East Grey fall fair is no fish, but it seems to have a-fin-ity for wet weather.

The Court of Appeal has decided that constables' votes are good, and now Mr. Hardy is wondering why he ever called that special session.

The want of a lockup has been seriously felt here recently and so soon as possible our township fathers should see that one is erected. Had there been such a building the disgraceful rows of fair day would have been quelled instanter, but no constable can be expected to act as a hitching post for disorderly individuals for a length of time. We want a strong room where the stimulated can unstimulate at their leisure, out of the hearing of ladies and out of harm's way. A cooler here would have a salutary effect for miles around after its pleasures once became known.

Priceville

From Our Own Correspondent

A very successful series of public meetings have been held in this community during the last two weeks in the interests of prohibition. The meeting in the O. D. R. school house on Wednesday evening of last week was very fairly attended. The speakers were the Revs. J. Matheson and J. S. Humphreys and Messrs. C. C. James and W. J. Blakeston. On Thursday night a very interesting meeting was held in McQuaig's school, at which addresses were given by Mr. Chas. Ramage and Rev. J. W. Kitching of Durham. On Sunday morning the Rev. J.S. Humphreys gave a clear cut presentation of affairs under the present license system. His text was taken from Acts VII, verse 1: "Are these things so"? In the afternoon of the same day the Rev. Mr. Jansen of Durham delivered a rousing and inspiring address on prohibition to a very large audience in the Baptist church. His text was an exceedingly appropriate one. "Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas or Jesus." The application is very obvious. To-day (Thursday) will decide the fate of this modern Barabbas, the liquor traffic. Last Monday evening an exceedingly interesting and enthusiastic meeting was held in Watson's hall. Admirable addresses in favor of prohibition were delivered by Messrs. Thos. Allan and Chas. Ramage of Durham. For the first time since the campaign opened in this vicinity the anti-prohibitionists had a champion on the platform in the person of Mr. Michael Riley. Mr. Riley's arguments were very shallow and untenable. In fact his whole speech was an argument in favor of prohibition, as was clearly shown by Mr. Ramage, who replied to Mr. Riley. However personally we admire Mr. Riley, in that he has the courage of convictions and is not afraid to express them on the public platform. Mr. C. C. James, president of the local executive, occupied the chair. The speeches were interspersed with appropriate music furnished by the choirs of the village.

Mrs. Cole and family of Toronto visited friends in this vicinity last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mathers attended the funeral last week of the latter's brother, Mr. Laidlaw of Bentinck.

Mr. Acheson is ill at present at the residence of his son-in law, C. C. Moore.

Maple Grove

From Our Own Correspondent.

Threshing is now the order of the day. The company machine of the Grove is making extra good progress and is fast nearing the west end with Sir Roger at the helm.

Mr. James Henry is laid up with blood poisoning in his hand, but under the skilled treatment of Dr. Boyle he is recovering.

We are sorry to state that Mr. John Campbell has been ailing for some time, but we hope soon to see him around.

Mrs. Shortred and her daughter, Mrs. D. Bell, of Galt, visited Mrs. McDonald and Mrs. Henry of the Grove on Sunday.

Mr. Dan Stewart is having his house veneered. The old saying is, "Have your cage ready before you bring home the bird," but we think the masons will have to hustle this time.

We believe that Maple Grove will give a substantial vote in favor of prohibition on the 29th inst., and we hope and believe that the Dominion as a whole will do the same. It is high time that the curse that has ruined so many homes in Canada shoul be abolished forever. Let every voter, old and young, who loves their home and country, mark their ballot YES on the 29th inst.

There was a fistic encounter last Monday night in Priceville between a gravel roader and a Groveite, our sid in under.

A number of our farmers have been sending their cream to the Durham creamery and churning is a thing of the past with them. Mr. D. Kennedy, jr., expresses himself as highly pleased with the monthly returns.

Mr. M. Henry intends leaving for Duluth shortly. He has bought out D. McNea's grocery business there.

We notice that the Grove bachelors, of whom there are not a few, all wear peacock feathers in their hats lately.

The fruit crop is abundant this year, still when a young lady carries a basket of apples half a mile to a young gentleman he is sure to relish them.

Wilson & Carson have purchased a new Cornell engine which they will substitute for the old horsepower.

Maxwell

From OurOwn Correspondent

[Intented for last week.]

Some of our boys got in a hurry in raising W. Clark's stable on Saturday evening and as a result three of their number came nearly being severely injured.

The first meeting of the plebiscite campaign was held here last Tuesday evening. Addresses were delivered by Major Campbell and Mr. Spencer of Collingwood. At the outset Major Campbell cleared away many cobwebs that have gathered around the question regarding personal liberty, showing that where this personal liberty conflicts with the interests of the country or state that liberty comes to an end. He showed also that the liquor traffic gave no adequate return for the millions spent in it and ended by urging all to go out and poll their votes for prohibition on Sept. 29.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church intend having their fowl supper on Friday evening, Sept. 30. Every preparation is being made for a good time.

The opening of the hunting season was saddened by a very painful accident which befel D, S. Corlett of Dornoch. While in the act of firing off an unused gun it burst, the powder burning his face severely and a splinter of the stock four inches long was driven into his cheek bone.

Mr. Jos. Robinson came home from Owen Sound last week, and in conversation with a Canadian representative says he does not believe the skeletons recently found on Griffith Island are those of his friends lost 30 years ago. Mr. Robinson is firmly of the opinion that his father and friends were drowned. His theory is that the skeletons are those of people who perished when the Jane Miller went down. He thinks some bodies were recovered from that wreck, robbed and buried on the island.—Echo.

A Trenton woman cured her husband of staying out late by going to the door when he came home and whispering through the keyhole, "Is that you Willie!" Her husband's name is John. He stays at home every night now, and sleeps with one eye open and a revolver under his pillow.
