BRONCHITIS AND COUGH CURED.

Boston, August 18.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co—Gentlemen—Having been troubled for a considerable time with a bad Cough and frequent affection, I was induced to try a bottle of Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, which I am happy to say entirely removed the difficulty. I deem it but just also to say this much for the benefit of those who may be similarly affected.

GEORGE H. DAVIS,

I hereby certify that I am personally acquainted with Geo. H. Davis, Esq., and have the fullest confidence in the above statement.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELLERS—Dr. Ayer's business Agents have a pleasant annual to do, coming about as surely as the year. We can say of them what we are sorry we can not of all such visitors—that they are uniformly gentlemen. They are known to us of the press, as able and reliable, accomplished business men of character well worthy the benevolent calling in which they are engaged, of promulgating the best remedies for the sick, this age affords. Success to you gentlemen and to your cause, for both deserves success.—Hartford Chronicle.

MR. A. G. COOK, who has lately favoured us with a call, does ample credit to our brother's review, and we commend him to the cordial reception of our fraternity—long may he wave. 232

BEST HAIR DYE IN THE WORLD!

This is strong language, yet Bogle's Electric Hair Dye (recently improved) was proven to be so, by the judges at the late Mechanic's Fair, held in Boston, (among whom was Dr. Hayes, the eminent chemist and State assayer) who awarded it the PRIZE MEDAL AND DIPLOMA, over the choicest Hair Dyes on exhibition from all parts of the Union. Its unparalled superiority consists in, 1st. The ingredients are nourishing to the hair, not destructive as others are. 2d. Does not stain nor hurt the skin. 3d. Is easily applied, and dyes the hair any color required, from a delicate brown to a deep black, so natural as to appear marvellous. Manufactured, sold and sold by WM. BOGLE, 277 Washington st. 232

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

But one solution to the mysterious office performed by Dr. Smith's "Electric Oil," of Philadelphia, that any Physiologist can then far discover, which is, its probable incorporation with the nervous fluid of the body, as gains are in the nerves. On no other principle can this be explained. Rheumatism has been much talked about and little understood. This Oil, if genuine, is known to cure amaurosis.

Do you know that Dr. Smith's genuine Electric Oil will cure Gravel, Kidney Complaints, Gout, Rheumatism, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, Ear, Tooth and Headache, Amaurosis, Cramps, Indolent, Swellings, Tic Doloureaux Nouralgia, Paralysis, Weak Ankles, Limbs, and Joints, acute nervous pains, instantly. Burns, Felons, Wounds, Piles, always. Try it, and you won't wonder at its popularity. The genuine Dr. Smith's Electric Oil is always signed A. E. Smith. Grand Central Depot, N. E. corner Walnut and Eighth streets, Philadelphia. Beware of counterfeits.

P. S.—Col Wallace, the distinguished Editor of the Philadelphia Sun, says:

SMITH'S ELECTRIC OIL.—Among the many evidences of sympathy for those injured by the late railroad accident, we are pleased to see that Dr Smith has tendered the gratuitous supply of his Electric Oil, as well as the personal services of himself and lady. The Doctor has a heart open as day to melting clay," and his valuable medicines deserve all the popularity they have attained.

CIRCULAR.

SIR,—As there is some indication that in the course of next Spring, there will be a larger Emigration from Europe to Canada, than has been for some years past; and as it is desirable that the Emigrant, on arriving, should be provided with employment as quickly as possible, I shall feel obliged by your adopting such means as you may find most convenient to ascertain what number of Farm and Domestic Servants—Men and Women, Boys and Girls,—and further, what number and class of Mechanics would be likely to find employment with your Municipality; and reporting to this Department, as soon as possible, the result of your enquiries.

Complaints have been made, from various parts of the country of the scarcity of Labourers, &c., and the want can probably be supplied next season, by the combined action of this Department with the authorities in the different localities.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient Servant,
P. M. VANKOUGHNET,
Minister of Agriculture, &c.

TRIBUNE FOR 1857.

THE Election is past, and its result proves that the work devolved on the Republican party is not yet completed. In all the Eastern and Northern portions of the country—in New England, New York, Ohio and the North West—the Republican banner floats in triumph; while in Southern Jersey, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Illinois—in short, wherever few newspapers are taken, and where common schools are too new and too feeble to have educated the present generation of voters—the black flag of Slavery obscures the sunshine. A stranger to America might distinguish those portions of our country most blessed with Education, Intelligence, Thrift and Virtue, by scanning the returns of the Presidential contest of 1856. We have failed of present success, not because the People are against us, but because that large portions who did not hear or read the argument and do not know what were the real questions at issue, went almost solid against us, reversing the verdict which the great majority of the educated and intelligent endeavored to pronounce.

These facts indicate the path of pressing duty. With no unmanly repinings over what is irrevocable—with no abatement of heart or hope because the triumph of Liberty in her new ordeal is not won at the Long Island and White Plains of her struggle—with no shadow of regret that the responsibility of governing is not confined to her champions before this world, as well as of the next, makes Free indeed. Now in the Slave Power's hordes of victory, when its minions and serv[illegible] gathering and plotting to make the most of their triumph and "to Hell" the spirit which they vainly believe to be crucified and entombed—now when the faint-hearted are redhearted who lately barked in the rear of our premature hosts are kicking off to retreat, disparaging and taking of a mistaking the ragged area of Politics for more quiet and flowery fields—now, in the hour of weariness and shadow, THE TRIBUNE renews its vows of plethal hostility to every form of tyranny over the bodies or souls of men—to the shameful assumption that the benighted and feeble, whether in soul or body, are to be regarded and treated as the inferiors or the prey of their wiser or stronger brethren—to the domination of despots and oligarchs, whether of empires or plantations—to the enslavement of race and kindred in Europe or the bloodiest of children for the auction block and the cotton field in Virginia or Alabama.

The doctrine that no human being was ever created for the benefit or advantage of another—that all service between man and man should be free and reciprocal—that the labourer should not toil and sweat to pamper others' pride or minister to others' luxury, but for the sustenance and comfort of those near and dear to him—is destined to certain triumph. It must prevail, for God reigns, and Earth was not created to be a theatre of injustice, oppression and misery forever. It must triumph; for all true prophecy affirms and the vind cation of the divine benignity imperatively requires it. It must triumph; for Democratic America cannot always remain the scoff of aristocrats and the shame of reformers and liberals throughout the Old World. It must triumph; for Man's history is not a chase or a riddle, but every where instructive and encouraging;
