DEATH OF THE REV. W. H. HOBSON

It is with feelings of the deepest emotion that we discharge the painful duty of recording the death of our esteemed tenor, the Rev. W. H. Hobson, the melancholy circumstances attending it we will relate as fully as they have come to us.

The reverend gentleman left Chatham on Wednesday, the 4th instant, in the steamboat Brothers for the purpose of discharging some duties appertaining to his office as trustee of the District Grammar School. On the voyage he was taken seriously ill, and on arriving at Windsor was obliged to be carried in an arm chair to the Globe Hotel. Medical aid was immediately obtained from Detroit, and in the course of two or three days he was so far recovered that he arose from his bed and walked short distances, but at times seemed to wander in his mind. On last Sabbath but one his language was more unconnected; and on the Monday following, in the afternoon, he started for a walk up the bank of the Detroit river, with his umbrella over his head and his walking cane, saying he would go and see a friend. Evening having arrived and the gentleman not having returned enquiry was made by several friends, but nothing satisfactory was learned. On Tuesday and Wednesday search was made, but the body was not found until Thursday morning; the unfortunate gentleman had wandered some six miles up the Detroit river, and leaving the main road had got bewildered in an extensive marsh, all Monday night he must have suffered in this dreary place, he was seen on Tuesday morning and evening near the same place where he was found without either cap or coat on him, many persons were hunting near him, and to one or two persons he spoke, but the settlers in the vicinity being all French they did not understand him, but supposed him to be a Dutchman. When found he was lying on his face, and from the appearance of his clothes he must have travelled many miles about the marsh, his walking cane was found some 200 yards west from where the body was discovered, the umbrella a quarter of a mile south of the body on the skirts of a wood, and his cap and coat some distance north east of the body; a smelling bottle was found in another direction, evidently showing that he must have been in a most distracted state.

A coroner's inquest was held by W. G. Hall, Esq., and the verdict of the jury was, that the gentleman came to his death from exposure, consequent upon a fit of temporary derangement.

We will not now attempt to give our readers a description of this worthy, good, and much esteemed man, an abler pen we hope will be engaged in the task, and it will be with pleasure we shall lay it before the public.

TRIAL OF MICHAEL MORAN FOR THE MURDER OF PATRICK MCBRIDE.—Yesterday Michael Moran was placed in the dock, charged with the murder of Patrick McBride, in March Street, on the night of Monday, the 12th of June. It appeared in evidence that the prisoner and deceased, in company with some others, were in Johnston McBrien's tavern on the night in question. Deceased appears to have asked Moran for nine York shillings, which he said Moran owed him.—Moran said he had paid him. Deceased replied that Moran was a liar. The parties were drinking, some of them partially intoxicated. Some of the witnesses stated that deceased challenged the prisoner to fight; but which of them struck first was a point on which the evidence was a little conflicting; some of the witnesses stating that the first blow came from the prisoner, whilst another distinctly stated that deceased struck first. The blow which produced death was inflicted on the head by a small stick, which, one of the witnesses stated, did not weigh more than four ounces. McBride was taken up and carried to Dr. Herrick, where the wound was dressed. He walked part of the distance home alone, and died several days after.—The prosecution was conducted by Solicitor General Blake. The defence by Mr. Hagerty. Verdict, guilty of Manslaughter.

GOVERNMENT EMIGRATION.—On the 28th September, her Majesty's Colonial Land Emigration Commissioners appointed six vessels to sail during the ensuing month of October from Deptford, calling at Plymouth for passengers for South Australia, on the 4th and 14th; Port Philip, 7th and 18th; and Sydney, 11th and 21st. Each of these vessels carry 150 passengers, making altogether about 1,000 individuals.

N. B.—Parties in England will bear in mind that Timber sold in the raft, subjects the purchasers to great expense in dressing, butting, and at times heavy loss for culls—if sold in shipping order, the expense of shipping only to be added.

REMARKS.

Since the commencement of the month the dullness so peculiar to the Trade all the season has given way to great activity in some articles, more especially White Pine, the sales have been to a large extent, but at no improvement in price.

Good Rafts of 70 feet have been sold at 3¾d a 4¼d while larger averages have been placed at 4¼d a 4½d, and inferior parcels at 3d a 3¼. There is at present very little offering, and within the last few days a slight improvement is discernible, and what is still for sale is held more firmly.

Red Pine has not been much enquired for, and although one few Rafts have changed hands, we have no buoyancy corresponding to that in White to notice. Averages of about 50 feet are held at 8½d a 9d, with a gradual declension to 40 feet, but under this, the dullness is great and price most miserable.

In other articles we have little to notice, though some large rafts of Oak have been made at our quotations, and a good deal of Tamarac has changed hands at the low price of 3d. per foot for squared.

