County and district

The Patrons of South Grey have nominated Mr. D McNichol as their standard bearer.

Grand Valley has been incorporated as a village, it having over the necessary 750 residents.

The Mt. Forest Confederate has again changed hands, aMr. Fisher of Stratford being the new proprietor.

The case against the alleged Shelburne perjurers came to a sudden end last week by the discovery that it was illegal to try the cases in Peel. They will therefore come up for hearing in Orangeville next spring. Coleman, who was found guilty, will be allowed out upon furnishing satisfactory bail.

Old Mary Randall, a disreputable character who has lived the last thirty years in one part or other of the county—principally in jail here—is an inmate again this winter. She is suffering from paralysis and her present term will probably be her last. She did three years time at Kingston penitentiary for arson committed at Hanover.—Times.

The schools in the Inspectorate of South Grey will receive this year from the Government the following grants for superior instruction for Continuation classes: Durham $100, Markdale $50, Dundalk $25, Hanover $25, Priceville $25, 3 Glenelg $25. Public School Leaving: 5 Glenelg $5, 1 Glenelg $5, 14 Melancthon $10, 4 Osprey $5, Artemesia No. 11 $5, No. 2 $5, No. 4 $5, No. 5 $5, No. 6 $4, No. 3 Normanby $5, No. 11 $10, No. 4 $10, No. 5 Egremont $5, No 6 $10, No. 9 Proton $5.—Durham Chronicle.

Two young men of the Township of Carrick, have for some time been courting a farmer's daughter of the same township, and as usual the girl has a preference. When the preference was being entertained one night of last week the young people were suddenly startled by a loud crash and the young man experienced a stinging sensation on his right cheek. Hastily turning to his sweetheart he demanded to know what she did that for? For answer she pointed to the broken window and a large stone on the floor. The noise awoke the old farmer, who armed himself with a gun and started out on a still hunt. He has not bagged his game yet, but insists on his daughter pulling down the blind on courting night.—Hanover Post.

The following extract will aid people in dealing with estray animals: The law provides that persons taking up estray stock shall give notice that such animals are on their premises by publishing three times in a newspaper published within the section where the estrayed was found, and if the property is not claimed within three weeks after the insertion of the notice the finder shall go to a justice of the peace and make oath to finding and advertising. If the property is not claimed within a year and should not exceed $50 in value, it then belongs to the party on whose property it strayed. If worth over $50 it shall be advertised by the justice and sold and the excess of all expenses shall be paid over to the county treasurer. Any person taking up an estray and neglecting to cause the same to be advertised and appraised shall be liable to a fine of $20.

Mr. John J. Laybourne, who owns a farm near Rivervew, has become violently insane, and was taken to Orangeville gaol Monday evening, as the first step in having him sent to an asylum. Laybourne first attracted public attention at Brampton during the recent trial, by threatening to cut his throat with a table knife in one of the hotels last Thursday morning. The object of his going to Brampton has not been made clear. It was at first said that he went there to give evidence, but both Crown and defence deny this statement. He was sent home by train that morning, reached Shelburne all right, but fell out of his rig while driving home, and then walked the remaining distance to Robt. Smith's place, adjoining his own. It was found necessary to secure medical attendance the same day. We are informed that a sister of Mr. Laybourne's died under a like affliction.—Shelburne Economist.

Bradley Case Revived

A year ago Peel county was agog with the Caledon East conspiracy case. Clark went to Kingston and Bradley was released on account of ill health after undergoing one half his year's sentence. Since then father and son, Tom, have quarreled over the spoils and the latter has made a clean breast of everything implicating a dozen or more of the neighborhood. Some gave up their Bradley possessions and detective Heffernan had a big auction sale of recovered goods at Caledon East on Saturday last. Others refused to divulge their transactions and several arrests have followed. Hugh Henry, Archibald Hicks, Irwin Wilson and Thos. Bowles are charged with conspiracy to defraud in connection with taking of a horse, bull, cow and colt.

A writ has been issued against John Sanderson, cattle dealer of Shelburne, claiming heavy damages for trifling with the affections of Ann J. Irwin of Mulmur township. Sanderson was a widower until a month ago, when he married a Toronto township lady. Miss Irwin, however, claims that he made love and proposed to her while he was yet an impressionable widower and that their marriage was to have taken place during the last Toronto exhibition. John's letter to the Mulmur maiden will prove interesting reading when Lawyer Vance produces them at the Orangeville Assizes next spring.—Advertiser.
