REV. A. F. BROWN DIES AFTER A SHORT ILLNESS

Pastor of Calvary Congregational Church Passed Away Thursday Morning.

Rev. A. F. Brown, pastor of Calvary Congregational church, died on Thursday morning from a complication of diseases. He had been ill for a fortnight. Mr. Brown was an Englishman by birth, but had been in Canada for a good number of years. He was a man of fine attainments; a good pastor and preacher and of marked executive ability. In the years he has been filling the pastorate of Calvary Congregational church he accomplished much in bringing it to a fine state of efficiency. He was in the midst of a building project when stricken. Mr. Brown leaves a splendid record of spiritual activities, a congregation warmly attached to him and now thrown into bereavement of a very regrettable character. The head of their activities has been taken from them.

Rev. Mr. Brown, was known to the citizens as a zealous, earnest, Christian man. Kindly and sweet in life, devotedly attached to his work, constantly caring for his flock and proving himself a sterling shepherd of the souls of men.

The late Mr. Brown was ordained in the Baptist ministry, and prior to coming to Kingston, had occupied various Baptist pulpits in the maritime provinces, and latterly in New Brunswick. He accepted the call to Calvary Congregational church four years ago.

In addition to his interest in all activities of his own pastorate, Mr. Brown was one of the most prominent workers in the Kingston Ministerial Association. He was also treasurer of Court Frontenac, No. 59 Independent Order of Foresters.

Besides his widow, the deceased is survived by three daughters, Miss Sadie and Miss Ina, Toronto, and Miss Beatrice, at home; and one son, Adolphus, Montreal.

Rev. Mr. Brown preached his last sermon in Calvary church on Sunday, Sept. 2nd.

Wedded at Moscow.

On Saturday, Oct. 6th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Darling, Fairview Farm, Moscow, was the scene of a pretty autumn wedding when at one o'clock, their eldest daughter, Mary Claire, became the bride of Wilfred C. Potter, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley A. Potter, Moscow. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. J. W. Down in the presence of immediate friends and relatives. The bride wore a dress of ivory canton crepe and veil with touches of heliotrope and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and a maiden hair fern. She entered leaning on the arm of her father, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March. She was attended by her sister, Miss Eloise Darling, who wore sand crepe de chine and gold lace. The bridegroom was supported by his brother, Acel Potter. After the ceremony, a dainty luncheon was served by Misses Carmaletta Darling and Mary Woodruff, sister and cousin of the bride. Later the happy couple left for their honeymoon, the bride travelling in a suit of brown velour with fitch collar and hat of tangerine velvet. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. On their return they will reside in Napanee.

W. M. S. of Cooke's Church.

The annual thankoffering meeting of the W. M. S. of Cooke's church was held in the schoolroom on Tuesday evening. A good attendance of members was encouraging, and Mrs. T. J. S. Ferguson, who has been in Turkey, gave an interesting talk on the Armenian christians, showing and selling some of the beautiful lace made by them. Mrs. Ernest Treneer sang sweetly, and refreshments were served, Mrs. W. J. Paul presiding at the table, assisted by the members of the Mission Band. The collection amounted to $100.

Finds No Bill.

Brockville, Oct. 11.—Andrew Harney, the Crosby young man and former ward of St. George's Home, Ottawa, held for manslaughter in connection with the death on August 13th last of a fellow-laborer on highway construction, John Sherwood, whom he had struck in the course of an altercation ovbr possession of a shovel, was released at the Supreme Court Assizes after the grand jury had found no bill.

Justice Lennox read a lecture to Harney on his future conduct, saying that the fact that he had been instrumental in causing the death of a fellow-being should serve him a lesson for all the remaining days of his life.

Direct shipment to Canada of cotton grown in regulated areas in the United States under the federal pink boll worm quarantine, will be permitted after Oct. 15th.

Convenience Is Service!

What a difference there is between an old-fashioned box trunk and an up-to-date wardrobe trunk!

Everything is jammed at random in the old box—but the modern wardrobe trunk is entirely different. It has hangers for garments, drawers for linen, pockets for shoes, a corner for an umbrella and a compartment for hats. It almost packs and unpacks itself.

You live in the great modern age of System and Convenience. You want a place for everything and demand that everything be in its place.

That is why you will appreciate the modern, systematic A-B-C Classified Section. It has a separate "compartment" for each group of opportunities—and they are all alphabetically indexed and numerically classified for your convenience in quick finding.

You'll pack all your troubles in your old kit bag—when you unpack all the opportunities in the A-B-C "compartments" whose labels interest you.

When a great deal of work is done with index cards and filing, the drawers should be elevated enough at the farthest end so that they will slant toward the worker, instead of lying flat on a table. This elevation will make it easier for the worker to see the notations on the cards and will not necessitate such a cramped position of the arms.
