A shocking story of cruelty to a number of boys comes to us from Greenock. It appears that seven boys were found hidden in a ship after she had put to sea, and if the statements of the crew can be trusted, the youths seem to have been shockingly ill-used during the greater portion of the voyage to Quebec. Six of them were left on ice-fields near Newfoundland, miserably clad and without food, and, though four of them were picked up in a wretched condition, two of them, it is believed, have perished. A searching investigation has been instituted.—Glasgow Herald.

Upper Canada College

WILL RE-ASSEMBLE ON

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 1st,

AT NINE O'CLOCK A.M.,

WHEN all Pupils, resident and non-resident, are particularly requested to be present. New Pupils will then be enrolled, and those who failed to pass the midsummer examination will be re-examined between 10 and 12:30 o'clock.

Additional facilities are now offered to those Pupils who do not desire a high classical training to join the English and Modern Departments, in which they are thoroughly prepared for Mercantile pursuits, and for the Civil and Military service.

A special class will also be formed adapted to the requirements of junior boys of from 7 to 8 years of age and upwards.

The fact that during the last six years "old College boys" have carried off three out of every four Scholarships offered at the Matriculation Examination of the University of Toronto, and a large proportion of those offered at Trinity College, is a sufficient guarantee that Scholarship has not declined.

Very material changes have been made in the internal arrangements of the boarding-house, to increase the comfort and secure the general well-being of the resident Pupils.

Every boarder is required to bring with him a certificate of good conduct from the master or tutor under whom he has been previously educated.

Tuition fee, $10 per term; tuition and board, including washing, seat in church, and ordinary medical attendance, $45.

The commencement of the next session on September 1st is the best time to enter College.

For prospectus, apply to the Principal, U. C. College, Toronto.

EASTERN NECROMANTIC ILLUSIONS

Performed on a narrow platform, and in the midst of the audience, who thus have an opportunity of personally testing the wondrous powers of the

who is pronounced by the press of Europe and the United States to be unrivalled in the black art.

Among the other wonders that will be exhibited,

THE GOBLIN DRUM

Is one of the most incomprehensible wonders of the 19th century.

A late Boston paper thus refers to it:—The Goblin Drum still excites the wonder of thousands, and although a hundred theories are started, the manner of its accomplishment still remains an unsolved mystery, and among countless wonderful things which the Professor accomplishes, it still remains the greatest wonder.

PROFESSOR HASELMAYER

will also have the honour of introducing, and perform a Solo on a new Musical Instrument,

THE STYLOCARFE,

(Invented by himself.)

The Performances will be varied each evening. Admission 25 cents; Reserved seats 50 cents; for sale at the City Book Store, King Street. Doors open at 7½. Commence at 8.
