In Memory of the Late J. W. Henderson.

On Sunday, May 27, the Sherbourn street church, Toronto, held a memorial service for the members deceased during the year past, when Trustee H. H. Fudger paid the following tribute to the memory of the late J. W. Henderson:

I am asked to refer specially to my old friend Brother J. W. Henderson, who for many years was one of the most active members of our Church, and was known throughout the province as a loyal, energetic Methodist, and true to his charge. He was known long by the official position which he held in relation to our Quarterly Board, Trustee Board, and also as representative of the Toronto Conference and General Conference, as well as to all relations his influence was felt, and his ability recognized. He had the faculty of getting quickly at the pith of any matter under discussion, and also had the force of quick decision. Until lingering disease confined him to his home he was an active figure in our midst, and in church work, and we can hardly realize that he has gone from us. The members of the Toronto conference who come among us next week will miss him, and amongst them he has many warm friends. We cannot help but think of Brother Henderson as still cherishing his love for the class meeting, and his keen interest with those whom he met and assisted on the upward hill of Zion. Just as some successful man, who begins life in low ability, and looks back with interest to the home of his early days, so may we imagine Brother Henderson in the Class, as it was more to him than any other service. It was as a class leader Brother Henderson was best known, and will be long remembered. We have been blessed with good leaders in this church. Mr. Henderson's class is carried on by a faithful, earnest successor. Brother Henderson's leadership was unique. He had ways of his own, and it was very difficult to describe to those who had not the privelege of associating with him, just what his methods were. For example, he often conducted his class as if he was taking evidence from various witnesses as to the value of Christianity. His simple creed was that Christianity helped men to help one another. In asking for their decision he would put a question to them. For instance, Dr, do you find religion helps you in your practice? Students how do you find it in your work? Brother, does prayer help a man to lay bricks? Can a banker tell of Christianity? and so on throughout the meeting. To do something was his expectation. If Brother Henderson stood amongst us, and our names were on this Memorial Roll this evening his advice to us would be to take up the burden of life, and we can best honor his memory by so doing. We believe he exerted great influence for good on the lives of many, especially young men and women, who have gone out from his class all over this country of ours. We are meeting here and recall his work amongst us, but in the nature of things, except to those of the immediate household, will his name stand vivid. Those whom Brother Henderson has helped to stand up for the truth acknowledge with thanks to God their indebtedness to his words and works.

Markdale

From Our Own Correspondent.

LACROSSE—The first match of the league series was played here on Friday last between the oldtime rivals, viz. Shelburne and Markdale. It was the fastest game of lacrosse ever played in this district, both teams playing a good clean game. There was no unnecessary roughness and I think from what I overheard that the Shelburne club have no reason to murmur at their reception in our town. The score stood 6 to 5 in the home club's favor. I might here throw out a bit of advice to our citizens for the future. I believe that we should cheer the visiting team as well as our own whenever a brilliant play is made by them, and we must admit that the Shelburne club is a good one and made some excellent plays.

In the midst of life we are in death. This statement has again been verified in our midst. Willie White, whom I mentioned last week as being able to be in town, has since been called to try the realities of another world. He was again stricken with paralysis on Thursday evening last, and on Friday night at 11 o'clock his spirit took its everlasting flight. Willie was only married eighteen months ago, and the home life was a happy one. A bright little boy came to help brighten the home about six months ago and everything indicated a prosperous and happy future, but man proposes and God disposes, and thus the cords have have been broken and their future plans frustrated May the great Consoler of Hearts comfort and cheer the mourning friends. A very large concourse of sympathizers accompanied the remains to their last resting place in the public cemetery, Rev. Hunter officiating.

William Boyce and William and Robt. Byers of Rochester attended the funeral of the late Willie White.

A. H. Stephen, wife and daughter, and Mrs. W. W. Stephen and son of Meaford, were guests at the home of R. L. Stephen this week.

Rev. John Hunter, pastor of the Presbyterian church, left for Halifax on Monday to attend the General Assembly.

I. B. Lucas, W. Dundas, S. J. Halbert and J. W. Whitby attended the Conservative convention in Durham as a delegation from our town on Saturday the 9th inst.

