Good Work For Endeavorers

PROVINCIVL EDITOR'S BUDGET

There are being sent out all over Ontario by the "Lord's Day Alliance," from its headquarters in Toronto, petitions to be signed, asking for the amendment of the present Lord's Day Act, so that it shall represent the true sentiment of the people of this province, and prohibit the doing of business or work by all classes of persons without limitation, and by corporations, with excepting only in favor of carrying Her Majesty's mail, and carrying passengers by way of through traffic, selling drugs and medicines, and other works of necessity and mercy. Our Endeavorers can give their valuable help in securing a large signature to these petitions. That should be attended to at once, as the Alliance wants them in time for the meeting of the Legislature in Toronto. Let no time be lost. If you have heard nothing of these petitions send to Mr. A. E. O'Meara, Confederation Life Building, and he will send you what you want.

I. B. R. A. The International Bible Reading Association prepared selections to be read each day of the year. These are handsomely gotten up on a beautiful card. They also send out four pages of notes for each month, this goes well with our C. E. pledge. The whole outfit is only 3 cents each. When a number write to join a branch, send to James E. Kerr, Esq., Galt, for information.

When the Dominion Plebiscite for Prohibition is on, help it too, all you can.

AWAKE—As the fall season has come should we not lay new plans for work in our societies? To work better we individually must seek to be better men and women ourselves. Paul writes to Timothy to take heed to himself and to his doctrine. Himself first, his work afterwards, that is the divine order. We must get into the spirit of our work, then it will be easy and delightful and successful. Invite the young people to enjoy the exercises of the society with you. Welcome them cordially when they come, Make them feel that you are glad to see them. A kindly greeting does very much to draw them and make them feel at home.

READING GOOD BOOKS

It is not the privilege of every one to listen to the great Christian thinkers and speakers of our time when they visit this continent, yet we are not entirely shut out from sitting at their feet and learning their lessons. The press with its nimble teeth catch up their words and make them our premanent possession. We have a few precious little books just issued from the press of Revell and Co., Toronto, which are specially suitable for Endeavorers. One is T. B. Meget "A Castaway", a book on the higher life, most excellently put and as attractive as a story. Another is Dr. A. J. Gordon's "Yet Speaketh," which is as sweet as a nut, and as luscious as grapes and delights one to muse upon. Another is "Christ Reflected in Creation," by D.C. MacMullen, a suggestive little book for young people to read. The mind needs food just as the body does. Supply it with what is good. Do you read the Endeavour Herald?

William Reid, an old and extremely eccentric resident of Euphrasia, died at Mr. Thomas Reid's, 7th line, last Thursday. Mr. Reid was a prosperous and well to-do farmer, but about ten years ago gave up, without apparent reason, all farming operations, and commenced living the lile of a hermit, sometimes living for many days in the bush, and some times spending his time in the barn. His food was rarely more than uncooked grain, except when persuaded by neighbors to partake of more satisfying fare. He allowed his cattle and horses to wander away at their will. His farm is unencumbered, and considerable money was found in his clothes.—Thornbury Standard.

It is reported that a Sullivan farmer who lives near Desboro, loaded up with cantankerous rye a week ago last Sunday and went out to the stable supposedly to sleep off the effects of his blow-out. A valuable bull he owned made too much noise to admit of peaceful slumber and to quiet the animal he went to the house and brought out a loaded gun the contents of which he fired into the animal's jaw inflicting such a wound as to necessitate killing the poor brute the next day.

Rev. R. R. Wilson B. A., a young Methodist minister stationed on the Grand Valley circuit since last July, died at his home in Fergus last week. He took hemmorhage of the lungs, and after ten days illness passed away.

Rev. C. M. Peilmore has resigned the pastorate of the Baptist church, Chesley.

The 3-year old daughter of Mr. W. C. Allen, of Arthur tp., was seriously burned on Monday. Mrs. Allen was making soap out of doors when the child's dress caught fire from the blaze under the kettle and before her mother could extinguish it the little girl was badly burned. Mrs. Allen's hands were also painfully injured in extinguishing the flames.

On the 29th of July last Jas. J. Hubbard of Orangeville, while driving along sideroad 250 of the township of Melancthon, dropped into a mudhole in the road and remained there from 9 o'clock at night until 3 o'clock in the morning. His wagon and harness were wrecked and his horses and himself injured. He sued the municipality for $300 damages. Evidence of Dr. Jas. Henry went to show that Mr. Hubbard's back had been severely injured by one of the horses falling upon him while trying to extricate it from the Melancthon mudhole. Judge Street gave judgment against the township for $225 and the costs of the action, which will amount to $500.
