MR. JENNINGS (at times not interfering with the regular duties of his school,) gives lessons in private, and in classes, on the following branches, viz.

Writing, Arithmetic, SHORT HAND, Public Reading and Speaking, English Grammar, and BOOK KEEPING.

Ladies may acquire in a few lessons, a neat epistolary handwriting, and a thorough knowledge of the principles of English Grammar.

To Professional Gentlemen, Short Hand, if not essential, is exceedingly useful, as a means of recording their own thoughts, and those of others; and to be able to deliver those thoughts in an impressive and proper manner, is a duty they owe to their audience.

Persons engaged in Mercantile pursuits may acquire, in a short time, a good business hand, an uncommon facility of calculation, and a thorough knowledge of Book-keeping.

Application may be made at his Academy, near the N. W. corner of the Court House, or at his residence, Front Street, next to Mr. Markland's

Kingston, Nov. 14, 1834.

S. CARMINO,

RESPECTFULLY begs leave to acquaint his patrons and the public generally, that he continues to carry on the Business of Hotel and Tavern Keeper, at his old stand.

The Mansion House Hotel

Is pleasantly situated in Store Street, being the principal and most central street in Kingston, in the business part of the town; is convenient to the different Steam Boat wharves; and no establishment of the kind in the Province can surpass it in the excellence and comfort of its apartments, in regard both to parlours and Bed rooms; all of which are furnished in the very best style. The Hotel has been recently painted throughout and otherwise improved.

In the rear of the Mansion House is a large yard, in which there is an excellent range of Stables, and where a Livery Stable is constantly kept.

S. CARMINO having kept a Public House for many years, has acquired experience in that line; and he trusts that with unremitting attention to the comforts of his guests, he will continue to merit the public patronage.

☞ Porters will be in readiness to convey luggage to and from the different steam boats.
