Stone's Settlement.

From Our Own Correspondent.

The Easter holidays are over, school has re-opened, and farmers are settling down to their usual routine of spring work.

Fall wheat in this section has a sickly appearance at present. Hopes of even an average crop are not at present anticipated.

Miss Annie Harrow returned to Owen Sound on Monday.

Mr. Geo. Boyce has leased the McPhail farm for a term of five years. The farm leased by Mr. J. Snell is the McPhee, not the McPhail property, as stated in last week's issue. It is, however, part of the original McPhail farm.

Mr. Ed. Sewel, of the Irish Lake settlement has leased Mr. Hugh McFayden's farm for three years and will take immediate possession. We are informed that Mr. McFaydyen and his mother intend moving to Oregon, U. S.

The old log schoolhouse which was built when this section was formed nearly half a century ago, and which, until about ten years ago served as a meeting house is to be replaced this summer by a neat frame building for the use of the Sabbath school and Epworth League, towards which, the residents of this line have liberally subscribed. The site is not yet decided upon, but it is said that Mrs. R. Stone has offered to give the ground, in addition to her already liberal subscription. A substantial public schoolhouse was built fifteen years ago, the old building being left for church and Sunday school purposes, but much to the inconvenience of some of the old people, the church appointment was cut off and annexed to Priceville about ten years ago, since which time it has been used as a sabbath school. With the old building there are associated recollections both of regret and pleasure, regret, that so many of the dear old friends and relatives who worshipped within its walls in the old pioneer days have passed away to their everlasting home, where, we hope, and feel assured, they enjoy eternal rest; pleasure, that others, who as children themselves, received their early education under its roof, have lived to see their children receive a superior education in a more substantial, but to memory, not half so dear an edifice, as "the old log schoolhouse."

A Wolf in Sheep's Clothing.

Miss A. M. Aston, the young, beautiful and accomplished eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs. Whitmore Aston, who are among Collingwood's most highly respected citizens, and a family in every way above reproach, was united in marriage on Wednesday, April 4th, to a so called man named David Stadelbaure, of Berlin, with every hope of a long and happy married life. Unhappily the man proved a veritable wolf in sheep's clothing, and the fair bride of a week now lies at the home of her parents, almost at the point of death, the result of her cruel experience

It appears that this Stadelbaure is a most consumate liar and romancer, and on the occasion of his frequent visits represented himself to be a man of means, with a flourishing business in the town of Berlin, and that he had a beautiful and modern residence, handsomely furnished, ready for the reception of the bride. What was the young girl's dismay, on her arrival at her destination, to find she had been deceived in the most heartless manner. There was neither home, friends or means of support, and she was taken to a shanty, devoid of furniture or accommodation of any kind. On the facts being communicated to her parents, Mrs. Aston at once proceeded to Berlin and brought her daughter home, and her investigation proved the man to be without means, credit or respect in Berlin. The familiy have the sympathy of the town in their trouble, and Stadelbaure will likely get a warm reception should he ever come to Collingwood.—Collingwood Enterprise.

A very sad death occured in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Carson Price, Holland Centre, on last Friday, when their fourth daughter, May, was suddenly taken from them by an attack of heart failure of little more than an hour's duration. For two weeks she had been ill with lagrippe and was progressing favorably until heart failure set in. She was a bright, hearty, happy, young girl of eighteen years and eight months, beloved by her associates and the life and joy of her home.—News.

On Wednesday evening, 11th inst., the people of Duntroon and surrounding country witnessed the destruction of the old township hall. The blaze was discovered shortly after nine o'clock and within an hour the building was a heap of ruins. As there is no fire protection in the village the spectators could do nothing to extinguish the flames. Indeed, it is a question whether they wanted to. This building was erected about forty-five years ago by a carpenter named J. McAusland, a well known character throughout the Northern end of the township. Since then it has been constantly in use, and many times has been the scene of hot municipal meetings. At the time of the fire it contained very little of value, the most important documents belonging to the township being in charge of the treasurer and clerk. The origin of the blaze is a mystery but it is generally credited to the hand of an incendiary. There is $400 insurance.—Bulletin.

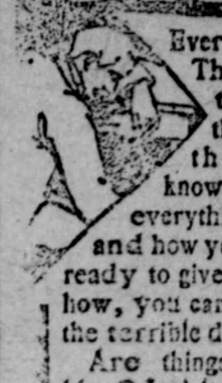
BLUES



Ever have them? Then we can't tell you anything about them. You know how dark everything looks and how you are about ready to give up. Somehow, you can't throw off the terrible depression.

Are things really so blue? Isn't it your nerves, after all? That's where the trouble is. Your nerves are being poisoned from the impurities in your blood.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

purifies the blood and gives power and stability to the nerves. It makes health and strength, activity and cheerfulness.

This is what "Ayer's" will do for you. It's the oldest Sarsaparilla in the land, the kind that was old before other Sarsaparillas were known.

This also accounts for the saying, "One bottle of Ayer's is worth three bottles of the ordinary kind."

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.
