THE DAILY NEWS

THE CHRONICLE & NEWS

ORANGEMEN,

ORANGE CERTIFICATES,

the Daily News Office.

Mr Blake said the Confederation act provided that our bills should be subject to the assent of the Governor General, or to be reserved for the assent of Her Majesty. The Executive power, under the Confederation act, rested in the Queen, and another section provided that the government should be exercised, in the Dominion, by the Governor General, in the name of the Queen. Then there was to be one Parliament in Canada, consisting of the Queen, or the Governor General, the Senate, and the House of Commons. Bills presented to the Governor General were to be assented to by him in the Queen's name, or he was to withhold her assent absolutely, or he was to reserve it for her own assent.

Sir Henry Smith. Did his honourable friend consider that the Governor General, withholding his assent, was tantamount to rejecting it?

Mr Blake had no doubt of it. Section 90 of the Confederation Act provided that the Queen by and with the consent of both Houses could make laws, &c. That was an old form derived from times when a monarchical authority was much more important than at the present day. The 58th section stated the Province at once follows: For each Governor was appointed by the Governor General in Council, therefore he was not a legislative officer, but a Canadian. He held office at the pleasure of the Governor General. The executive council was to be composed of such officers as might be named. The Ontario Legislature was composed of the Lieut. Governor, and the Legislative Assembly. The 92nd section stated that it was the Legislature which could exclusively make the laws. The provisions for the mode of assent were as follows: Within one year (when, it was the 4th and last year of the present measure could be) a public Canadian gentleman read the clauses of the Confederation Act which appeared to contain his view, and then continued: If this were so, could we pass a law in the name of Her Majesty, which might be disallowed by the Governor General within one year? I could not be so. It might have derogated to our dignity if we had assumed the pretension of making the Queen, but it did not do so. The Queen's powers than [illegible] Her Majesty's assent under the Governor General, for his assent to the Queen.

Mr Macdonald had anything to do with the insertion of Act, he would have all the clauses with the substitution of the Governor General for Her Majesty. The Governors are under the Queen's name. The legislatures of the Provinces. The government therefore had to the conclusion that Her Majesty's name ought always to be used in the enacting clauses of a bill. The Queen cannot be Legislature, there could be [illegible] and if so, why should [illegible] in her name. He did not say [illegible] who their bills were directly to be presented to the Governor General and not sent to the Secretary of State to be passed upon by Her Majesty. It was not likely they would like to be troubled with appeals from a Provincial Legislature when the supreme government of the Dominion was to be referred to. But that was no reason why Her Majesty's name should be excluded from the bills passed, and he thought it better for both to act on the right side than on the wrong side.

Sir Henry Smith said there should be no party question in this matter. It ought to be discussed gravely and seriously. The very form of [illegible] being in effect placed the government and the House in a very embarrassing position, but much more so the country. Supposing they were not authorized to use the name of the Queen in their legislation, what would be the consequence? A pretty set of fellows you are, would the country in Ottawa, when with the confederation act before you, you overstepped its limits, and we shall now have to declare your legislation invalid.

Mr Blake shared in the natural and proper anxiety of members of the government and members of the House that the Queen's name should appear on their acts. But if it should turn out that they were wrong, in what a humiliating position would they be? But really was the case that they had no right to use the formula "Her Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts," &c., how would they be looked upon and how would they feel? He thought the preamble of this bill ought to read "The Legislature of Ontario by and with the consent of the Governor General" &c. This would save everything, it would save the Legislature instead of dignifying the sacred name of the Queen, running the risk of bringing it into contempt.

The Attorney-General would not admit for one moment the proposition they they were wrong in using the Queen's name. It was under her authority they were called together; it was by her authority they legislated for the welfare of her subjects. Acts had already been passed in her Majesty's name, communicated to the government of the Dominion, and they certainly had not been disallowed, nor had they been returned with instructions that we were not to use her Majesty's name. As to the clause objected to he (the Attorney General) had altered it so that it would now read as follows:

"The Clerk of the Legislative Assembly shall endorse on every Act of the Legislature of Ontario, immediately after the title of such Act, the day, month and year when the same was by the Lieutenant Governor assented to in the Governor-General's name, or reserved by him for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon,—and in the latter case, the clerk of the Legislative Assembly shall also endorse thereon the day, month and year when the Governor General has signified either by speech or message to the Legislative Assembly, or by Proclamation, that the same was laid before Her Majesty in Council, and that Her Majesty was pleased to assent to the same."

Mr Lauder said that if the arguments of the member for South Bruce were to prevail the Legislature of Ontario would at once be reduced to the level of a petty municipal assembly. As far as he understood it, the Queen was always supposed to be present in this House, but what they had lately been told, ought to do away with that idea altogether. The Governor-General was the representative of Her Majesty, and through his delegation the Lieutenant-Governor also represented the Queen. He sat in her name, and he assented or refused to confirm acts in her name. The argument that had been brought forward was as novel to him, as it was unexpected. The knowledge of it appeared to have been confined to those who wanted to make a great deal out of very little, who would object to the Queen's name being used in the Acts of the Legislature. Would it be the Queen herself, the Governor General, the Dominion Parliament or the Courts of Justice? None of them. Supposing such an objection was to be taken in the courts, would it be sustained? Assuredly not. The Lieutenant Governor in giving his assent to acts in the name of the Governor General, by the ordinary action of Parliament, did so in the name of the Queen herself. This question was not to be disposed of by airing our loyalty, or pretending it was brought up so as to be certain we were not assuming rights that were not our own. He held we were in the same position as the House of Commons, and that they were precisely the creation of this act as we are. We ought not to be moved a step farther from the prerogative than they. He hoped the hon. member for South Bruce, with his acknowledged keenness and sagacity, turn his acute mind another way, and declare that it was legal right and proper we should stamp on our Acts of Parliament the force and authority of the Queen's name. (Hear, hear.)

