YOUNG LADIES'

BOARDING SCHOOL,

AT BROCKVILLE.

MRS. BLACKWOOD begs to announce that, she is now prepared to receive young Ladies, as Boarders, who will be instructed in all the Useful and Ornamental branches of a modern English Education: among the latter may be particularized, Music, Singing, Dancing, Drawing, Ornamental Needlework and French.

The House is very airy, commodious, and in every respect adapted for a School; and Mrs. Blackwood flatters herself, that, bringing to her present undertaking, the experience of many years, she will continue to give the same satisfaction, that has hitherto attended her labours, and that this institution will be so conducted in all its departments, as to secure for it a preference over those of the neighbouring States.

Mrs. B. is assisted by Mr. Blackwood and Miss Porter.

Brockville, April 24th, 1843.

GENERAL AGENCY

AND COMMISSION OFFICE,

18, CORNHILL, LONDON.

Opposite the New Royal Exchange.

To Merchants, Commercial News Rooms, Public Libraries, Agricultural Societies, Officers of the United Services, Printers, Publishers of Newspapers, and Colonists generally.

P. L. SIMMONDS, General Agent and Commission Merchant, in offering his services to his Friends and the Canadian Public in general, begs to acquaint them that he is now ready to receive orders for supplies of any kind and quantity, including Stationery, New Books, Music, Periodicals, British and Foreign Newspapers, Patent Medicines, Patterns, Toys, Articles and Goods of every description of first rate quality, at the very lowest market prices of the day, and to transact business upon the most liberal terms, provided he is previously furnished with funds, or drafts at either long or short dates, or a reference to some London or Liverpool House for payment.

P. L. Simmonds will receive consignments of any description of merchandize, to be sold on Commission, and upon receipt of the Bills of Lading, will accept bills drawn upon him at three months, for two-thirds of the amount.—Consignments entrusted to his care, will meet with every possible despatch in their disposal; and sales be conducted with the greatest attention to the interest of the consignee.

An extensive knowledge of General Agency Business, acquired during a long residence in the West Indies, and subsequent extensive course of business with all the British Colonies—the experience of several years residence in London as a Colonial Agent, coupled with promptitude, attention, and judgment, will be trusts, enable him to give satisfaction to those who may favour him with their commands.

N. B.—Parents sending home their Children for education may with confidence entrust them, on their arrival in England, to the care of Mr. Simmonds, who will undertake to see them placed in first rate and respectable Establishments, where every attention shall be paid to their morals, improvement, and general comfort.

Reference may be made to Dr. Barker, or any of the Editors, with all of whom Mr. S. has been in long and frequent communication.

CITY STORE

JOHN CARRUTHERS begs respectfully to inform his friends and the Public, that he has opened an extensive

Grocery & Liquor Establishment,

in the premises formerly occupied by WALTER MCCUNNIFFE, Esq., corner of King and Princess Streets, immediately opposite Deykes & Co's. Dry Goods Establishment.

In soliciting an extension of public patronage, J. C. feels bound to express his cordial thanks to his old customers and friends, for the kind support which they have hitherto rendered him in his old stand, below the Post office; and he assures them, as well as the public, that nothing shall be left undone on his part to merit a continuance of that patronage he has hitherto received.

His present Stock has been carefully selected in the best Houses in the Montreal and New York York markets, under his own immediate inspection, a fact which he thinks will warrant the assertion that they are the choicest Goods in this Market, and will be disposed of at the very lowest remunerating prices for Cash.

Kingston, Sept. 12th, 1843.

FARM FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber offers for Sale his Extensive and Valuable FARM, situated on the McAdamized Road, in the Fourth Concession of Ernestown.
