G. Beamish is wearing a discolored peeper and T. Lockhart a gash above the eye, the result of a collision. They were mounted on bicycles, pumping for all they were worth, going in opposite directions and it was dark; they saw each other just in time to swerve their wheels to the right—but their heads. Tom's was the hardest! Beamish was knocked senseless into the ditch. After imaginary stars had disappeared, they journeyed, each on his solitary way, thankful, like every true knight of the wheel, that it was their heads and not their wheels that were injured.—Herald.

It is not generally known that persons finding lost articles are legally bound to restore them to the owner if they know him. To hold them or to secrete them is under the new criminal code regarded as theft and punishable accordingly. A reward cannot successfully be demanded. If any trouble or expenses is necessarily incurred in connection with the found articles, such expense can be recovered. The newspaper is the proper medium by which to discover the owner and the finder is expected to advertise at once.

Heart Spasms

DR. AGNEW'S CURE FOR THE HEART A WONDERFUL LIFE-SAVER.

No organ in the human anatomy to-day whose diseases can be more readily detected than those of the heart—and medical discovery has made them amenable to proper treatment. If you have palpitation or fluttering, shortness of breath, weak or irregular pulse, swelling of feet or ankles, pain in the left side, fainting spells, dropsical tendency, any of these indicate heart disease. No matter of how long standing Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart will cure—it's a heart specific—acts quickly—acts surely—acts safely.

"I was given up to die by physicians and friends. One dose of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart gave me ease, and six bottles cured my case of fifteen year's standing. MRS. J. L. HELLER, Whitewood, N.W.T. 20