The committee rose, and without reporting progress, the House adjourned till to-morrow.

CAUTION.

THE perfection and cheapness of the American (Waltham) watch have given it such a world-wide celebrity that unscrupulous dealers years ago imitated its style and pirated its trade marks. Irresponsible dealers are occasionally found who fraudulently trade upon the popularity of the American watch by selling a base imitation under the name of the genuine article.

It is hardly necessary to state that such watches are worthless as time keepers, and when bought for the genuine are calculated to injure the high reputation for which our watches have attained. The several grades of the American watch (except the lowest grade marked Home Watch Co.) are guaranteed by special certificate bearing the number of the watch and the signature of the Treasurer of the Company, R. E. Robbins. The purchaser should in all cases require one of these certificates, which is furnished to all dealers in the genuine watches.

The following are the trade marks on the several grades of our manufacture:—

AMERICAN WATCH CO.
APPLETON, TRACY & CO.
WALTHAM WATCH CO.
P. S. BARTLETT.
WM. ELLERY.
HOME WATCH CO.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD CO.

Office of the General Superintendent, Altoona, Pa., 15th Dec., 1866.

GENTLEMEN—The watches manufactured by you have been in use on this Railroad for several years by our engine men, to whom we furnish watches as part of our equipment. There are some THREE HUNDRED OF THEM CARRIED ON OUR LINE, and we consider them GOOD and RELIABLE TIME-KEEPERS. Indeed I have great satisfaction in saying YOUR WATCHES GIVE US LESS TROUBLE and have worn and do wear much longer without repair than any watches we have ever had in use on this road. As you are aware we formerly resorted to those of English manufacture, of acknowledged good reputation, but as a class they do not keep time as correctly, nor have they done as good service as yours.

I make these statements I am sustained by my predecessor, Mr L. who, whose experience extended over a series of years.

Respectfully,
EDWARD H. WILLIAMS,
General Superintendent.

American Watch Co., Waltham.

NEW YORK CENTRAL RAILROAD.

Locomotive Dep't Western Division, Rochester, Dec. 24, 1866.

GENTLEMEN—I have no hesitation in saying that I believe the great majority of locomotive engineers have found by experience that WALTHAM WATCHES ARE THE MOST SATISFACTORY of any for their uses. They RUN WITH THE GREATEST ACCURACY AND STEADINESS, notwithstanding the roughriding of an engine; and as I have NEVER KNOWN ONE TO WEAR OUT, they must be durable. I hope to see the time when railway companies will generally adopt your watches, and furnish them to all engineers and conductors. In my opinion it would greatly tend to promote regularity and safety.

Yours respectfully,
CHARLES WILSON,
G. Chief Engineer,
Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

BRITISH AMERICAN Commercial College

PUBLIC TESTIMONY.

(From Lyman & McNab, Wholesale Hardware Merchants.)

Toronto, Sept. 13, 1866.

Messrs MUSGROVE & WRIGHT,

B. A. Com. College, Toronto.

Dear Sirs,—We have much pleasure in testifying to the order of training for commercial pursuits obtained by the young men educated at your College.

We have now in our employment one of your graduates who, notwithstanding the fact that he never had any previous experience, has proved himself a most reliable, accurate, and efficient Book-keeper.

We may further state, that having had occasion to engage another office hand we gave a decided preference to one of your graduates. In short, we have no hesitation in saying, that as far as our experience goes, your course of training is eminently adapted to make a thoroughly efficient office man.

Yours truly,
LYMAN & MACNAB.

Messrs MUSGROVE & WRIGHT,

B. A. Com. College, Toronto.

Dear Sirs,—We can eminently recommend your establishment to the business public, from which to select their Book-keepers. The young man in our employ bears testimony to the efficient system taught in your College, and the accurate habits derived therefrom, and though different houses pursue different methods, yet the general principles, rules, and varieties of commerce are so thoroughly inculcated by your system of tuition as to render the knowledge applicable to each new feature in each peculiar system.

Your efforts are worthy of every appreciation in founding a sound Commercial Emporium of the intelligent youth of Canada, and though occasionally students fail to become proficient, it can only be attributed to lack of ability on the student's part, and not the incapacity of the tutor. We shall ever give and advise preference to your pupils for an office, and feel glad to thus attest our experience of the same.

We remain, Gentlemen, yours, &c.,

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

THE GREATEST REMEDIES FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE Liver, Stomach, or Digestive Organs.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juice (or, as they are medicinally termed Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

Hoofland's German Bitters

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

Hoofland's German Tonic.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to become deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and the Great Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations possesses true merit, is skilfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for it self a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

Hoofland's German Bitters,
AND
Hoofland's German Tonic

PREPARED BY Dr. C. M. JACKSON,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,

Resulting from any Cause whatever

PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone of vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC an elixir that will instill new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the Tonic, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulate in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

Testimonials.

HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:

Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.

"I find Hoofland's German Bitters is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours truly,

GEO. W. WOODWARD."

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, April 28th, 1866.

"I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion for Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience in it. Yours, with respect.

JAMES JOHNSTON."

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.
Pastor to the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I declined; but with various instances in my own family, and particularly of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.

FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL,
Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philada.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.

Yours truly,
E. D. FENDALL.
