ADDISON RESIGNS FROM CABINET

Because British Government Decides to Curtail the Housing Scheme.

London, July 15.—Dr. Christopher Addison has announced his resignation from the Cabinet, because of the government's decision to curtail the housing scheme, which he had sponsored, providing for a wide-spread house building programme with a government subsidy. Dr. Addison, who held the post of minister without portfolio, charged the government with breach of faith in the precipitate abandonment of plans which he regarded as essential to national restoration.

Japan Will Learn More About Proposed Conference

Tokio, July 15.—Japan's answer to President Harding's proposal for a conference on the limitation of armaments, which has been forwarded to Washington, while accepting the suggestion for an armament conference, says the Jiji Shimpo to-day, makes reservations concerning the general far-eastern concerns until more has been learned as to the scope and nature of the questions to be considered.
