In Memoriam

Lines written and adapted upon the death of the late Mrs. John Buskin, who died Feb. 9, 1900, by Thos. and Alice Bentham.

Raise my pillow husband, dearest,
Faint and fainter comes my breath,
And these shadows stealing slowly
Must, I know, be those of death.
Sit down close beside me, darling,
Let me clasp your warm, strong hand—
Yours that ever has sustained me
To the borders of this land.

For your God and mine—our Father—
Thence shall ever lead me on
Where, upon a throne eternal,
Sits his own and only Son.
I've had visions and been dreaming
O'er the past of joy and pain;
Year by year I've wandered backward
Till I was a child again.

Dreams of girlhood, and the moment
When I stood your wife and bride.
How my heart thrilled with love's triumph
For that hour of woman's pride—
Dreamers of thee and all the earth cords
Firmly twined around my heart.
Oh, the bitter, burning anguish
When first I knew that we must part!

It has passed and God has promised
All thy footsteps to attend.
He that's more than friend or brother
Will be with thee to the end.
I have prayed to him to leave me
If it's meet that I should stay,
But if 'tis His will to call me
Gladly I'll that call obey.

There's no shadow over the portals
Leading to my heavenly home,
Christ has promised life immortal
And 'tis He that bids me come.
I have seen a light from heaven
And a beauteous, shining star,
Foretaste of the glory waiting
Just beyond the harbor bar.

Tell our daughters—God protect them
Left without a mother's care—
To lay all their cares and sorrows
At the feet of Christ in prayer.
Yes, I do not wish to tarry;
This cold earth is not our home;
I will meet you all in heaven—
Farewell, let thy will be done.

Tell our children of me often,
Try a mother's place to take,
Lead them gently in God's pathway,
Love them doubly for my sake.
Fare thee well my noble husband,
Faint not neath the chastening rod,
Throw thy strong arm round our children,
Keep them close to thee and God.

Priceville

From Our Own Correspondent

A WEDDING—A very pretty wedding took place at the Pomona R. C. church on Monday forenoon of this week, when Miss Kate Kelly of Priceville and Mr. M. Henry of Maple Grove were married. The bride wore a very handsome costume of fawn-colored cloth. Her bridesmaid was Miss Flynn of Toronto. Rev. Father Hauck of Markdale officiated. Mr. Chas. Ryan of Irish Lake was the groomsman. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to Mr. and Mrs. P. Bolger's of the Crown hotel, where about twenty-five married couples sat down to tables fairly loaded with all the delicacies the most fastidious epicures could wish. A large number of young people were invited for the evening. Flesherton band was present and filled the air with merry music. Mrs. M. Henry is a sister of Mrs. P. Bolger, with whom she has resided since she came to Priceville. We extend to the happy couple our best wishes. The presents were numerous and costly. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a handsome gold watch and chain.

A NARROW ESCAPE—During the ringing of the school bell at 1 o'clock last Friday the tongue became detached and came flying down the tower. It crashed through the ceiling of the cloak room, which is directly under the bell, and fell with tremendous force on the floor a few inches behind Miss Janie McLean, daughter of Mr. Archie McLean of the South Line. It was an exceedingly narrow escape from instant death.

WAR ITEMS—We copy the following from a Dartmouth, England, paper: "Mr. H. Humphreys, engineer, who was at Koffeyfontein, Orange Free State, has not been heard of since the war broke out, and there is every reason to believe that he has been commandeered. His wife reached her home at Grahamstown in safety just before the outbreak of hostilities and it was his intention to follow as soon as possible." The gentleman referred to in the foregoing paragraph is a brother of the Rev. J. S. Humphreys of this village and a son of Mr. R. H. Humphreys, who is at present visiting in Guelph.

We have learned on good authority that General Hector McDonald, whose fame is universal, has a relative living on the South Line in the person of Mrs. McIntyre.

COMMUNION SERVICES—Communion services were conducted in the Presbyterian church last Sunday. The preparatory sermons through the week were preached by the Rev. Mr. McGillivray of Bonar Presbyterian church, Toronto. His sermons were very much appreciated.

BUILDING—Mrs. A. Butters had teams engaged last week drawing stone for repairing the foundation of the Commercial hotel. Mrs. Butters intends raising the hotel a foot or two higher than it is at present. Mr. Thomas Nicholl is making extensive preparation for the erection of a fine barn next summer.

THE ICE HARVEST—A large number of farmers was busily engaged last week in storing up the concentrated extract of winter for summer use. Jack Frost has made a pretty good job of the mill pond this year, as the ice is about two feet thick and of very good quality. Jack is hard at work this week putting on the finishing touches to his handiwork ere he departs for other climes, and for our part we don't care how quick he packs up and "gets."

A GAELIC LECTURE—On Wednesday evening of last week Dr. McLeod, a Gaelic scholar, who is at present staying with friends near Pomona, delivered an exceedingly interesting lecture in the Gaelic language in the Presbyterian church. The subject was, "A plea for the teaching of Gaelic to the children." The speaker urged upon the parents the great necessity of instructing their children in this ancient and useful language for fear it might die out. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the lecturer at the close of his address.

EXCHANGE OF PULPITS—The Rev. Mr. Sharp of Durham occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church last Sunday. Mr. Sharp could not get to the other appointments of the circuit on account of the bad state of the roads. The Rev. J. S Humphreys took charge of Mr. Sharpe's work on the Varney circuit.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. W. J. Blakeston and children are visiting with the former's sister, Mrs. E. P. Lawrence of Flesherton this week.

