Port Law

From Our Own Correspondent

This community received a shock on Thursday last when a telegram from Toronto brought the sad intelligence that Miss Esther McNally, formerly of this place, had died there from heart trouble. Deceased had been in delicate health for a considerable length of time but nothing serious was anticipated until within a short time of her decease. For some years she engaged in school teaching and was very much respected. The body was brought up on Friday for interment and the funeral took place on Saturday forenoon from the residence of her brother, W. H. McNally, to Flesherton cemetery

Mrs. Sheier is very ill at present, but we hope that Dr. Scott's skilful treatment may be successful in restoring her to good health.

Mrs. John Gamey's condition continues to give her friends serious apprehension.

Mrs. Frances Arnott who has been sick for the past too weeks, is, we are glad to report, recovering

Mr. John McKechnie held a successful sale of his farm stock and implements on Saturday. Mr. M. is giving up farming and will remove to Toronto.

Mr and Mrs. Jno. Cathcart and family of Durham County have been visiting the past week with Mrs. C's sister, Mrs McKenzie.

One of Mr. Beaton's timber gangs has been operating in this neighborhood for some weeks past, and timber that a few years ago was rejected is now taken at good prices.

Markdale

A scene of the wildest enthusiasm pervaded our town on Wednesday last when the news was flashed along the wires that Ladysmith had been relieved. In less than ten minntes after the message arrived heze the whole town was in a state of wildest excitement. Bells were ringing on all sides, whistles were screeching and men, women and children shouting Bunting was displayed from every window. The school children paraded the streets, headed by "The soldiers of the Queen" shouting and singing. At night there was a parade of those who could not do so in the afternoon, headed by a torchlight procession and the citizens' band, thus indicating to a certain degree the unity of love that exists between all British subjects. But while there is cause for great jubilation, yet there is also the sad side when we reflect on the sorrowing homes and hearts of those who had dear ones shot down in the battle. God save the Queen!

Roch Marien purchased eighteen fine looking horses here on Wednesday last.

Mr. James Morwood was united in marriage to Mrs. Taylor, sister of Mr. Thomas Mathews, on Wednesday evening, 21st inst, at the residence of Mr. Thos. Mathews. The groom is in the seventies and the bride—well, we won't say.

Mr. C. W. Littlejohns of the suburbs has of late been very attentive to his Bible, and being somewhat particular as to the style of binding and general get up of his copy it was found impossible to suit his fastidious tastes in Markdale, so he took a special trip to Toronto and secured one to his taste.

Married—At Toronto, on Wednesday, 21st inst., Mr. C. W. Littlejohns of Markdale to Miss Bible of Toronto.

Mr. Seymour Campbell, Mr. Plewes' miller, was united in marriage with a young lady of Walters Falls on Wednesday, Feb 21. We did not learn the lady's name.

The patriotic concert given in Marsh's Hall on Monday evening was a sweeping success. The large building was taxed to its utmost and standing room was at a premium, thus evidencing the loyal spirit that pervades the hearts of all true Britons. We may differ in politics and religion, but when it comes to showing our appreciation of the British flag we then stand shoulder to shoulder as was proven on Monday night. On the platform were the Revs. Mr. Newell, English church clergyman; Father Hauck, Catholic clergyman; Mr. Buchanan, Methodist, and Mr. Hunter, Presbyterian, all of whom gave five-minute speeches. The hall was tastefully decorated with bunting and flags. The platform presented a very military appearance, there being a cannon and several guns, the bayonets of which glistened in the light of the electric lamps. Two of the redcoats stood on sentry duty throughout the evening. The program was very entertaining throughout, which was evidenced by the hearty encores given each performer as they rendered their several parts. I dare not make any special mention of any performer for each did themselves credit and the applause was loud and prolonged. The entertainment was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem, Proceeds $116.

A very interesting paper on the topic was read by Mr. Blakeston, which contained some very good and practical points. The choir rendered some very fine selections which added much to the Evening's enjoyment Our League appreciated our sister League's visit and hope to have them come again.

A most enjoyable evening was spent by the members of L. O. L. No. 883 and their wives on Thursday evening last, in response to an invitation from Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Ashdown to spend a social evening at their home. About forty-five guests sat down to tea, where everything was found to please the inner man. After tea, parlor games and music were indulged in, the latter being supplied by Mr. A. Parks of Proton. Messrs. Ashdown and Smith gave several vocal selections, also Mr. Chas. Doupe, all of which received hearty enchores. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.
