County and District

Richard Trotter, one of Owen Sound's oldest citizens, died suddenly last week in his 88th year.

The expenses of Mr. Cleland in the North Grey election were $701.13; Mr. Boland's in Centre Grey were $125.40; Mr Lucas let loose $278.35.

Work has been commenced on the rebuilding of Clarksburg's bicycle rim factory.

Five hundred tons of coal sank five feet with Smith & Company's dock at Owen Sound. Fifty yards of C. P. R. track also settled.

Owen Sound, May 15.—(Special.)—Mr. Oliver Mowat, accountant of the branch of the Bank of Hamilton here, committed suicide by shooting himself yesterday. Mr. Mowat, who was forty-eight years of age and unmarried, had been a resident of Owen Sound for a number of years and was highly esteemed. He had an apoplectic fit some time ago and had to take a holiday; on resuming work a short time ago another seizure occurred, and it is thought that despondency was the cause of his taking his life. His accounts were perfectly correct, and he was highly esteemed by the authorities of the bank.

That monster of the deep, the sea serpent, has made its appearance in the neighborhood of Stokes Bay, and John Kent and Oliver Springstead have seen it. "It's as long as a telegraph pole and it roars like a bull" said one of them in describing it. They were working in that locality a few days ago when they heard a terrific roar which made every hair in their head point skyward. They investigated and in the marsh near Stokes Bay they saw the monster with its head six feet in the air and the extended mouth emitting bellowings which shook the ground, but John and Oliver didn't stop for further investigation, they breathed a silent prayer for safety and sought it as fast as possible.—Wiarton Canadian.

HARRISON VS. WARD.—This was an action brought by the executors of the estate of the late Alfred Ward, of Artemesia, to recover from R. J. Sproule of Flesherton, and Harriet Ward, widow of of the late Alfred Ward, possession of certain notes which executors claimed formed part of the estate, and which Mrs. Ward contended did not. The case was referred by Justice Mahon to Judge Creasor to find as referee the facts. Mrs. Ward endeavored to set up a will made subsequently to the one under which the executors were acting, but, after giving some evidence, withdrew it. She also delivered up certain of the notes, the judge assessing the damages for retention at $15. The case was argued about a month ago, and on Tuesday last Judge Creasor delivered judgement in favor of Sproule and Mrs. Ward. With reference to the Quigg notes which the late Mr. Ward had handed to Sproule during his lifetime for Mrs. Ward, His Honor found that at the time of the delivery of the notes to Sproule he became a trustee for Mrs. Ward, and that they were her property. On the counter claim which Mrs. Ward brought against executors for value of certain farm stock which she owned before she was married to Ward, and which he sold, the judge allowed her $516.—O. S. Times.

On Tuesday evg last week, Mr. John Kennedy of Tara took his life. Previous to coming to Tara he had been a farmer in Arran Tp He had been noticed acting strangely and when he went to the local druggists to purchase strychnine one druggist said he had none, and the other gave him a harmless powder. Mr. Kennedy took the powder home and getting a glass of water drank what he thought would end his life. The druggists notified the family and after this a very strict watch was kept over him. But those who are determined to take their lives are very hard to guard, and one of the sons who had been watching his insane father fell asleep about 3 a. m., and when he awoke an hour and a half later, he found his father had left the house and was hanging from a beam in the barn. Mr. Kennedy was buried in Tara cemetery last Wednesday.—Chesley Enterprise.

Heart Spasms

DR. AGNEW'S CURE FOR THE HEART A WONDERFUL LIFE-SAVER.

No organ in the human anatomy to-day whose diseases can be more readily detected than those of the heart—and medical discovery has made them amenable to proper treatment. If you have palpitation or fluttering, shortness of breath, weak or irregular pulse, swelling of feet or ankles, pain in the left side, fainting spells, dropsical tendency, any of these indicate heart disease. No matter of how long standing Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart will cure—it's a heart specific—acts quickly—acts surely—acts safely.

"I was given up to die by physicians and friends. One dose of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart gave me ease, and six bottles cured my case of fifteen year's standing. MRS. J. L. HELLER, Whitewood, N.W.T. 20