Died—In Markdale, June 11th, Gordon Gregory, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gregory, aged 1 year and 8 months.

Mrs. William Jackson, jr., leaves today (Tuesday) to visit her brothers, James and Samuel Hamilton, of Muskegon, Mich., and also her brother Albert, of Waterloo, Indianna. Miss Janet Winlaw accompanies her. We wish them bon voyage.

The Town council have started the men to work on the street improvement. Andrew Walker is busy crushing stone for the same. It will be a grand improvement to our main street.

Inistioge

From Our Own Correspondent.

Now that the busy time is over some of our people have been doing some visiting

On Wednesday of last week Mr. A. Moore of Mulmur and Miss Louie Talbot were united in marriage. We extend congratulations and wish them a long, prosperous and happy journey through life together.

Mr. A. Lonsway is very ill.

Mr. and Mrs W. L. Hames visited near Guelph for a few days last week.—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hutchinson spent a week visiting friends at Midland.—Mr. S. and Miss M. Talbot visited over Sunday with friends in Mono.

Mr. Woods of Corbetton supplied the pulpit here very acceptably on Sunday.

Miss Addie Johnston is still very ill with pneumonia. We hope soon to hear of her recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornett from Lansdowne and Mr. and Mrs. A. Cornett from Dundalk visited Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Cornett last week.

Priceville

From Our Own Correspondent.

If all reports are true the residents of Stone's settlement are confronted with a mystery deeper and more peculiar than that of the famous haunted school. Your correspondent has been solemnly informed by reliable persons that a strange, weird, meteor-like ball of fire appears at intervals in the said neighborhood and after making a considerable circuit it disappears. Already several theories have been advanced as to the cause of this seemingly unnatural phenomenon, but no definite conclusion has been arrived at. Of course several ludicrous stories have grown out of this peculiar appearance. Here is one, but we do not vouch for the genuineness of the incident. A young man determined one evening to discover if possible the secret in connection with the appearance of this luminous spook, and so he bravely followed in the wake of the ghostly visitor, which evidently must have become annoyed at the persistency and bold language of the investigator, for it suddenly turned and made a bee line for him. Then there was a change in the program. For a few minutes that young man fairly flew over the ground and we presume, if the story is true, that he has had enough of spook hunting to last him the rest of his life.

Although it may be rather late to mention it, I would just like to state that our village celebrated the fall of Pretoria in right royal style.

A number of our politicians attended the Conservative convention held in Durham last Saturday.

We were pleased to notice the names of John McLeod and Walter Nichol among the successful candidates at the late Toronto University examinations. Well done, boys.

J. McDowell is busily engaged erecting a commodious dwelling on his fine lot on Durham street. D. Campbell is the contractor.

Hugh McRae left for Harriston last Saturday to attend the funeral of a relative who had been killed at a barn raising.

G. W. Slaughter of Flesherton occupied the Methodist pulpit last Sunday and preached a very thoughtful and helpful sermon.

Rev. Beavis of Hamilton conducted service at St. Colomba church last Sunday in absence of the pastor, who is at present in Halifax attending the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church.

Rev. J. S. Humphreys preached in one of the leading Owen Sound churches last Sunday.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. R. Robertson is quite seriously ill, but trust she will soon regain her wonted health and strength.

Our village was greatly shocked last week when the news spread that Miss Bertha James had suffered a severe relapse. However, we are very glad to state that at present she has taken a change for the better.

Maxwell

From Own Our Correspondent.

Mr. and Mrs. Blakely of Corbetton spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Linley.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Harrison of Corbetton visited her sister, Mrs. F. Heron, last Sunday.

Miss Janie Hudson and Mr. George Hawton of Feversham spent Sunday at Mr. W. H. Guy's.

Mr. Ormsby, implement agent, had a very exciting time one day last week. While calling at a farm house he left his horse tied out at the fence. The animal chewed its rope halter, got loose and ran away, leaving Tom in the shade. The buggy was badly broken but the horse came off safe. Somebody should invest in a chain halter to tie this animal.

