IT is just as important to take an inventory of one's self as it is of one's business.

Ask yourself this question "If during the next five years I save the same amount I already have put by, how much will I be worth in 1925?"

The Christmas advertising of our merchants is not the most uninteresting part of the reading matter in this paper at the present time, because prices are on the down grade at last for most essentials and our business men are making the public acquainted with the fact. A large number of new advertisements are placed in this issue. Read them over.

Durham got their hard coal this year, and lots of it, at $15 to $16.50 a ton, Owen Sound $17 and $17.50, while Flesherton paid $22.25 ! Now, why this disparity of prices all over the country ? Our coal was purchased direct from the mines and delivered direct from the car to the consumer, yet we paid from $5 to $8 a ton more than some of these other fellows. We are now out gunning for an explanation, and other towns treated as we were are out on the same quest. There is no answer as yet.

During the recent high price of sugar a Toronto wholesale firm bought sugar from the refinery at $12.10 per hundredweight and sold it to the retail trade at $19.11 per hundredweight. Seven dollars profit on 100 pounds was straight robbery of the public. There is no other word for it. That wholesale grocery firm ought to be punished in some manner for the holdup they engineered.

Mr. Wm. Inkster of Wareham will, with his family, become a citizen of Flesherton about the first of the new year. He is a bee man and will run an apiary on the outskirts of the town, the property he bought from Mr. McLean being peculiarly adapted to such an industry. Mr. Inkster and his estimable family will receive a hearty welcome by the townspeople.

About sixty members of the Guild and congregation of the Presbyterian church here visited the Markdale Guild on Monday evening of this week. A very interesting evening was spent with the Markdale people, who put on a good program including a debate and refreshments. Mr. Walden of movie fame also put on a reel of films for the edification of all. The Flesherton young people are enthusiastic over their reception and the excellence of the evening's entertainment.

Mr. Price, who left Paisley three months ago for Russia to bring his wife and family to Paisley, arrived there with them the other day direct from that lawless and war torn country. He was forced to pay $1500 in Canadian money to the Red government in order to release his son from further military service. He also states that on several occasions he was held up on the streets by Russian officers who demanded his money on the point of a gun. The only thing that saved him from being robbed or executed by the brigands was, he says, his Canadian passport. Every time he showed his passport from the Canadian government the officers released him. Mr. Price told of terrible atrocities committed near his home, but his family escaped. He brought a sample of the bread now used in Russia, and actually a starving dog wouldn't touch it. He presented it to Dan McKenzie, editor of the Advocate, who says that even the mice around a printing plant would not eat the bread.

The Strength of the Farmer

Recent events have clearly demonstrated the power of organized agriculture. Are you doing your bit ? Are you reading The Farmer's Sun, the organ of the Ontario farmer ? No other publication fights the farmers' cause with the same vigor. No other paper offers its readers as great value individually or as business farmers. Its market reports are worth many times the subscription price. The twice a week service of the Farmers' Sun costs more than twice the subscription price of $1.50. Are you doing your bit to strengthen the movement ? The most effective way to do this is by reading the Farmers' Sun and by getting your neighbors to subscribe. The greater the Sun's circulation the greater the growth of the movement. The strength of the movement is what you make it. Let all help and the proper time is now. Send your subscription, only $1 50, twice a week, one year. The Farmers' Sun, Toronto.
