From Our Own Correspondent

The concert given by the S. O. S. in Watson's Hall on Wednesday evening of last week was a great success. The committee were exceedingly fortunate in their choice of the date, as both the roads and the weather were all that could be desired. The program was a lengthy one, but so interesting that the audience forgot almost the existence of old Father Time. The chair was occupied by Mr. John McArthur in his usual urbane manner. The first number on the program was an inspiriting martial selection on the bag-pipes by Prof. Murray, of Toronto, who was dressed in a fine Highland costume. The Rev. J. Matheson then gave a short address, after which Mrs. Helen Wright, of Markdale, sang "Highland Laddie." Prof. Murray then gave an exhibition of Highland dancing, and Miss Jessie Marks, of Toronto, "Bonnie Prince Charlie," which was loudly encored. Miss Marks responded by singing "The Land o' the Leal." The next "item" was a Gaelic speech by Mr. Dugald McLean. "No man is a true 'Hielandman' unless he can 'spoke the Gaelic.' Parents should teach their children the grand old language, which it is to be hoped will never die out." Some lively music from Piper Murray appropriately followed the address, after which Mrs. Wright sang, "Will He no' Come Back Again." Prof. Murray then executed the sword dance in true Scotch style. Miss Marks sang the fine old Scotch song, "There is nae luck aboot the hoose," brought down the "hoose," and as a result Miss Marks sang "I'm o'er young to marry yet." Mrs. H. Wright sang "Comin' thro' the Rye" as only she can sing it, and by way of encore gave "Ye banks and braes of bonnie Doon." "Buy my cauller herrin'," by Miss Marks, called up many bygone memories and scenes in the minds of the old Scotchmen present. The Rev. J. Buchanan, of Dundalk, gave a grand, solid, sensible, inspiring address on Scotland and Scotchmen, which was loudly applauded Mrs. H. Wright sang "Polly! the cows are in the corn," in such a realistic manner that one almost could see the farm house, the mill, the lane and the grain field dotted over with thieving cows "Hustle and I'll cae ye my lad," and "The bonnie banks of Loch Lomond, were well rendered by Miss Marks. Mrs. Wright sang a beautiful old Scotch melody entitled "Bide a wee." The program was brought to a close by Miss Marks singing "Auld Lang Syne," and the audience, "God Save the Queen." The accompanist was Miss Lucas of Markdale, whose skilful and artistic playing added very materially to the enjoyment of the songs. Mr. H. McDonald of Priceville also took part in playing the pipes.

The lecture on the Boers by Major Schoof in the Methodist church last Friday evening was exceedingly entertaining and instructive The Major gave a thrilling exhibition of sword exercise which alone was worth the price of admission. Notwithstanding the small entrance fee charged $20 was realized. The Major also gave his lecture at the Ebenezer appointment and was enthusiastically received.

Last Friday afternoon the pupils of our public school entertained their friends for an hour or two with singing, dialogues and recitations. Short addresses were also given by Rev. J. S. Humphreys, Major Schoof and Rev. J. Matheson, B A. At the close of the school the pupils of the school gave Miss Derby a very nice present as a token of their appreciation of her work among them during the last three years. Miss Derby is engaged as first assistant in Elmvale public school.

Quite a number of our residents spent Friday in Flesherton attending the nomination. The municipal pot is only simmering in this community.

One day a short time ago Mr. George Tryon missed his dog, and there was great sorrow among the little folks. Two days went by and the missing pup did not put in an appearance and so it was decided that he was gone for good. However, on the third day Mr. Tryon was working around the strawstack, when lo! he came upon the canine, alive and well, under a big heap of straw which the wind had blown on top of him.

Mr. D. McAulay, who has been in the employ of Mr. J. D. Brown for some time, left last Tuesday for Vancouver, where he has secured a good position. We are very sorry that Mr. McAulay is leaving, as he has always taken a deep interest in C. E. and S.S. work and so will be very much missed. However, we wish him prosperity in his far-away home.

Messrs. Walter Nichol and John McLeod of Toronto university are home for the Xmas holidays.

Miss Annie Hogarth, who is attending Oshawa Collegiate Institute, is spending holidays with her parents.

Miss Jennie James of Cumnoch and Miss Alice Ross of Mimico, also ate their Christmas pudding at home.

Mr. James R. Atkinson, who is attending the dental college at Toronto, is home for his holidays.

Mr. Lorne Hogarth is spending a few weeks at home after putting in a faithful season's work in the township of Whitby.

Stone's Settlement.

Compliments of season to Ye Editor and readers of the Advance, hoping the last year of this 19th century will find subscription list of our spicy local trebled and paid up.

This ward has been so ably represented the past year by Councillor Muir, that a change is deemed unnecessary and inadvisable.

Mrs. Wm. Stone attained the ripe old age of 86 on Christmas day. She has been a resident on this line nearly 46 years. The unremitting attention of her son and daughter adds materially to the old lady's comfort and we sincerely hope that under their care, she may be spared to see a few more anniversaries of her birthday.

Miss Jane Lyness returned home from Adjala last week bringing with her Master Robbie Speers, who has been visiting friends in that section.

Miss Ida M Stone is home for the festive season.

Miss McLeod who has been engaged for the past four and a half years as teacher in our Public School, severed her connection last week and was presented by her pupils with a handsome gold ring and watch chain in recognition of past service An appropriate valedictory accompanied the presentation.

Thanks are due to some of our energetic ladies for treating the children of this section to a Xmas tree and entertainment in the old school house on Xmas evening.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Beattie still continues in a very delicate state of health. Mrs. R. Whittaker has also been very ill but is now improving.

Notwithstanding the depressing news from the seat of war, the "old soldier" has never lost confidence in Tommy Atkins. He says Wee Bobs and the Sirdar will pluck every bristle out of old Kruger before they have done with him.

Mrs. Geo. Strangways of Elora spent Xmas with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Stone.

TIME IS LIFE
The father? Gone for the doctor. The mother? Alone with her suffering child. Will the doctor never come? When there is croup in the house you can't get the doctor quick enough. It's too dangerous to wait. Don't make such a mistake again; it may cost a life. Always keep on hand a dollar bottle of
Ayer's Cherry Pectoral
It cures the croup at once. Then when any one in the family comes down with a hard cold or cough a few doses of the Pectoral will cut short the attack at once. A 25 cent bottle will cure a miserable cold; the 50c. size is better for a cold that has been hanging on.
Keep the dollar size on hand.
"About 25 years ago I came near dying with consumption, but was cured with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, since which time I have kept Ayer's medicines in the house and recommend them to all my friends."
C. D. MATHEWSON,
