From our own Correspondent

Mrs. James Madden of 8th line, Osprey, has recently died and the remains will be interred in the Catholic cemetery in Stayner Tuesday, Aug. 16th, she having been a resident on the farm on which she died for about 45 years. Friends and relations have the sympathy of the community.

School has started again and the children are very well suited with Mr. Reuben Jewitt, their respected teacher, but the boys think he is better now than he will be next week.

Mr. H. Perigo and wife have just returned home to Toronto after paying a visit to his brother, I. H. Perigo.

Mr. J. J. Cluff has been the guest of Mr. J. Griffin of this village for the past week.

Miss Minnie Rinnp has just got back to town after a visit to friends in Honeywood.

A number of the boys of this town wheeled out to Mr. W. Brewster's lake last Sunday to see the Mennonites immers-ing and they say they had a very enjoyable time.

Two young ladies of this town went out wheeling the other day and upon their arrival home reported Mr. Pedlar at Maxwell a very good blacksmith.

Miss Maud Whiteoak is visiting friends in Maple Valley at present.

One of our most prominent citizens undertook last week to baptise himself in the mill dam and had serious trouble getting out, but he helped to lay the dust going up the hill.

Things look very favorable as to having a good exhibition here this fall. Ground has been purchased and a new hall erected.

Osprey council met here Monday and the directors of the agricultural society waited upon them and received a grant of $25 to help pay expenses on the agricultural hall.

Stone's Settlement

From Our Own Correspondent

By some, the harvest is just about finished, while others will yet have to hustle to get through by the end of this month, or even later.

The long spell of dry weather was broken on Thursday night by a down pour of rain which raised the drooping spirits of those who were beginning to fear the poor prospects of their potato and turnip crops. Should the weather prove favorable for the rest of the harvest people in this section will have abundant cause to be thankful, as the crops had not been so good for many years.

Mr. Tom McArthur is experimenting this year on raising clover seed. We notice he has a considerable quantity to gather in yet. We hope the experiment will prove to be remunerative.

Mr Edward Purdy has about twelve acres of buckwheat, which has a beautiful appearance just now. Should the crop turn out well Ed. will have pancakes galore.

On Thursday evening last our young people's league took the form of a temperance entertainment. Mr. R. H. Humphreys of priceville occupied the chair and was an entertainment in himself, creating lots of mirth for the young folks by his quaint old Devonshire dialect and humor. Readings, recitations, etc., were admirably rendered by members of the League and all seemed to be well pleased with the entertainment.

The Misses Edna and Ida M. Stone left on Saturday to resume their duties at their respective schools near Owen Sound and Holland Centre.

After a rest of six weeks the iron tongue of our public school bell, on Monday morning announced the re opening of school, but we noticed that the pupils' respond was less jubilant than when the same iron tongue sent forth its jocund sound on the last day of June proclaiming a six weeks' holiday.

Jock canna mak oot wha's gaed wrang wi the reporter fra this pairt o the kintry, as he has na gied us muckle news o' late. Weel, Jock, ye ken as weel as I do mesel the simmer hae bin verra hot and dry, an reporters get dry, too, sometimes, and dry news is aboot as guid as no news at a'."

The campers at Wasaga Beach were furnished with a topic for conversation last week by what sensational papers would call the unique experience of Mr. R. E. Bingham's cow. On Tuesday young Mr. Douglas Gray started to lead the cow down to the Bingham camp at the river. They went via the town line and on the road they disagreed in some way, and the boy tied the cow to a tree in the bush and went on to the river. When search was made for the cow it could not be found. On Saturday it was discovered, still tied to the tree, by Ernest Ayers, who lives in the neighborhood. The animal had been for five days without food or water, but was brought around all right. —Stayner Sun.