Mr. Peter McIntyre arrived home from Palmerston last week. We are sorry to learn that Peter has been under the weather for a few weeks, but we trust that the clear, bracing air of our burg will soon restore him to his usual health and strength.

It is our very pleasant duty to chronicle the fact that Miss Bertha James continues to improve in health.

Mr A. Butters spent a few days of last week in the Queen city as a delegate to the A. O. U. W. convention.

Mr Hugh Watters visited Grand Valley last week.

Mrs. R. King of Grand Valley is visiting her mother, Mrs. W. Watters.

DIED—On Feb. 22, Mrs. Colin McLean of Home Creek, near Chicago, aged about 60 years. Messrs. Hector, Archie and Alex. McLean of the South Line are brothers of deceased.

THROAT REST

You can cough yourself into bronchitis, pneumonia, and consumption. Bandaging and bundling your throat will do no good.
You must give your throat and lungs rest and allow the cough wounds to heal.
There is nothing so bad for a cough as coughing. Stop it by using
Ayer's Cherry Pectoral
Even the cough of early consumption is cured. And, later on, when the disease is firmly fixed, you can bring rest and comfort in every case.
A 25 cent bottle will cure new coughs and colds; the 50 cent size is better for settled coughs of bronchitis and week lungs; the one dollar size is more economical for chronic cases and consumption. It's the size you should keep on hand.
All families ought to be on the watch for sudden attacks of croup or acute lung troubles. Every country home in the land should keep Cherry Pectoral constantly on hand to provide against an emergency.

The Walkerton Telescope says:—The South African war is not confined to the Dark Continent. There was a little of it out in Carrick the other day. There are not many Highlandmen in Carrick, but those of them who are there have the usual Scotch grit. Well, a neighbor of this Scotchman was rather rubbing it in about the Gordon Highlanders running away at Magersfontein. Out flew the Scotchman's fist and the other fellow measured his length in the snow. After he had regained his feet he was ordered off the farm, and in language more forcible than polite he was told never to come back. He promptly obeyed orders.

Markdale

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mrs R. H. Benson and little daughter, who have been visiting Mrs. B's parents in Galt for the past six weeks, returned home on Wednesday, 28th inst.

We extend the right hand of citizenship to Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Whieldon, who have purchased a property in town and are now full fledged citizens.

The addresses given by Miss Wiggins in the Methodist church on Tuesday, the 27th inst., were highly instructive, as well as appreciative. The afternoon meeting was not as well attended as it ought to have been and those who were not there missed a rare treat. In the evening the three choirs under the leadership of Prof. Dundas amalgamated and rendered some very high-grade music, which was followed by Miss Wiggin's second address, which was really a grand one We cannot find language to express our appreciation of the noble, soul-inspiring counsel given in her address. Suffice it to say that it was a treat of a lifetime. The W. C. T. U. here are to be congratulated on securing her services.

Miss Bella McKee is visiting her sister, Mrs Averill of Newton Robinson. Her little niece, Girtie, who has been staying at her grandpa's all winter, returned to her home with her aunt.

Our curlers played a return match at Rocklyn on Friday and of course were the victors.

Mr. J. W. Whitby is having a tussle with Mr. Gripp, and is just able to get into his shop to-day (Tuesday,) the first since Friday.

Rev. Mr. Nowell was too ill to take his work on Sunday.

Mr. David McGhee is having a sale to-day, Friday, preparatory to going to Manitoba.

Kimberley

From Our Own Correspondent

There was a pork factory meeting here on Wednesday evening last, the amount subscribed being eight hundred dollars

Mr. Thomas Reid, our blacksmith, is paying his Peabody friends a visit this week.

The people around this locality are busy cutting wood and drawing sawlogs.

Mr. Elwood Abercrombie and Mr Adam Rear left Thursday for British Columbia. We wish them every success.

Rev J. V. Plunkett delivered an excellent lecture here last Thursday evening.

A patriotic meeting will be held in Kimberley Methodist church, on Friday evening, March 9, for the purpose of collecting money for the Patriotic Fund.

Flags have been hoisted in Kimberley since we heard of the relief of Ladysmith.

Our assessor was performing his duties here this week.

Several of our citizens are busily engaged in cutting ice. They report good ice.

We are sorry to lose our citizen, Mr, Geo. Graham, as he has moved up the valley.

Mr John McGown, who runs Kimberley mill, is doing a rushing business.

Vandeleur

From Our Own Correspondent.

This place has not been reported for some time Your correspondent must have left to fight the Boers.

Mr. David Graham and family left here last week for Manitoba, where they intend making their future home. They carry with them the good wishes of their late neighbors here for prosperity in their new home.

Mr. George Hutchinson, jr., met with a serious accident one day last week. He had the misfortune to get one of his legs broken while helping to cut saw logs in the valley. Dr Eeo of Markdale was called in and set the broken member.

Mr. and Mrs Allen Sheldon, who have been working Mr. Kells' farm for some years, have gone to live near St. Marys where Mr. Sheldon has purchased a farm.

Mr. Jacob Holly has rentered and taken possession of the farm formerly owned by the late J. C. Buchanan.

Mr. J. Teeter of the east back line is busy these days drawing to Markdale Arrowsmith's square timber.

Mr. Edgar Hutchinson left last week for Manitoba. He thinks that a young man can make more money there than here.—Success Ed.

The progress of the war in South Africa is the most exciting topic here at present.

Ten members of the Durham Presbyterian church have each subscribed $100 to the Century fund.