Mr. Buckingham's barn raising was well attended last Friday night and everything went together in first class style. It takes carpenter Ross to frame and he is rushing the buildings up in quick order this summer.

Veterinary Oliver of Markdale was down assisting Dr. Mackie of this place for a few days last week.

Alexander Hudson's little boy while playing in the yard last Tuesday evening got his foot badly cut.

Dan McDonald and his aunt, Miss McDonald, visited friends at Mt. Forest last week.—Medlar Guy and Mrs. W. H. Guy visited friends in Proton on Sunday.

Eugenia

From Our Own Correspondent

Messrs. Jonathan and Leonard Latimer are each having their residences veneered with brick, besides making other improvements.

Mr. John English of the gravel road had his barn struck by lightning on Thursday afternoon last, but with the exception of a few splintered timbers no damage was done. Several men working on the basement were thrown down and received severe shocks.

Mr. Joseph Sherwood is erecting a fine frame barn on his farm.

Mr. A. McLean is building an addition to his house.

Mrs. Roy is very sick at present. We hope soon to see her improved in health.

We are pleased to see Mrs. F. T. Carr home again after a pleasant visit among her distant friends.

Mrs Gilliland and daughter have gone to visit friends near Ottawa.

Rev. Mr. Plunkett has gone to attend conference in Toronto.

Communion service was held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday and was well attended.

The fat end of W. Edgar, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Purvis, on Wednesday last, was attended by a very large number of people. Our teachers, Mr. Sine and Miss Austin, were kind. Miss Austin made a very fine white wreath and placed it on the coffin of her little pupil. The school children were all given a half holiday, and, headed by their teachers, marched from the school to the house where funeral services were conducted by Revs. Thom and Plunkett. The children sang several favorite pieces of the deceased. The remains were interred in Salem burial ground, where the children each dropped a bunch of flowers into the grave. It was a very touching scene as the sad little faces turned away from the open grave. Much sympathy is expressed for the parents as the deceased was a very bright little boy six years of age. May they feel that their loss is his gain.

We are pleased to see home again Mr. Daniel McMullen, but sorry for the accident to his eye. He has gone to Toronto to have it treated by a specialist.

CARD OF THANKS—Mr. and Mrs. Purvis wish, through The Advance, to sincerely thank the teachers, Mr. Sine and Miss Austin for great kindness to their dear boy in his sickness and at his funeral. They will never forget the care and sympathy expressed for their much loved Edgar while on his dying couch, and for the esteem and respect manifested by them and the many pupils under their care, and in the prominent and pleasing way on which they took part in the funeral ceremonies both in the house, on the way to the cemetery, and at the grave. The remembrance of their kindnesses will go with us to the end of life's journey. We also wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the whole community for the kindness and sympathy shown us in our sad bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Purvis.

Mrs. Alex Carson of Priceville and Mrs. Meff from Cleveland spent a few days with Mrs. S. Gilbert.

Messrs T. Kells, S. Bowles, J. Brodie and Geo. Pritchard attended the Conservative convention at Durham on Wednesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Osburne of Lady Bank spent Sunday with friends in this vicinity.

Mr. M Board took a trip to Creemore last week with a load of cheese boxes for Armstrong Bros.

Mrs. Anderson of Glenelg is visiting at her daughter's, Mrs. Geo. Hutchinson, jr.

Mr. John McGee raised a fine frame barn on Thursday last. F. Boland and E. Pritchard were the captains. Boland winning by a hairs breadth. The building is 40 by 65, with stone basement. Holley Bros. were the contractors for the stonework. Messrs. Cooper and son for the frame.

Some of the boys would do well to leave their fire crackers at home on Sunday evenings.

Mr. Holm, of Ottawa, has received a letter from his son, who is with the south African Horse, describing the life of a midshipman acting as a soldier. He says in part: "The way these rascally Boers have treated our poor chaps is disgusting. Here is an instance. An Dublin Fusilier out post sentry was surprised and attacked. He was stunned bound, and poked head first into a hole, where he was found an hour or two afterwards. The ants had eaten part of one shoulder and had started on his face. The poor beggar died a few hours after.
