagon, cart etc., will be held at Sproule's auction rooms on Saturday, Nov. 20, at 2 p.m. See large bills for list. This sale will be worth attending.

Mr. A. McDougall, late of the Advance staff, has been spending a few days with friends in town. Archie will not take a situation until the new year, owing to his health having been somewhat poor, but which he is now fast recovering.

A large number of young people from the village attended the Presbyterian church opening services at Eugenia on Sunday and the entertainment on Monday evening. The usual evening service here was dispensed with for the occasion.

Hon. John Dryden, Minister of Agriculture, will hold two meetings in this riding in the interest of the Liberal Candidate, Mr. John Boland—one at Maxwell on Tuesday Nov. 23, and one at Chatsworth on the following day, Nov. 24. The candidate, Mr. Boland, will also be present at these meetings. See bills.

The dates for Farmers' Institute meetings to be held this winter have been set. In this district the dates are: Flesherton, Jan. 5 (annual meeting); Kimberley, Jan. 14; Priceville, Jan. 15; Feversham, Jan. 16; Thornbury, Jan. 13. Delegates to be present at these meetings are J. J. Ferguson, B. S. A., Smith Falls, and local talent.

Orangeville has adopted the discount instalment system of collecting taxes and has found it to work very satisfactorily, over half of the collectable taxes having been paid in on the first instalment. There is no reason why the system would not work just as well in the townships, thereby making a large saving to the ratepayers.

Mrs. Douglas of Collingwood is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. VanDusen.

Mr. Dan Henderson, who got doubled up in a runaway a couple of weeks ago, is again "on deck."

Messrs Austin Pickell of Philadelphia, and Chas. Pickle of Markdale, were in town on Monday.

If you want a really good article it flour take the old reliable, Ford's, sold by W. Barnhouse.

Bring along your dog and coon skins, get them tanned and made into mits. Also leggings on hand and made to order. W. Barnhouse.

No less than seven Toronto sportsmen are visiting friends in town this week, and as a consequence the bunnies and foxes are having a warm time of it.

The public reading room is open on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday evenings until 10 p m. The government cheque for $218 has been received. You can now buy a ticket securing you the reading of twenty books for only five cents, providing a regular member's ticket is owned in the family. Who wouldn't read?

Having been requested by prominent citizens to allow myself to be nominated for reeve of the township, I am sorry to say that I cannot oblige them, as we are very busy making and selling boots and shoes. My first duty to voters and non-voters is to supply them with coverings to their feet. Therefore I respectfully decline the honor. We can supply all our friends and patrons with boots, shoes, rubbers, overshoes, felt boots, etc., and for price and quality ours are second to none. Wm. Clayton.

There is a pleasant surprise in store for the subscribers of the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal. We have seen the premium picture that comes this year with the Family Herald and Weekly Star, and can heartily compliment any of our readers who are subscribers of the Family Herald and Weekly Star. How can it be done? That is the question. All that the subscribers are interested in knowing is that they get the great paper and the sweet picture for a ridiculously small sum. We hear there is a great rush for it, and no wonder.

The ink was scarcely dry on our edition last week when the smiling face of Mr. John McArthur, merchant of Priceville, projected itself through our sanctum door, and during the course of a pleasant conversation which followed, the fact was made reasonably plain to our mind that Mr. McArthur is in the field for the reeveship of Artemesia. In fact he emphatically stated this to be the case. One cannot tell what may turn up before nomination day, but in any event Mr. McArthur is in the field to stay, and as he has several times before been tried in the capacity of councillor and not found wanting, he will no doubt make it interesting for his opponent or opponents, whoever he or they may be.

During the past week The Advance man has been approached by numbers of travellers who have a genuine grievance against our township council, and more particularly against the commissioner for the Flesherton division. It seems that the commissioner has dug and stirred up some of the clay road between this village and the station with the road grader, and fall rains setting in have made it almost impassable, many teams getting completely stuck in the putty. East and south of the village the same thing has been done. We were asked by one gentleman to "give him——" well, say fits, but we will leave it with his tender conscience which we believe is already pricking him. Our 'bus men and teamsters are simply wild, and really they have just cause to be.

Notice

To the Electors of the Township of Artemesia:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,—As I have been solicited by a large number of ratepayers of the township to offer myself as a candidate for the reeveship, I have consented to accept the nomination, and if elected my motto shall be "Hew to the line," regardless of nationality, creed or politics. Your vote and influence are respectfully solicited. JOHN MCARTHUR.