Deals, both Pine and Spruce, are almost unsaleable, and our prices may be considered nominal.

Comparative Statement of Timber measured to the 10th Oct., as Supervisor's Statement:—

INSPECTOR OF LICENSES.—Paul Peterson, Esq., formerly a representative of the County of Prince Edward, in the Upper Canadian Parliament has been appointed to the office of Inspector of Licenses for this district, vacant by the death of Dr. Marshall. The claims of Mr. Peterson upon the Government, were of a character not to be overlooked. He devoted himself to the cause of reform, when the party was comparatively in its infancy, and took ground with the late Dr. Faldwin, the father of the party, and those who, against such fearful odds, had commenced the struggle for constitutional government in Upper Canada.—Examiner.

HAMILTON ASSIZES.—DR. DILL THE SUSPECTED MURDERER.—In the case of Dr. Dill, which some time ago caused a good deal of talk in this city, and excitement in Dundas, the Solicitor General did not attempt to frame a bill of Indictment, notwithstanding that the Doctor was incarcerated for three weeks in the District gaol. The Dundas Warder, in noticing the committal, spoke at the time as follows:

"After an investigation which lasted eight days, and during which time upwards of forty witnesses were examined, whose testimony when reduced to writing, covered two hundred and fifty pages of foolscap, the decision of committing Dr. Dill, charged by Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson with having murdered her husband."

We have only to add that as no evidence whatever can be adduced, the committing Magistrates acted with a great deal more zeal than discretion; and that it is high time an end was put to this system of arbitrary arrest. Dr. Dill intends to publish a series of letters on this subject, the first of which will appear in Saturday's Spectator.

Hamilton Spectator.

THE LUNATIC ASYLUM.—We have heard of all sorts of rumors about a prevailing antagonism in the above Institution, between the Commissioners and the Medical Superintendent. As we do not wish to be again led into mistake by anything relating to the asylum, we forbear mentioning particulars, till we shall have heard from head quarters. Mad people should not be meddled with, unless those entrusted with their care; and as we are not the organ of the Asylum, we shall observe silence for the present. We were led into a serious error last 12th July, by a humorous friend who hoaxed us most shamefully in the affair of the orange procession.

☞ DISASTERS OF THE POLLY WAGE.—We are sorry to learn that the steamer "City of Kingston", with several barges in tow, laden with produce, ran on a rock in the Lachine Rapids yesterday. Messrs. Coleleugh & Greer are the Agents for the steamer.

We have not been able to gather any further information on which we could depend, respecting the position of this steamer.

The Dawn was aground yesterday near Gananoque.

We have also been informed that the new steamer Comet, is ashore at the mouth of the Beauharnois Canal; she will be got off immediately.

A letter has just been handed to us stating that a large barge laden with produce, &c., consigned to McCraig & Co., has sunk at the head of the Long Sault Rapids.

REMEDY FOR BRONCHITIS.

TORONTO, May 25th, 1847.

MR. SETH W. FOWLE,

Dear Sir—I have so many times mentioned to you my case at the present time, and each one has more or less certificates from real or imaginary individuals, that I have for some time had doubts of the propriety of giving any testimony in favor of your medicine. But being assured that I have been benefitted by its use, and feeling satisfied that by giving in my testimony in regard to its medicinal qualities, I may, perhaps, be the means of saving some one similarly afflicted, I therefore cheerfully add my testimony in favor of the medicine that I know has done me great good. I have been afflicted with the Bronchitis for a number of years, and by the use of a couple of bottles of

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY,

I am happy to say that I am almost free from the above troublesome disease.

If this should be the means of saving one of my fellow beings from that most troublesome and painful disease, (Bronchitis) I shall be fully paid for my trouble in writing the above communication. Respectfully yours,

B. COVERT, Vocalist.
Firm of Covert and Dodge.

We take pleasure in transferring the above certificate of Mr. Covert, in favour of the curative properties of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, to our columns. Mr Covert, (of the firm of Covert and Dodge, vocalists) has been long and favorably known in this city and vicinity as a vocalist of rare attainments. We have watched with painful anxiety his declining health from the disease of which he speaks, and have almost despaired of his recovery—yes, we placed him in the catalogue of incurables—but thanks to the virtues of Dr. Wistar's Balsam, he is now, greatly to our surprise, enjoying most excellent health.—(New England Washingtonian, Boston)

RHEUMATISM CURED.

JOHN BURNS, living at 262 N. Second Street, Philadelphia, had been several years afflicted with Rheumatic pains in various parts of the body.—During which time he tried various remedies, and used outward applications without number, and in all cases with no essential benefit—was finally induced to make trial of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, a single 25 cent box of which not only gave relief, but after using them a short time, drove every particle of pain from my body.

The above Pills are for sale in Kingston, by Chas. Brent, Princess Street, and Henry Martin, Market Square.
