Provincial C. E. Editor's Budget

EXECUTIVE MEETING

On Dec. 31st the officers of the Provincial Union met in Toronto, and did a lot of necessary business. Mr. Wiggins reported that after paying all expenses connected with the Union Rally at St. Thomas, $1500 remained in hand. Mr. Morris is sending out in January postal cards to all the societies to be filled up and returned. Mr. Doherty reports that over one hundred dollars of pledge remained unpaid. A word to the wise is sufficient. After discussing the federation of young peoples' societies, it was decided that in the large conventions it was out of the question, while it may be workable in county conventions.

Report of the convention at St. Thomas is not yet ready, but may be soon.

TAKING PART IN THE C. E. MEETING

We are all pledged to take part in every C. E. meeting. To do so is one of the acts that help to develop our gifts, and exercise our graces. In doing this many are timid and fearful and need inspiration and help. And thus we have large assistance given us by the C. E. writers who provide for our needs. There is a neat little book published by the Presbyterian Board of Publication, Philadelphia—"The Prebyterian Christian Endeavor Manuel," by W. G. Ellis of the Golden Rule office. It is an excellent and cheap manual. Get it. Then there is a nicely bound volume issued by the same house entitled, "Converted Anew," written by Miss Belle V. Chisholm. This is an an inspiring story, no one can read it without feeling the high privilege of being an Endeavorer, and being permitted to do something both in meeting and out of it for the good of others. Another important help is "A Daily thought for daily Endeavorer," by G. A. and E. P. Sutphen, and published by the Baker & Taylor Co., New York. This is a storehouse of fine print. The choicest of thoughts of many minds. No one can peruse it without having his mind enriched, and thereby being fitted to take part in meeting. We are thankful for these most excellent helps. They will aid us in brighening up what would otherwise be only a very full and interesting meeting.

Council adjourned to meet on Feb. 14th at Feversham.

THOS SCOTT, Clerk.

The special report prepared by Mr. J. J. Kelso on the subject of child immigration was presented in the House Thursday morning. It contains much new information. Figures are given showing that during the past twenty five years nearly 30,000 boys and girls from the old country have been placed out in Ontario by philanthropic societies. Mr. Kelso points out that while there is a wide-spread prejudice against this class of immigration, many of those who have taken part in the agitation have been guided almost entirely by hearsay evidence, and the fact that a few of the children have been guilty of abnormal crimes. As only a small number of these children have been traced to penal institutions, the natural conclusion must be that the majority of them are doing well and have happily assimilated with the general population. Most of the agencies are reported as having been doing careful work on the whole, but Miss Rye's methods are not favorably spoken of.