Priceville, Nov. 15, 1897.

Messrs Taggart and Hamilton of Hornings Mills whose rigs collided one Sunday recently, have settled their differences by Mr. Taggart paying Hamilton $340 and Taggart paying his own costs.

Embossed in Gold

To buy and reproduce famous paintings involves an expenditure that could hardly be borne unless, as in the case of The Youth's companion, the enterprise is sustained by the approval of more than five hundred thousand subscribers. The Companion's Souvenir Calendar for 1898, a series of charming figure-pieces, faithfully copied in colors and embossed in gold, is recognized as one of the richest and most costly examples of this form of art. Yet every new subscriber receives it without additional charge. Moreover, the paper is sent free to new subscribers every week from the time the subscription is received until January, 1898, and then a full year to January, 1899.

The popular price of The Companion, $1 75 a year, and the character of its contents, make it a paper for every household. Exceptional attractions are promised for the fifty-two numbers to be issued during 1898. The Rt. Hon. W. E. Gladstone, the Hon. Thomas B. Reed, Rudyard Kipling, Lillian Nordica, John Burroughs, W. D. Howells and Max O'Rell are prominent in the long list of eminent contributors named in The Companion's announcement, which will be sent free to any one addressing

THE YOUTHS' COMPANION,
205 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass.

Resolution of Condolence

At the quarterly board meeting of the Eugenia circuit, Methodist church, the following resolution was passed:

Moved by T. B. Carruthers, seconded by James Cornfield, "That we the members of the Quarterly official Board on the Eugenia circuit of the Methodist church, now in session, do hereby express sincere regret in the loss sustained by this Board in the death of our esteemed Bro., Mr. J. Pedlar, who was always ready for any duty in religious circles in which the church was pleased to give him office, and whose wisdom and advice were always heartily received and appreciated by the bretheren. And we wish to express our sympathy with the bereaved wife and family in the loss of a kind husband and loving father, whose cherishing care was ever active in their welfare.

Richard Ewen's barn, Chatsworth, was burned Friday night, supposedly by a spark from a stump. The building contained a thoroughbred Guernsey bull, seed drill, cultivator, gang plough, two other ploughs, turnip sower, grain, etc. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

Since Mr. John Geddes' barn was burned six weeks ago he had endeavored to put himself in communication with Mr. Russell, the owner of the farm, with regard to rebuilding. He located Mr. Russell in England two weeks ago and the reply was a cable: "Build main barn contract." The cable was received on Monday of last week. The timber was standing in the tree. On Friday the barn was raisd. By last Monday the barn was boarded up and shingled. If that record can be beaten speak up at once. Growing trees converted into a 40x60 barn in one week is rapid transit.—Thornbury Standard

LIGHTNING PAIN HUNTER

H. HEITMAN, ESQ.
Gibraltar, June 1897.

DEAR SIR,—I would be doing an injustice to you and the public not to make known the benefits I received from your remedy known as "Lightning Pain Hunter." I sprained my ankle very badly, a short time after it got very bad again. I was unable to get around for about three months. First I tried one doctor then another, and other remedies to no end. I was nearly giving up in despair when you gave me the first bottle of "Lightning Pain Hunter" to try it on its merits; to my surprise I got immediate relief and in about three weeks I began moving around, and shortly after went to work. I thank the day I began using your Lightning Pain Hunter that set me on my feet again. We have used it for burns, scalds, bruises, coughs, sore throat, sore shoulders on the horses and cuts in winter, yet I have failed to be disappointed when applied. In fact it is our household remedy and I would not be without it. Anyone wishing to write me direct I will gladly answer them. Wishing you every success I remain. Yours truly, A. COOK.

Shipped to any address on receipt of price.

Monuments, Urns and Vases

The undersigned has secured the agency for the new Metallic Plate Glass Monument, manufactured in Toronto, one of the finest monuments ever presented to the public. It is pronounced by experts to be the best monument in the market. The inscription, which is patented, will last for ages, and will be as perfect in a hundred years as the first year. An inscription in granite or marble, when put on in gold, silver or painted, will last only a short time and then have to be done over again. The old need not put on their spectacles to read our inscription. These monuments are of beautiful designs, graniteized in red or grey, and are within the reach of the poorest. An early call solicited
