YOUNG LADIES'

BOARDING SCHOOL,

AT BROCKVILLE.

MRS. BLACKWOOD begs to announce that, she is now prepared to receive young Ladies, as Boarders, who will be instructed in all the Useful and Ornamental branches of a modern English Education: among the latter may be particularized, Music, Singing, Dancing, Drawing, Ornamental Needlework and French.

The House is very airy, commodious, and in every respect adapted for a School; and Mrs. Blackwood flatters herself, that, bringing to her present undertaking, the experience of many years, she will continue to give the same satisfaction, that has hitherto attended her labours, and that this institution will be so conducted in all its departments, as to secure for it a preference over those of the neighbouring States.

Mrs. B. is assisted by Mr. Blackwood and Miss Porter.

in the premises formerly occupied by Walter McCunniffe, Esq., corner of King and Princess Streets, immediately opposite Deykes & Co's. Dry Goods Establishment.

In soliciting an extension of public patronage, J. His present Stock has been carefully selected in the best Houses in the Montreal and New York York markets, under his own immediate inspection, a fact which he thinks will warrant the assertion that they are the choicest Goods in this Market, and will be disposed of at the very lowest remunerating prices for Cash.
