BOOK KEEPING.

LEGER Lessons, designed chiefly for the use of Schools, and recommended to agents, merchants, clerks, extensive shopkeepers and all others desirous of balancing and closing accounts in an easy, familiar and satisfactory manner, by J. Scott, Common School Teacher, Kingston, C. W.

Mr. Scott, well knowing the deficiency that too generally exists among Teachers and Book Keepers in posting, balancing and closing the Leger, intends, through the co-operation of the public, to publish a set of Leger Lessons, which will fully develope, and minutely define all the varieties that can arise in balancing and closing each and every account in the Leger, taken separately. The Lessons will be written in question and answer, and so arranged that the weakest capacity can fully comprehend them, whilst they will confirm the eminent Book Keeper, and if once published, no consistent Teacher will permit any pupil to commence the study of Art until he first procure a copy of them.

The Lessons will be published only by subscriptions, at one dollar each copy. Subscribers' names will be taken at the following places, for one month from the date hereof, when the work will go to press, if a sufficient number of subscribers offer.

The Office of the British Whig Bagot Street, R. S. Henderson, Superintendent of C. S., Mr. James Harty, Merchant, Market Square, Mr. Abraham Foster, Merchant, Princess Street, Mr. E. W. Palmer, Bookseller, City Buildings, Messrs Ramsay and Armour, King Street.

And by the publisher at his School room, Bagot Street, where pupils can receive a sound English mercantile education, Euclid's Elements, plain and oblique Angular Trigenometry, with the use of the scale, Mensuration with the use of the sliding rule, Dialing and Land Surveying in theory and practice, Water Leveling, &c., &c.

PRIZE QUESTIONS.—The first subscriber who will (by letter post-paid,) fully answer the following questions, selected from the Lessons, shall receive one copy gratis, and have his name announced through the Press.

Question 1st. Define the abbreviations h. a.—m. a.—t. a.—o. a.—

2nd. How many sorts of Journal entries are there

3rd. How many may be concerned in a Bill of Exchange with indorsement

4th. If the Dr. side of your Balance were lost or destroyed by accident, how do you find the amount of it, without re-balancing the Leger.

5th. When is a real account of wares proper closed with a double balance.

6th. Define how many varieties stock account admits of.

BRITANNIA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY.

No. 1 Princes Street, Bank, London.

CAPITAL, ONE MILLION.

EMPOWERED BY SPECIAL ACT OF PARLIAMENT, 4 Vic. Cap. 9.

THE great success of this Institution in Europe, and the numerous Policies, issued by the different Agencies in Canada, evidently show that the advantages of Life Assurance are daily becoming more and more appreciated by those who feel the necessity of making some provision for their families, or securing the amount of debts due by or to them in case of premature death.—The rates of the Britannia are the lowest which can be offered consistently, with security to the Assured, and the subscriber begs respectfully to invite the attention of the inhabitants of Kingston to the numerous Tables of Rates, specimens of which may be seen at his office, or in the Montreal Herald, Montreal Gazette, and Montreal Courier as also in several papers in Canada West.

Assurances may be advantageously effected on the lives of others, either for the purpose of securing loans, or debts or in case where the party has an interest in the life of another, so as to be in any way prejudiced in the event of his decease. To creditors, a Policy of Assurance affords a certain, and, in many cases, the only means of security. Also in addition to the published rates an extensive set of Tables has been computed for Assurance on Joint Lives, the survivor of two or more lives, and for contingent Assurances: also for Reversionary Annuities, Endowments for Widows and Children, and for every possible contingency affecting human life, against which it may be prudent or expedient to provide.

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT OF THE RATES OF THE FOLLOWING OFFICES:

Rate for one year, (whole of Life) for the Assurance of £100;

National Loan Fund	age 30	£2	4	4
Colonial Life Assurance Con'y	do	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
United Kingdom	do	2	3	10
British Commercial	do	2	1	11
Mector	do	2	1	2
Britannia	do	2	0	8

The other Offices doing business in the Colonies are so much higher, that comparison is unnecessary.

The income of the Company, independently of the large subscribed Capital, is between Eighty and Ninety Thousand Pounds Sterling, per Annum, and of this the greatest part is continually accumulating for the payment of losses.

A party effecting an Assurance with this Company, may do so for a fixed sum, payable at his or her death, without participating in the profits, and thereby secure an immediate Bonus by not paying more than is absolutely required to provide for the risk—but if participation in profits is preferred by any party, there are "Mutual Tables" adopted by the Company, which offer an annual division of the Profits, and which being supported by the other Branch of the Institution, hold out a very safe and profitable inducement to the person wishing to Assure.

All claims payable within THREE MONTHS after proof of death. No proof of birth is required at the time a claim is made; the age of the Assured being, in every case, admitted in the Policy, cannot, under any circumstances be afterwards called in question. Policies effected by parties on their own lives are not rendered void in case of death by duelling or the hands of justice. In the event of suicide, if the Policy be assigned to a bona fide Creditor, the sum assured will be paid without deduction: if the Policy be not assigned, the full amount of Premiums received thereon will be returned to the family of the Assured.

The subscriber begs to remark that the Britannia Company has been doing business in this Province for about ten years—and has been always found liberal, and prompt in the settlement of claims.

The necessary forms, and every requisite information, as to the mode of effecting Assurances, may be obtained either by letter or personal application to

THOMAS BRIGGS, Junr.,
Agent at Kingston.
