Flesherton Station

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. Tracey of Toronto Junction had his hand badly smashed at this Station last Wednesday while coupling cars. Dr. Carter was called upon to dress the hand. Mr. Tracy went to the Owen Sound hospital and returned Friday to his home. It is reported that he will not lose his fingers as was expected.

Miss Sarah Ferguson, who has been ill for some time, took a relapse last week, and at the present time is very low.

Miss Jennie Melia returned from Toronto last week to wait on her mother, who has been very ill with inflammation.

Mr. A. Whittaker, who has been ill, is on the mend.

Mrs. Tucker visited friends in Dromore last week.

Mr. Cole and Boyd Bros are busy loading grain this week.

Mr. A. McAuley has moved into the house lately vacated by Mr. Hawke.

Mr. W. Taylor is moving into the house vacated by Mr. McAuley.

Mr. and Mrs. Burroughs of Conn visited Mr. H. Tucker Sunday

Rev Mr. Mahan is holding prayer meetings every Wednesday evening in the Orange Hall.

Rev. Mr Thom is also holding cottage prayer meetings every Tuesday evening.

Eugenia.

From our own Correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sherwood are moving this week to their farm on the gravel. All are sorry that they are leaving Eugenia, as they were kind and agreeable neighbors and will be greatly missed. However, we wish them prosperity and success in their new home.

The new addition to the school house is finished and presents a very creditable appearance.

Mr. Wm. Wilson has improved his house with a coat of white paint.

Mr. H. M. Bowerman has erected a fine verandah in front of his handsome new residence and is having his house painted, making it as pretty a place as any around Eugenia.

Seeding is almost finished in this locality and the country is now getting beautiful in its garb of green and various colored flowers.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Sloan is still in a precarious condition.

Born—At Salem farm, on April 28, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pedlar, a daughter.

Mrs. Bannerman of Stayner is the guest of Mrs. Melvin.

Mrs. Knight of British Columbia is visiting at Mr. Robert Graham's of the Valley.

Miss Smith of Flesherton is visiting her sister, Mrs. Munshaw.

Miss McKee of Portlaw spent the past week with her grandmother, Mrs. Pedlar.

Vandeleur

From Our Own Correspondent

Another pioneer of Artemesia is gone. Mr. Robert Warling, one of the first settlers of this place, passed away last Wednesday night at the residence of his son, George He was around as usual the day before and retired to bed at his usual time. His son, George, on going to his bedroom the next morning found that he had quietly passed away during the night. Mr. Warling was a native of Ireland and came to Canada when a young man, living for some time in the township of King Leaving there in 1855, he settled on the farm on which he died At the time of his death he was in his 80th year. In politics he was a life-long Conservative, and in religion a Methodist. He has gone from amongst us like a ripe sheaf ready for the harvest, and no one who knew him has any regret that he has lived with us. He has gone to his reward, and may his memory long remain green in the affection of all who knew him. The funeral took place on Saturday to Meaford Road cemetery and was attended by a very large number of neighbors and sympathizing friends. The deceased leaves behind him four sons and three daughters, besides a large number of grandchildren and several great grandchildren to mourn his loss.

Quite a number here finished seeding last week.

Mrs. R. Douglas left for Niagara to attend the funeral of her brother-in law, Mr. J. H. Morrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Richardson of Chatsworth arrived here on Friday last to attend the funeral of the latter's father, Mr. R. Warling.

Mr T Dunlop has built himself a new house already this spring.

Mr. S. J. Bowles also intends building in the summer, and Mr. George Warling has the material on the ground for a new brick residence.

Word was received here on Friday last that Robert Leckey, a former resident of this place, had received injuries at the Crows Nest Pass, which resulted in his death. He was a son of the late Mr. Leckey, who was one of the reeves of this township

Mr David Graham is laid up with pleurisy.

Kimberley

From our own Correspondent

The followers of Isaac Walton were out in full force on Monday. A number of young men from Meaford came in the early morning and "with patient angle trolled the finny deep."

