THE AMERICAN HOUSE,
BOSTON.

THE AMERICAN HOUSE, BOSTON.

It has not very unusual to get improved accommodations in living for an advanced price, but some of our friends from the country, who visited this year's come by to stop at Brigham's, on Hanover street, will find on the spot more comforts and expenditure of which they little dreamed then, at the same price, if we are not mistaken. At any rate, they will get twenty-five per cent below the fashionable prices of the crack hotels, all that the art and a concourse of our day can realize. We were quite surprised on a visit to it yesterday, at the extent and perfection of the American House. It is hardly secondary to any hotel in the country, and may challenge comparison with the very first in the excellence of its arrangements for eating, sleeping, ventilation, and keeping cool in hot weather. It joys water, air, light and space, to a degree which we would hardly think possible so crowded a location in the heart of the city. Mr. Rice, the proprietor, is a practical hotel-keeper of long experience, and thoroughly at home in his business.

In the enlargement of his house he seems to have indulged the most liberal views, and to have neglected nothing that could contribute to the comfort and safety of his guests. His house occupies 112 feet on Hanover street, with wings reaching back from 250 to 260 feet towards Sudbury street, and including five acres of ground and ventilation, with wash rooms, bathrooms, lavatories, reading rooms, laundry, &c. &c. His two dining rooms, 80 and 90 feet in length, will seat 500 persons, and meals are served up in them at six or seven different hours in the day, to accommodate all tastes and habits. The dishes are so ordered as to secure great silence, and protection from the spread of fire, while five passenger and many minor staff cases provide egress in such a case, from all parts of the building. As an "friends the means of carriages, almost equalling the in front of Crete, and peeps into the richly furnished parlors, the laundries, and that grand laboratory the kitchen, he seems approaching the time when the splendid expectations of our Favorite friends will be realized.—[Boston Paper.

BRITANNIA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY,
No. 1, Princess Street Bank,
LONDON.

Capital, One Million.

Empowered by Special Act of Parliament 4th Vic. chap. 9.

The great success of this institution in Europe, and the numerous Policies issued by the different Agencies in Canada, evidently show that the advantages of Life Assurance are daily becoming more and more appreciated by those who feel the necessity of making some provision for their families, or securing the amount of debts due by or to them in case of premature death.

☞ The expense of advertising in a Daily Paper is very much greater than that of advertising in a Weekly one. Weekly Papers, however, are visited by parties in every locality, and it is not necessary to pay each individual a trifle extra for handing in an advertisement to be in time for the next day's publication, are generally expected to be sent in by 6 o'clock in the evening.

The rates of the Britannia are the lowest which can be offered consistently, with security to the Assured, and the Subscriber begs respectfully to invite the attention of the public to the numerous Tables of Rates, specimens of which may be seen at his office in Kingston.

The income of the Company, independently of the Large Subscribed Capital, is between Eighty and Ninety Thousand Pounds, Sterling, per Annum, and of this the greatest part is continually accumulating for the payment of losses.

A party effecting an Assurance with this Company, may do so for a fixed sum payable at his or her death, without participating in the profits, and thereby secure an immediate Bonus by not paying more than is absolutely required to provide for the risk—but if participation in Profits is preferred by any party, there are "Mutual Tables" adopted by the Company, which offer an Annual Division of the Profits, and which being supported by the other Branch of the Institution, hold out a very safe inducement to the person wishing to Assure.

All claims payable within three months after proof of death.

No proof of Birth is required at the time a claim is made; the Age of the Assured being in every case, admitted in the Policy, cannot, under any circumstances, be afterwards called in question.

Policies effected by Parties on their own lives are not rendered void in case of death by Duelling or the hands of Justice. In the event of suicide, if the Policy be assigned, to a bona fide Creditor, the sum assured will be paid without deduction; if the Policy be not assigned the full amount of Premiums received thereon will be returned to the family of the deceased.

The necessary forms, and every requisite information as to the mode of effecting Assurances, may be obtained either by letter or personal application to

THE CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY.

Incorporated by Act of Parliament.

THIS COMPANY is prepared to grant Assurances on Lives, whether single or joint, to sell Annuities, to purchase Reversions and to transact all business in which the risk of Life is concerned.

Tables have been expressly calculated from the most accurate data; and the Company is enabled, from its small expenditure, and the high rate of interest that money commands in Canada, to offer terms of Assurance much more reasonable than the low rate of interest attainable on investments by British Companies and their generally large expenditure can with any regard to safety admit of.

An exact statement of its receipts and expenditure is annually published by the Company and forwarded to all who may be interested.

Of no other Life Assurance Company can it be said that it invests all its funds in Canada, and that it does not consequently contribute to the immense sum of money which is yearly sent out of the Province to pay British or Foreign Companies for that. In short (and this is nearly a solitary instance) neither Great Britain nor the neighboring States can fairly offer competition.

To parties who may at any time feel disinclined or unable to continue the payment of their premiums, this Company will grant Policies, payable at death, fairly representative of the value of such payments as they may have been made, & further engages to purchase policies for an equitable consideration after five or more full premiums have been paid thereon.

Three-fourths of the profits realized in the Mutual Branch are yearly divided amongst the policy holders thus assured.

A peculiar feature of the Company is, that it is not desirous to make profits by legal Policies.

Tables of Rates, forms of proposal, and all other information may be obtained at the Head Office and Agencies.

BRITANNIA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY,
No. 1 Princes Street, Bank, London.
CAPITAL, ONE MILLION.
EMPOWERED BY SPECIAL ACT OF PARLIAMENT 4 Vic. Cap. 9.

THE great success of this Institution in Europe and the numerous Policies issued by the different Agencies in Canada, evidently show that the advantages of Life Assurance are daily becoming more and more appreciated by those who feel the necessity of making some provision for their families, or securing the amount of debts due by or to them in case of premature death. The rates of the Britannia are the lowest which can be offered consistently, with security to the Assured, and the subscriber begs respectfully to invite the attention of the inhabitants of Kingston to the numerous Tables of Rates, specimens of which may be seen at this office.

The income of the Company, independently of the large subscribed Capital, is between Eighty and Ninety Thousand Pounds, Sterling, per Annum, and of this the greatest part is continually accumulating for the payment of losses.

A party effecting an Assurance with this Company may do so for a fixed sum payable at his or her death, without participating in the profits, and thereby secure an immediate Bonus by not paying more than is absolutely required to provide for the risk—but if participation in profits is preferred by any party, there are "Mutual Tables" adopted by the Company, which offer an annual division of the Profits, and which being supported by the other Branch of the Institution, hold out a very safe inducement to the person wishing to assure.

All claims payable within three months after proof of death. No proof of birth is required at the time a claim is made; the age of the Assured being in every case, admitted in the Policy, cannot, under any circumstances, be afterwards called in question. Policies effected by parties on their own lives are not rendered void in case of death by duelling or the hands of justice. In the event of suicide, if the Policy be assigned to a bona fide creditor, the sum assured will be paid without deduction; if the Policy be not assigned, the full amount of Premiums received thereon will be returned to the family of the deceased.

The necessary forms, and every requisite information, as to the mode of effecting Assurances, may be obtained either by letter or personal application to
