A Question of Fertilizer

At the last Division Court held at Chatsworth W. F. Moore sued William Clark for $60 damages for taking possession of a quantity of pig manure under the following circumstances: Mr. Moore had leased a stable from Mrs. Downey on a farm for the purpose of fattening pigs. The farm land was leased to another person. Mr. Moore's tenancy expired on the first of May, 1920, but he had removed his hogs and not his manure some time before that date. In April Mr. Clark took possession of the farm land and the buildings and under the impression that a tenant could not remove the manure from a leased farm he spread some fifteen loads of manure on the land. For this Mr. Moore sued. At the trial Mr. Henry, on behalf of Mr. Clark, contended that a tenant could not remove manure and that it must remain on the land. Mr. Tucker, for the plaintiff, argued that this was not a lease of farm land, but of the farm buildings, and that in any event the tenant of a farm could not be forced to leave the manure on the land premises unless there was a condition in the lease proving that that should be done. Judge Sutherland has now given judgment for the plaintiff for $60 and costs, and he holds that in the absence of a lease compelling Mr. Moore to leave the manure on the premises, it was Mr. Moore's manure and he had a right to remove it.

Ordination Service

Replying to the request of Rockvale, Ceylon and Flesherton Baptist churches, the churches of Owen Sound Association sent representatives to Flesherton to consider the ordaining of their pastor, George G. Upham, to the work of the Gospel ministry. The Association was wlle represented.

Rev. Wm. McDonald of Owen Sound and Pastor Emmons of Wiarton were appointed Moderator and Clerk respectively. The Council was formed, being accepted by the churches calling it, and proceeded in its examination of the candidate. Mr. Upham narrated his christian experience, told why he believed himself to be called of God to the ministry, and stated his views of Christian doctrine. He gave the Council a statement that revealed a deep and personal christian experience, that left no doubt as to his being called of God to the Christian ministry, and his statement of Christian doctrine made perfectly clear his beliefs. The Council unanimously decided to fellowship Pastor Upham in his christian experience, his call to the ministry and his views of christian doctrine, and to proceed with the ordination.

Rev. McDonald led the devotional exercises, and conducted the ordination service at the evening session. Mr. Scoffield of Leith offered the ordination prayer as the candidate's brethren laid their hands upon his head. The charge to the candidate was given by Pastor Emmons Rev. Bowman of Keady extended the right hand of fellowship, and Rev. Aird gave the charge to the church. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. George G. Upham.

Newspaper Suspensions

The Free Press, Forest, Ontario, refers to the passing out, because of increased costs within the last few years, of eight of the fifteen newspapers published in Lambton County. This will be regretted by those who know country life in Canada. A rural weekly and small city daily is more of a public institution than a money making enterprise. There are few editors of rural and smaller daily papers who are not underpaid, self sacrificing public servants. They give more to than they get from their communities, and when they are leaders, as so many are, commanding respect and confidence, their papers are a great power. The Financial Post is in cordial sympathy with the action of Parliament in continuing to—in spite of the opposition of the big city dailies for whom R. L. Richardson, M. P., spoke—to transport rural weeklies free of charge in their local districts. Another phase of good work these local papers do is to keep those who go out into the world, to the big centres and foreign parts, in touch with their old homes. For that reason we would also favor carrying copies of rural papers going to these subscribers free of postage. This is really a great national service, a good investment for the country. There are few men or women who do not hope to go back to and do something for the old home. If the world treats them well they want to share the good things with the schools, churches and institutions in their old homes. Many of them do. These generous thoughts can be best retained by keeping them constantly in touch with the doings at home. There is only one way—the local newspaper. No matter how busy we are we make time to read that, if it comes to us. At one time these papers were carried free to any subscriber in Canada or in the United States, but Dr Coulter dropped this very soon after his advent to the Deputy Postmaster Generalship. It was a very serious mistake. Thousands of Canadians were cut off who have never since regained touch.

We submit these facts to Parliament with the suggestion that they, the M.P's, seriously consider whether—as a good business proposition—we should not permit these rural weekly and smaller dailies an unlimited free postal area. The investment will be trifling and the return to the nation very profitable.—Financial Post.