Miss A. McKenzie is the guest of Mrs. Proctor this week.

Mrs. Baker of Bay View has arrived in town.

One day last week while Mr. Scott was driving to Markdale with a span of colts the latter took fright and ran away, breaking the tongue of the democrat Miss Ethel was thrown under the horses' feet but was not severely hurt. Mr. S came off "Scott free."

Mr. McGowan of Oakville spent a few days with his son, Mr. J. McGowan, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Kells of Vandeleur spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. A. Myles of Springbrook Farm.

Miss M. Thurston returned on Saturday from an extended visit with friends in Priceville and Flesherton.

Mr. V. Kester of the Markdale Standard and Mr. W. H. Thurston of The Advance were guests at the Travellers' Home on Sunday last.

Stone's Settlement

From Our Own Correspondent

The fine, cool weather of the past week has been most favorable to farmers. A few more days of fine weather will finish seeding. What little fall wheat there is in this section looks well at present, with prospects of an average crop.

Miss S, principal of the Irish Lake academy, is the possessor of what appears to be a new spinning wheel. Judging by the manner in which she was observed to spin along the road last Friday evening we would say she is an expert as well as a graceful rider of the rubber tire.

Mrs. John McLeod returned home last week from Essa, where she had been attending the funeral of her brother.

Mr. John McLean of Duluth is visiting old friends and neighbors in these parts at present. He is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John McLeod.

Miss Susie Gee spent a day last week among friends on this line. We were glad to see you, Susie, but sorry that you could not remain longer. Come again.

Messrs. B. Stone and A. Purdy, who left these parts some weeks ago to better their fortunes in the Northwest, are employed in the vicinity of Rat Portage at very fair wages. They find that farming in that part of the province is very different from what it is here. Bennie thinks that to harrow forty acres a day is a tall day's work. Well, so it is, Ben, but you are a pretty tall fellow, and you are good for it every time.

Notwithstanding the four score and five years that has passed over the head of Mrs. William Stone, we are glad to state that she yet enjoys a tolerable share of good health for one of her age. The old lady still does her own household work, besides attending to her little garden. We hope that a number of years of good health and happiness may be added to her long life.

A Spectacle is not a Watch . . .

but It is a device for preserving and assisting the sight It is a necessity and requires careful fitting to obtain good results.

Do you need anything of this sort? Are you not straining your eyes to avoid wearing glasses? If so then you need our services, OURS because we fit you scientifically, not merely by chance. We can arrange glasses to suit your pocket book by giving the best lenses in Steel, German Silver, Gold Filled or Sold Gold frames. Over 200 pairs of glasses to choose from.

A Watch is sometimes a Spectacle.

especially so when it is neglected and allowed to run till it stops. The dust gathers, dries up the oil and being of a gritty nature wears on the jewels and pivots and destroys their exactness of fit and also the time keeping qualities. The watch is spoiled when a small outlay would have preserved it for years.

Bring your repairing to us; we will do the work properly and as reasonably as possible. Watches examined and reported on free of charge.

Mr. Thos. Jackson, near Galt, who is a breeder of fine Leicester sheep, has a lamb that weighed at birth 16½ pounds, and when two weeks old tipped the scales at the great weight of 28 pounds.

Joseph Bailey, a farmer residing in Bentinck Township, was killed Saturday night by a horse he was driving running away and throwing him out of the rig. He was a man about 40 years of age. His son, who was with him, jumped out of the rig and broke his leg.

Tired of life, Gilbert Malloy hung himself in a swamp near Hillsburg on Friday morning. Just as the grey dawn was breaking, he slipped out of the house, tiptoed his way to the barn, got a rope, and in half an hour his body was hanging from a swamp tree. The deceased was well liked by the villagers. He was well to do, and no one appears to understand why he wished to cut life short. He leaves a wife and family. The body was not found till Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. It was located by a searching party.—Grand Valley Star.
