On Saturday morning last Charles Mason of Shelburne, who has been confined to his room with a severe cold, attempted an alcoholic bath to induce perspiration. After the spirits had been lighted Mrs. Mason wrapped blankets about him and in some way they came in contact with the flame. The result was the instant invelopement of the patient in flames. With great bravery Mrs. Mason fought the fire and finally extinguished it, but not before Mr. Mason had been most shockingly burned about the limbs and body. Dr. Rolstin was summoned and dressed the wounds, and until Monday could not hope for the patient's recovery. Since then an improvement has taken place. Miss Anderson of Camilla, a trained nurse, is in attendance, and, barring complications, Mr. Mason's recovery will ensue, though a long period of suffering must intervene. In the meantime the heartfelt sympathy of the community goes out to him, who for many years has been prominent in business and municipal affairs.—Free Press.

Crouching

In every cough there lurks, like a crouching tiger, the probabilities of consumption. The throat and lungs become rough and inflamed from coughing and the germs of consumption find an easy entrance. Take no chances with the dangerous foe. For 60 years there has been a perfect cure. What a record! Sixty years of cures.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

soothes and heals the wounded throat and lungs. You escape an attack of consumption with all its terrible suffering and uncertain results.
There is nothing so bad for the throat and lungs as coughing.
A 25c. bottle will cure an ordinary cough; harder coughs will need a 50c. size; the dollar bottle is cheapest in the long run.
"One of my sons was spitting blood with a high fever and was very ill. We could hardly see any signs of life in him. The doctor did him no good. But one bottle of your Cherry Pectoral cured him and saved his life." C. G. ANDERSON, Nov. 15, 1896. Pulaski, Va. Dak.

Markdale

Our streets present a very busy aspect at present. The farmers are taking advantage of the little snow that's left and logs, wood, grain and pork, are coming in from all sides. We counted the loads coming just the one way and in three hours, from 9 o'clock till 12, there was seventy-four loads passed towards the station.
The Presbyterians are going to give their church a general overhauling as soon as the weather permits by expending about three hundred dollars on it. This was the decision the committee arrived at on Tuesday night, the 13th inst.

The patriotic wave which has swept over this fair Dominion of ours has not omitted Markdale. A subscription list has been started, and all wishing to donate anything towards the relief of the suffering soldiers and those dependent upon them may do so by calling at the Merchant's Bank in town. The program, which is to be given by home talent, will be patriotic and interesting throughout Mr. I. B. Lucas, M. P. P., will give a patriotic address Let this concert be a grand success, and we can make its so by our presence.

Feversham

From Our Own Correspondent.

Well, Mr. Editor, as a good deal of time has passed since you have heard from me I thought I would fill a short space in your columns this week.
Early last Sunday morning one of our young gentlemen while returning from—of course we all know what—noticed that Mr. Rob. Brown's blacksmithshop was on fire inside. Alarm was given at once, and the fire was soon under control
