Around Grey County

R. H. Williams, of Owen Sound, was appointed manager of the Portland Cement Co., of Durham.

The brick residence of Ralph Foster, near Jackson, was burned to the ground on Friday night last. The home was one of the finest in Derby. Most of the furniture was saved.

For the second time inside of a few weeks Postmaster McVannel has been nursing a broken arm. On Saturday last he fell again on the slippery ice and broke his wrist bone in the same place as the former fracture.—Shelburne Free Press.

A little Wiarton boy undertook to draw water from a well and fell in. The mother saw the accident, screamed and then fainted. When the father hurried up his attention was paid to the fainting woman without knowing that the child was in the well, and when taken out the life of the little boy was extinct.

PROTON

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wright on Tuesday, Feb. 25, a daughter.

After an absence of two months Mrs. Consley has returned to her home here.

The Anglicans gave their annual oyster supper on February 25 and notwithstanding the disagreeable weather a goodly crowd assembled to enjoy the delicious treat. A program was given by members of the Church and Rev. Kendall delivered an interesting address. The funds go toward purchasing a new organ for the church.

Mrs. Robt. Acheson visited last week with her sister, Mrs. Akins, Flesherton.

The "Batchelors of Proton" gave a dance on Wednesday night of last week and we understand they had a splendid crowd and a good time. But as your Scribe was conspicuous by 'his' absence we cannot give a detailed account of the event.

The monthly meeting of the Farmers' Club is to be held on Thurs., March 13.

The fine weather and splendid sleighing this winter have been a great advantage to those who have teaming to do. Mr. J. C. Wright has had about two hundred and fittp cords of wood put in his brick and he, together with Bert Meddaugh, have purchased about one hundred thousand feet of saw-logs for the Durham and Hanover furniture Co.

Making It All Clear to Him.

"Yes," said a young soldier just returned and anxious to make matters quite clear to his friend, "you see it was this way. I went out with the T.M.B. At the C.C.S. they soon packed me off with the help of the R.A.M.C. When I got out of hospital and left my favorite V.A.D., the M.O. marked me D1. At the Command Depot the S.M.O. got me a T.M.B. and I became B2; and when a new A.C.I. came out I was shifted again, with an R.S.M. pal of mine. Got on well enough, only the O.C. gave me C.B. once for cheeking a Q.M.S. Now I'm in the A.S.C. and in love with a W.A.A.C. Funny, isn't it, her name's D.O.R.A. She's A1. She's, A1 too, so everything's O.K.
